"Blue Gust" Words by William Kaye

Opening Act II

Produced by Floyd WorThington & William Kaye

Irving Schlein

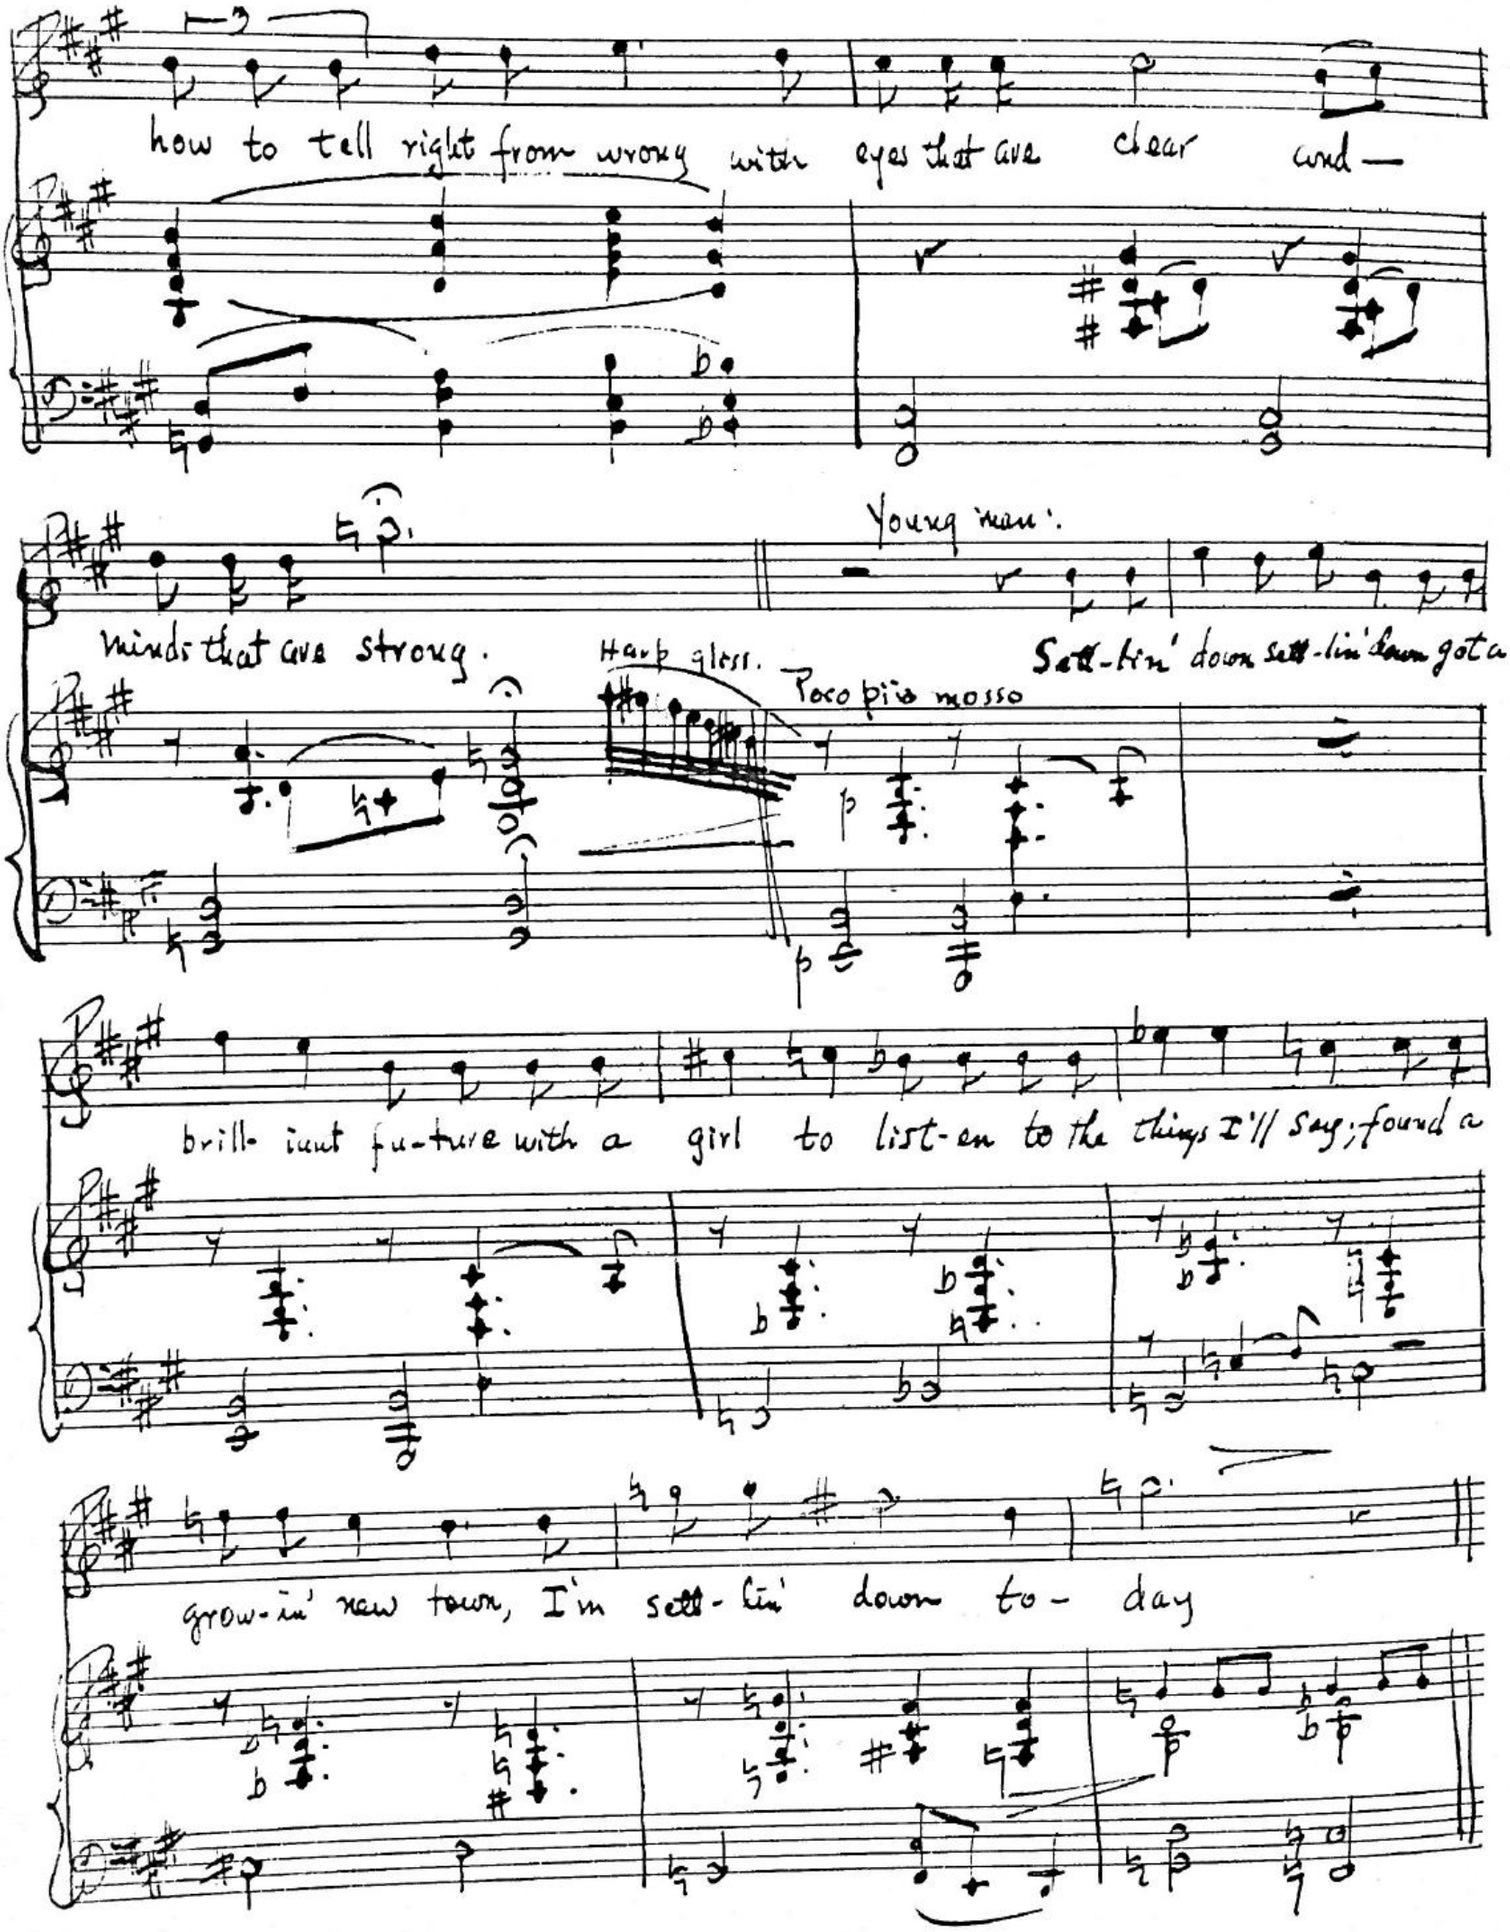

Sett- lin' down
and feel- in' might- y care- free Just don't want to wan- der Wow! What a feeling sett- lin'
down

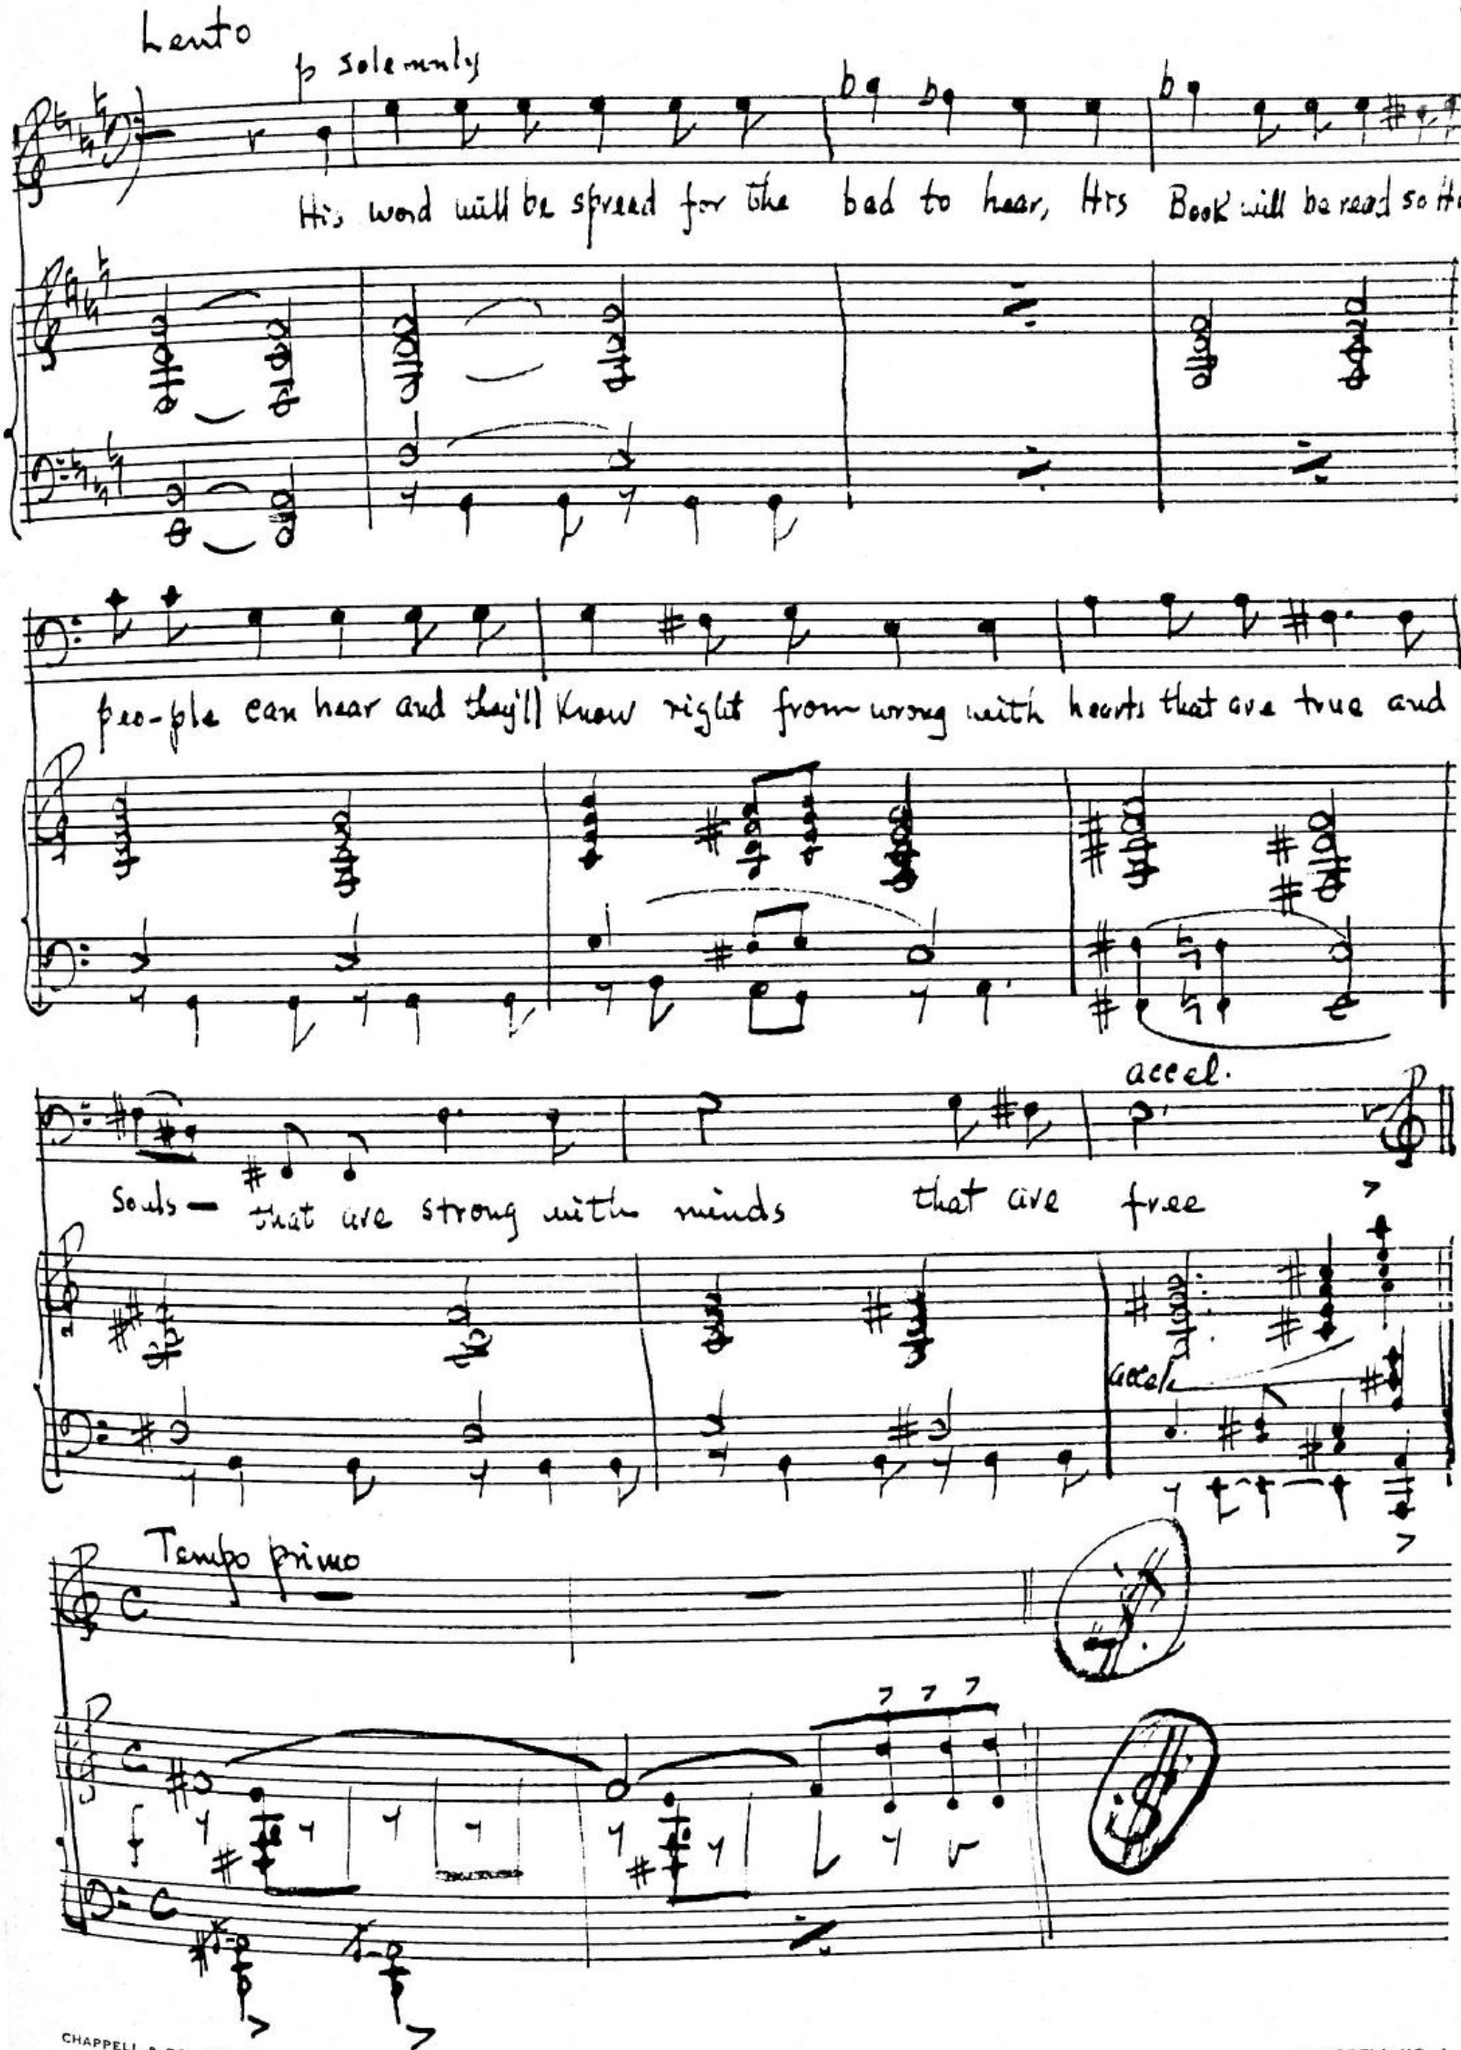

Sett- lin' down
We've got a be se- cure in this brand new town Folks are might- y hap- py Folks are might- y
hap- py
Got a rain- bow yon- der.
Got a rain- bow yon- der

Things are look-in' bright-er
In this grand new Things are look-in' bright-er
In this grand new town
town Yep! We said we've Yep! We said we've Sett-lin'
down
and now that we've at home
now we can real-ly we've have no more to Say room

In own own
town we've sett-lin'
down
Teacher:
The
chil-dren I'll teach will be
And te taught to think; the chil-dren I'll reach will learn quick as a wink dolce

CHAPPELL & CO., INC., 1270 SIXTH AVE., N. Y.

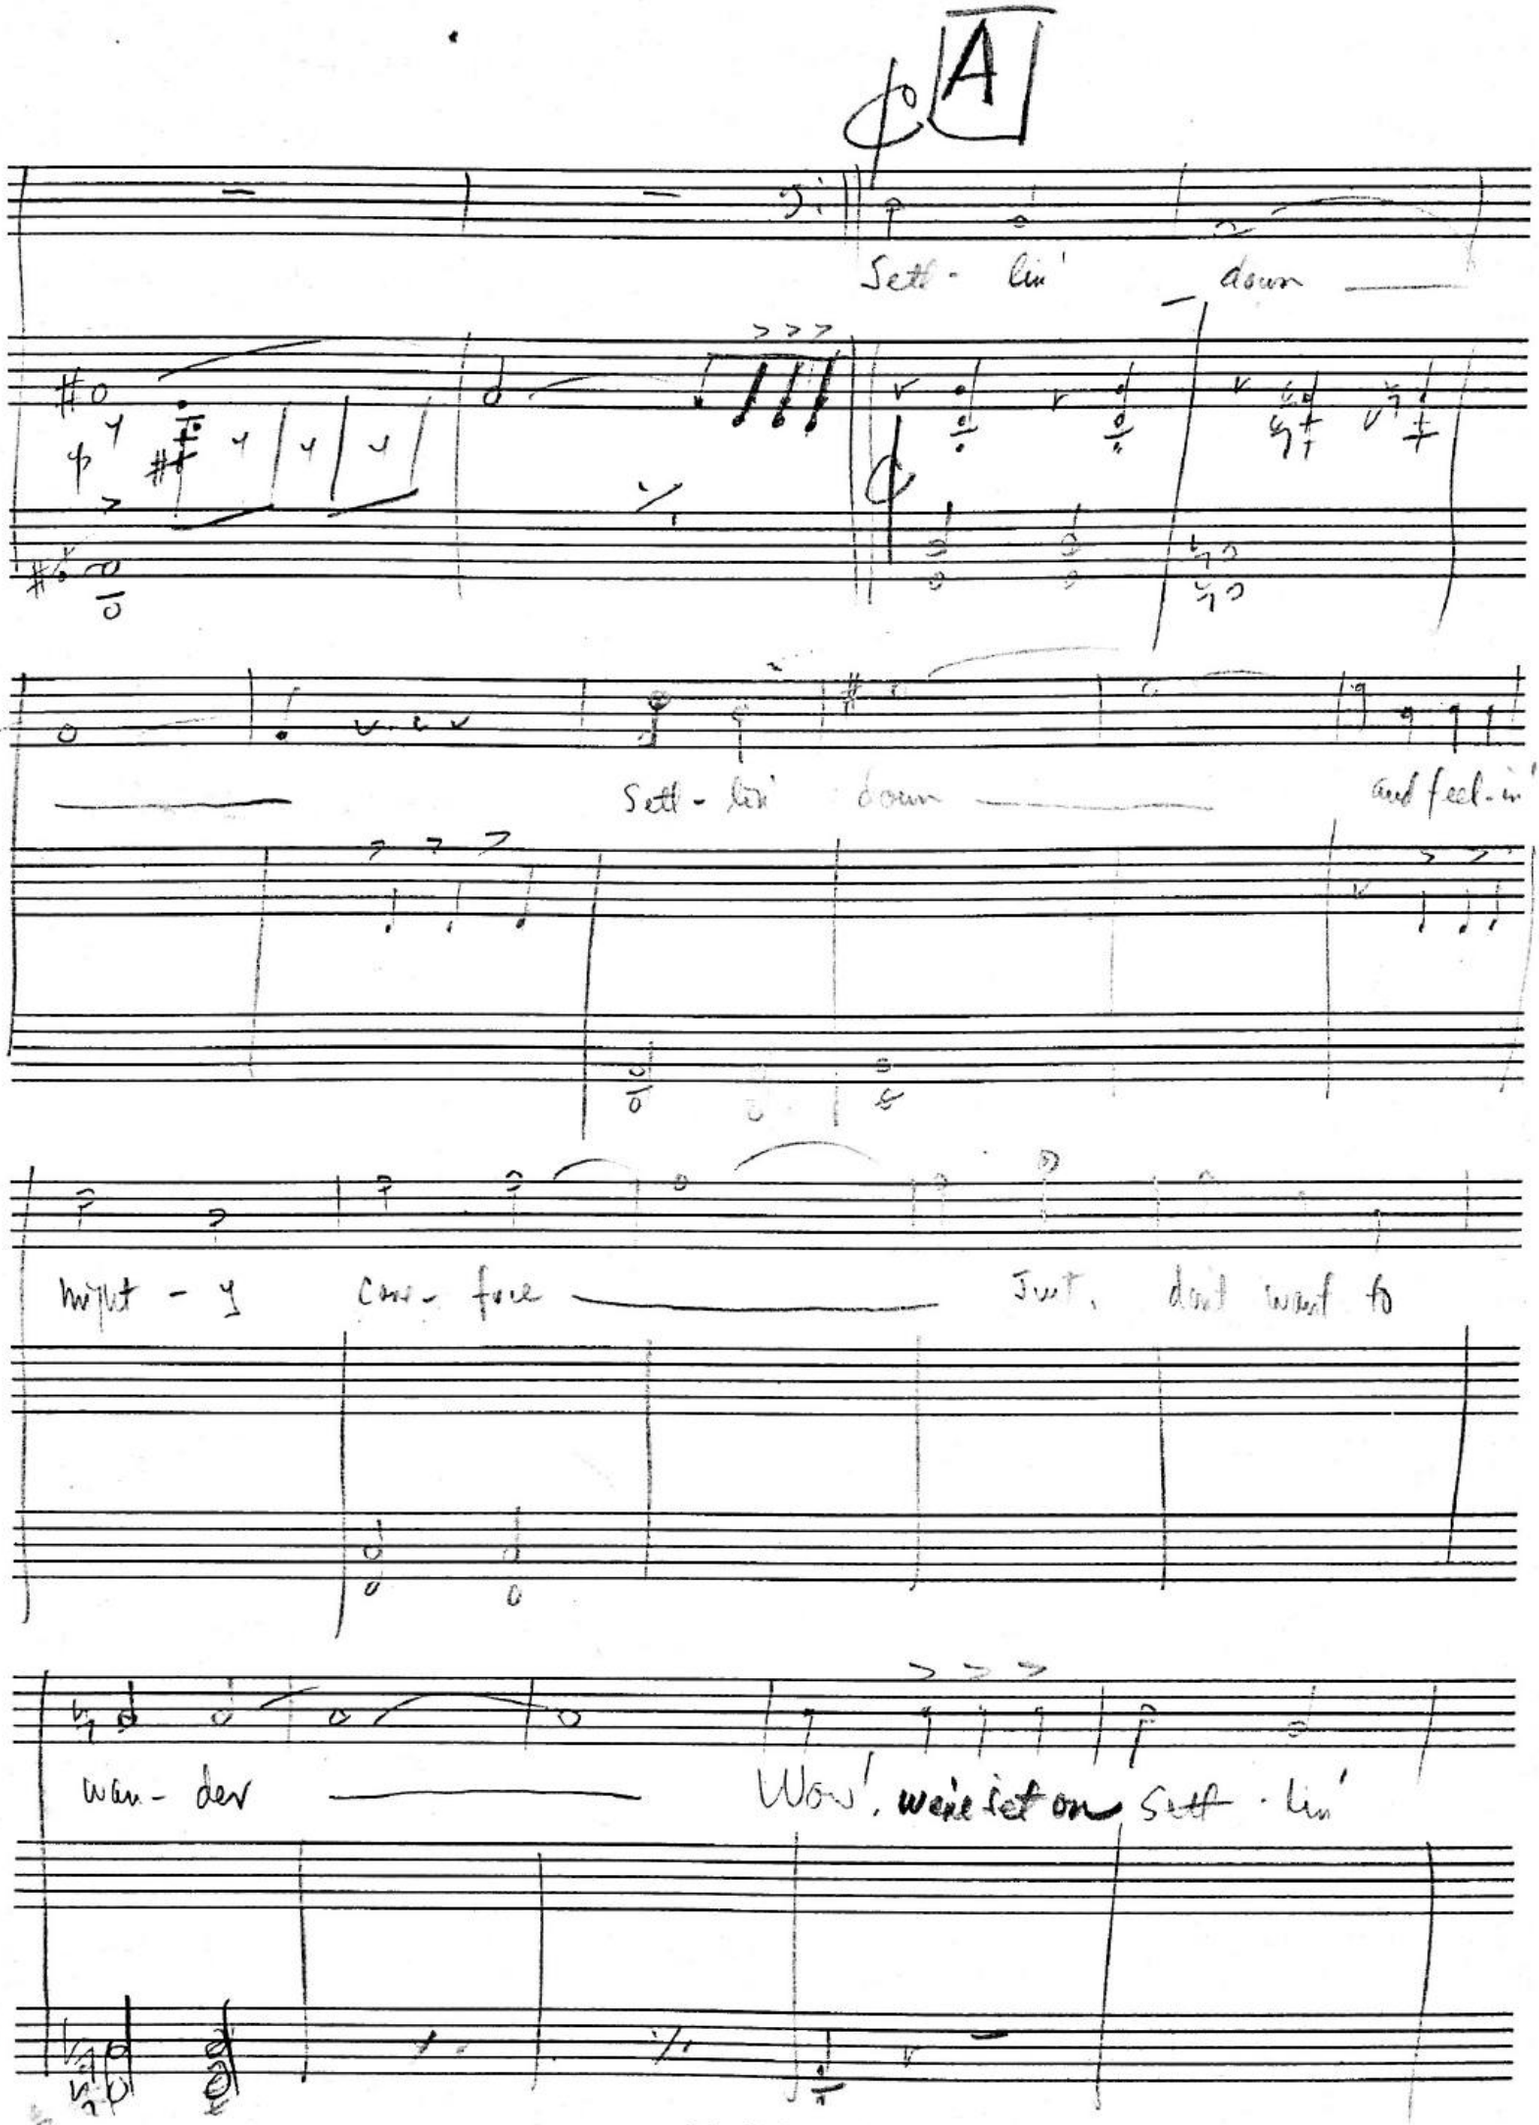

Lento
p solemnly
His word will be spread for the bad to hear, His Book will be read so His peo-ple can hear and they'll know right from wrong with hearts that are true and accel.
Souls — that are strong with minds that are free
accel.
Tempo primo

Act II Scene 1

Settlin' Down

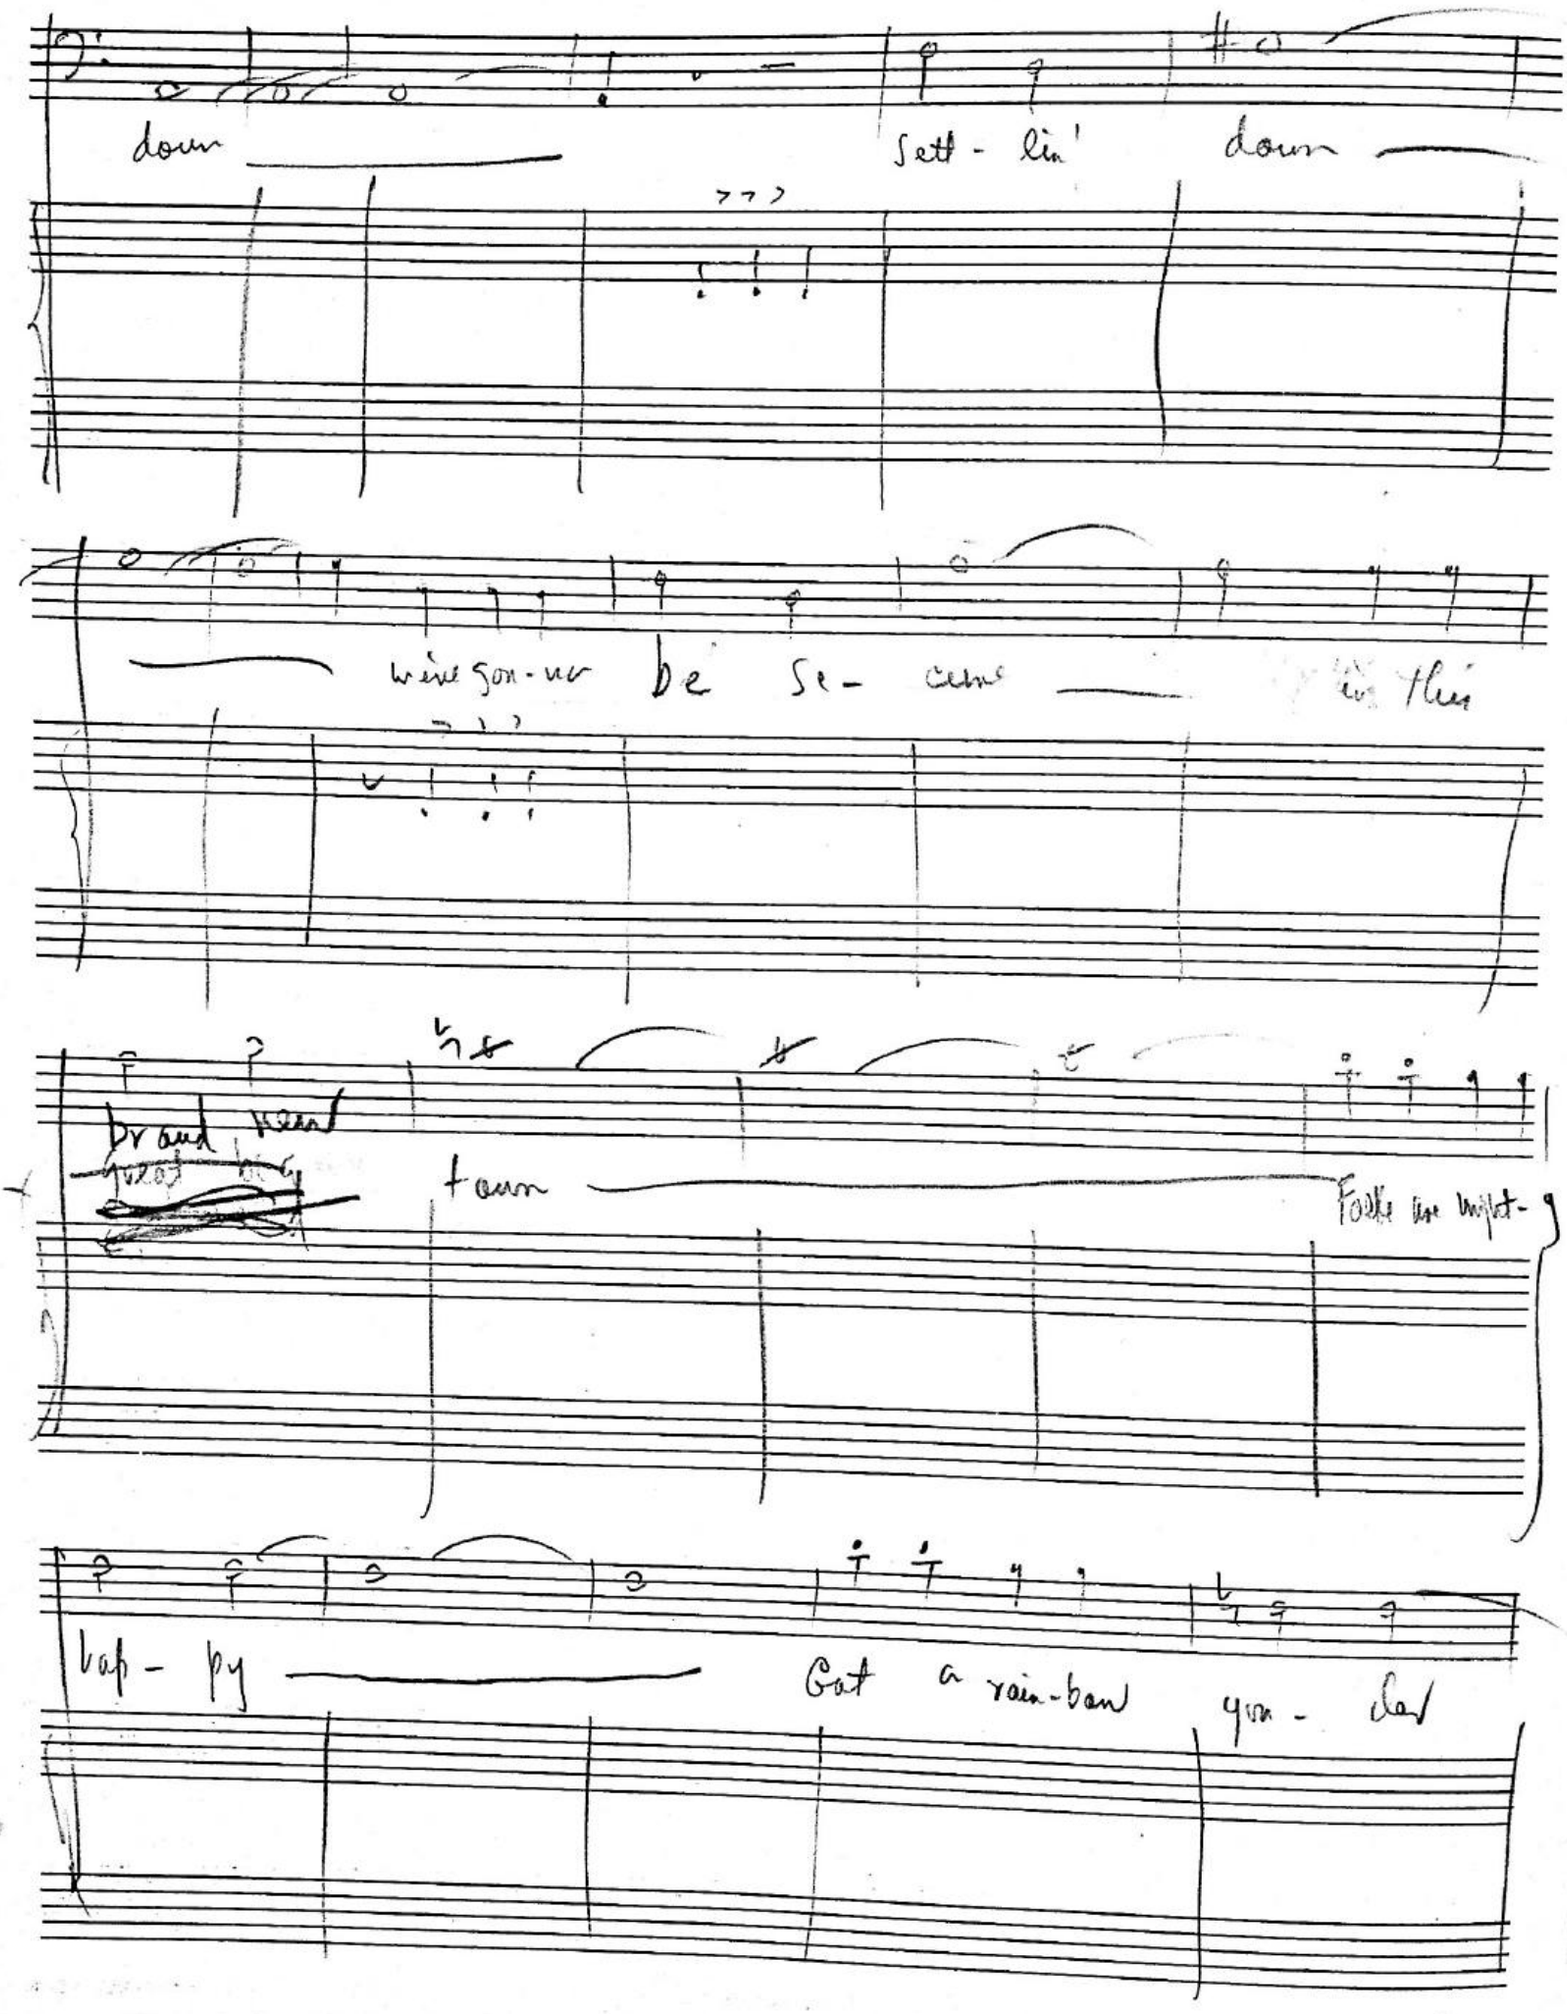

Bright

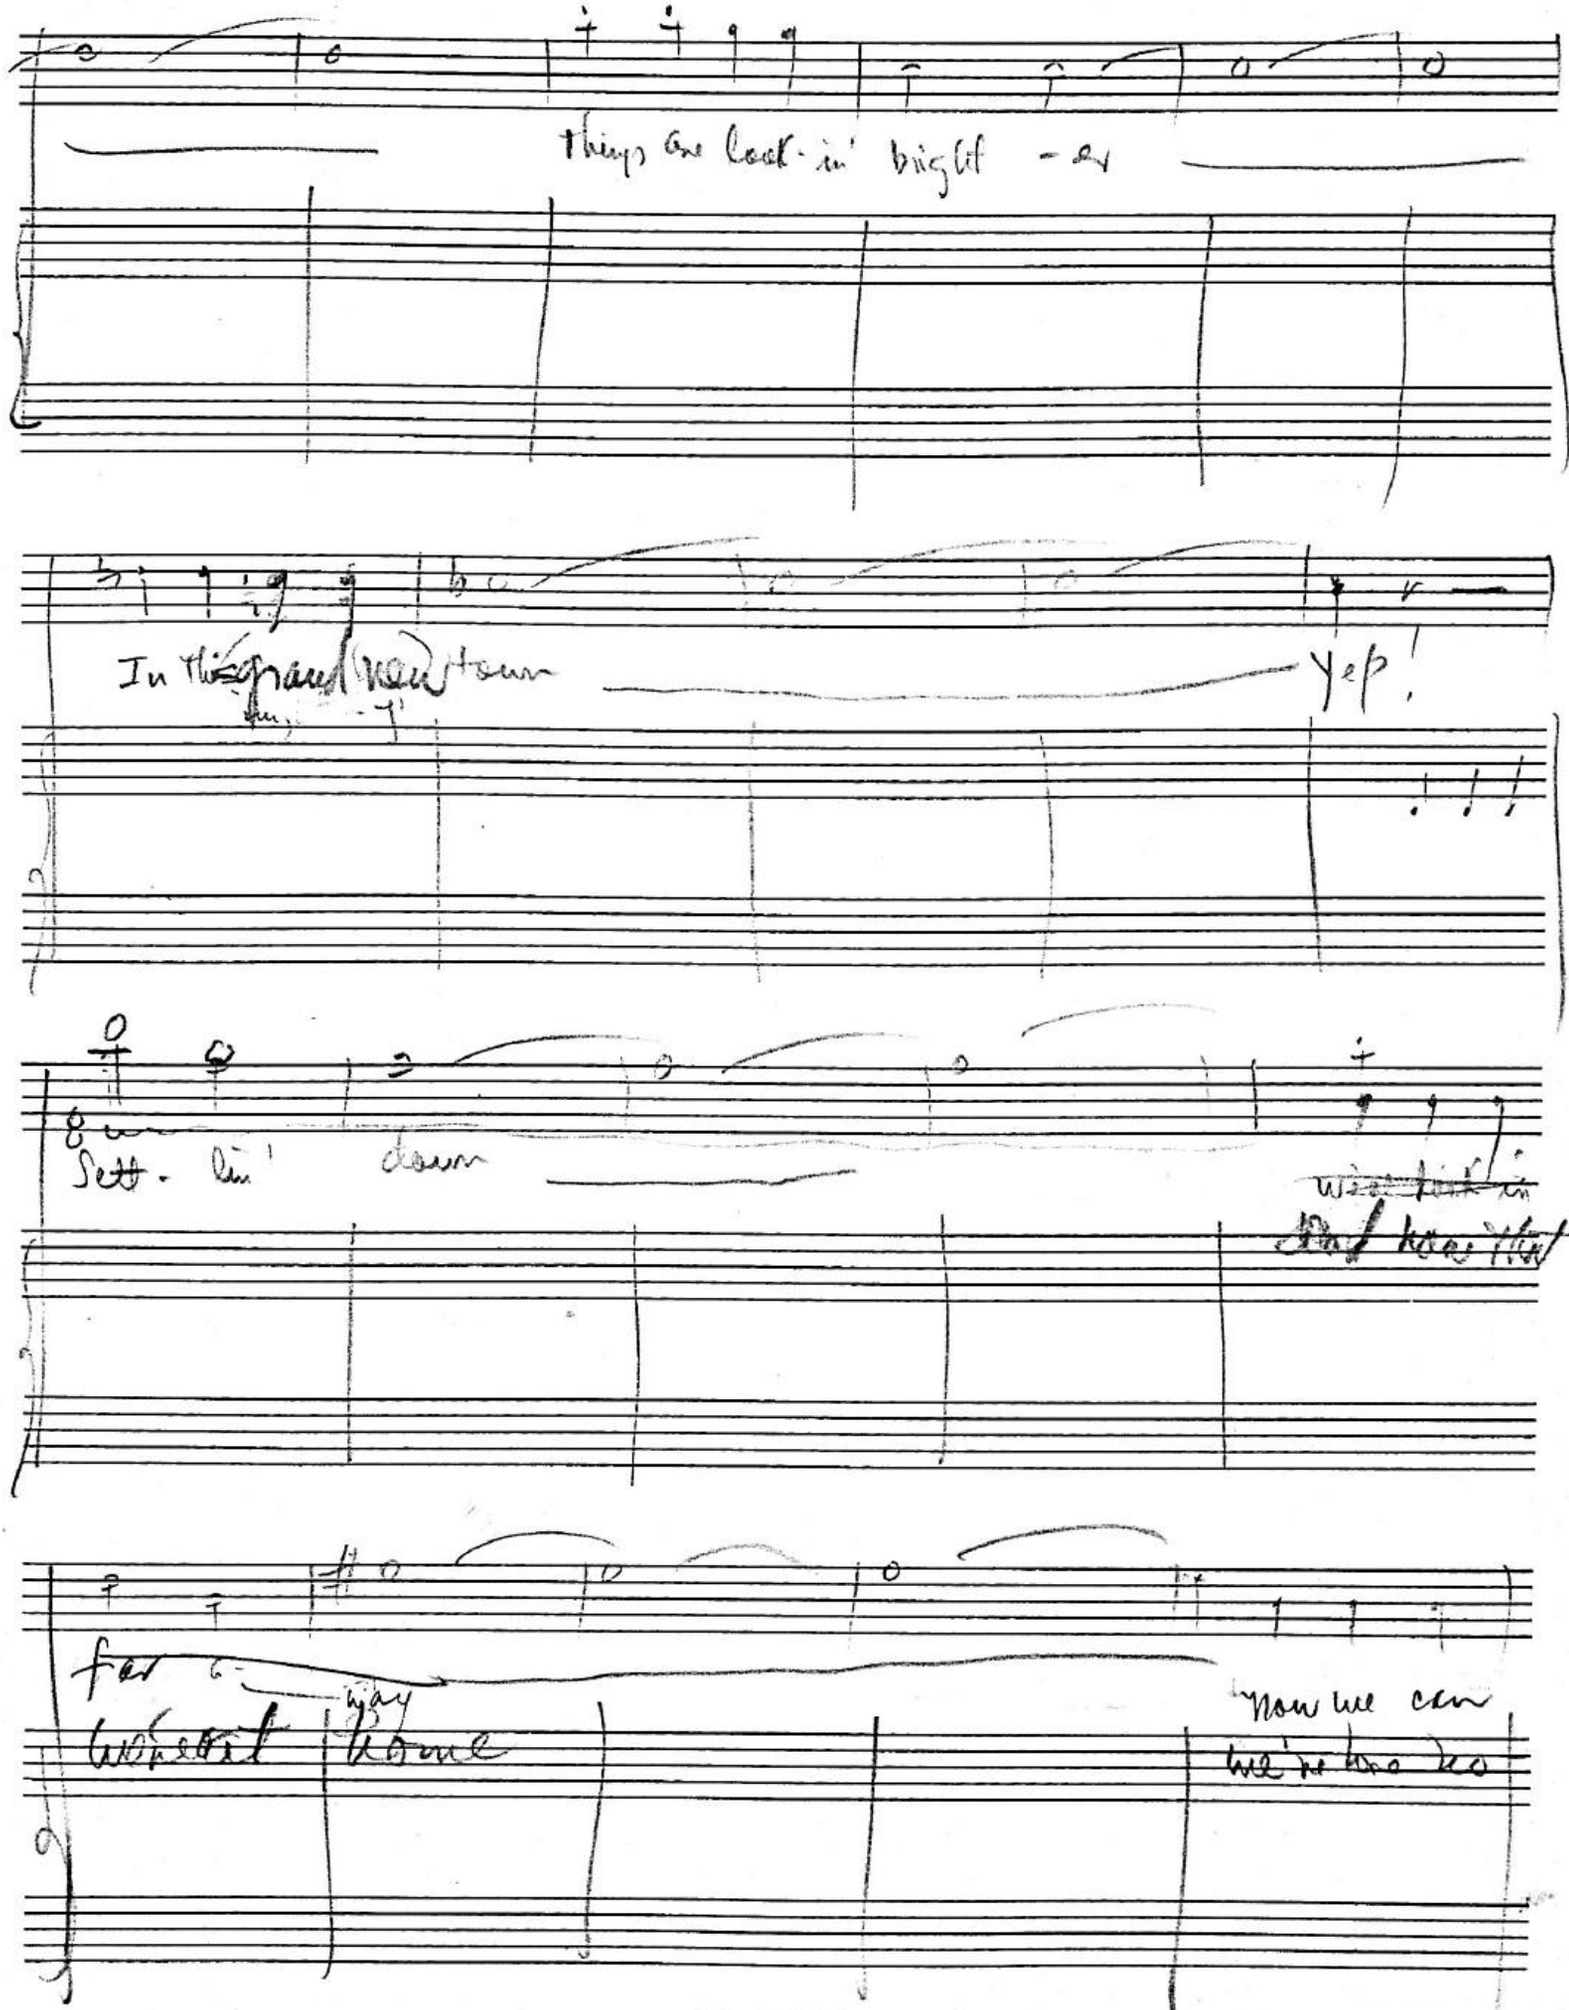

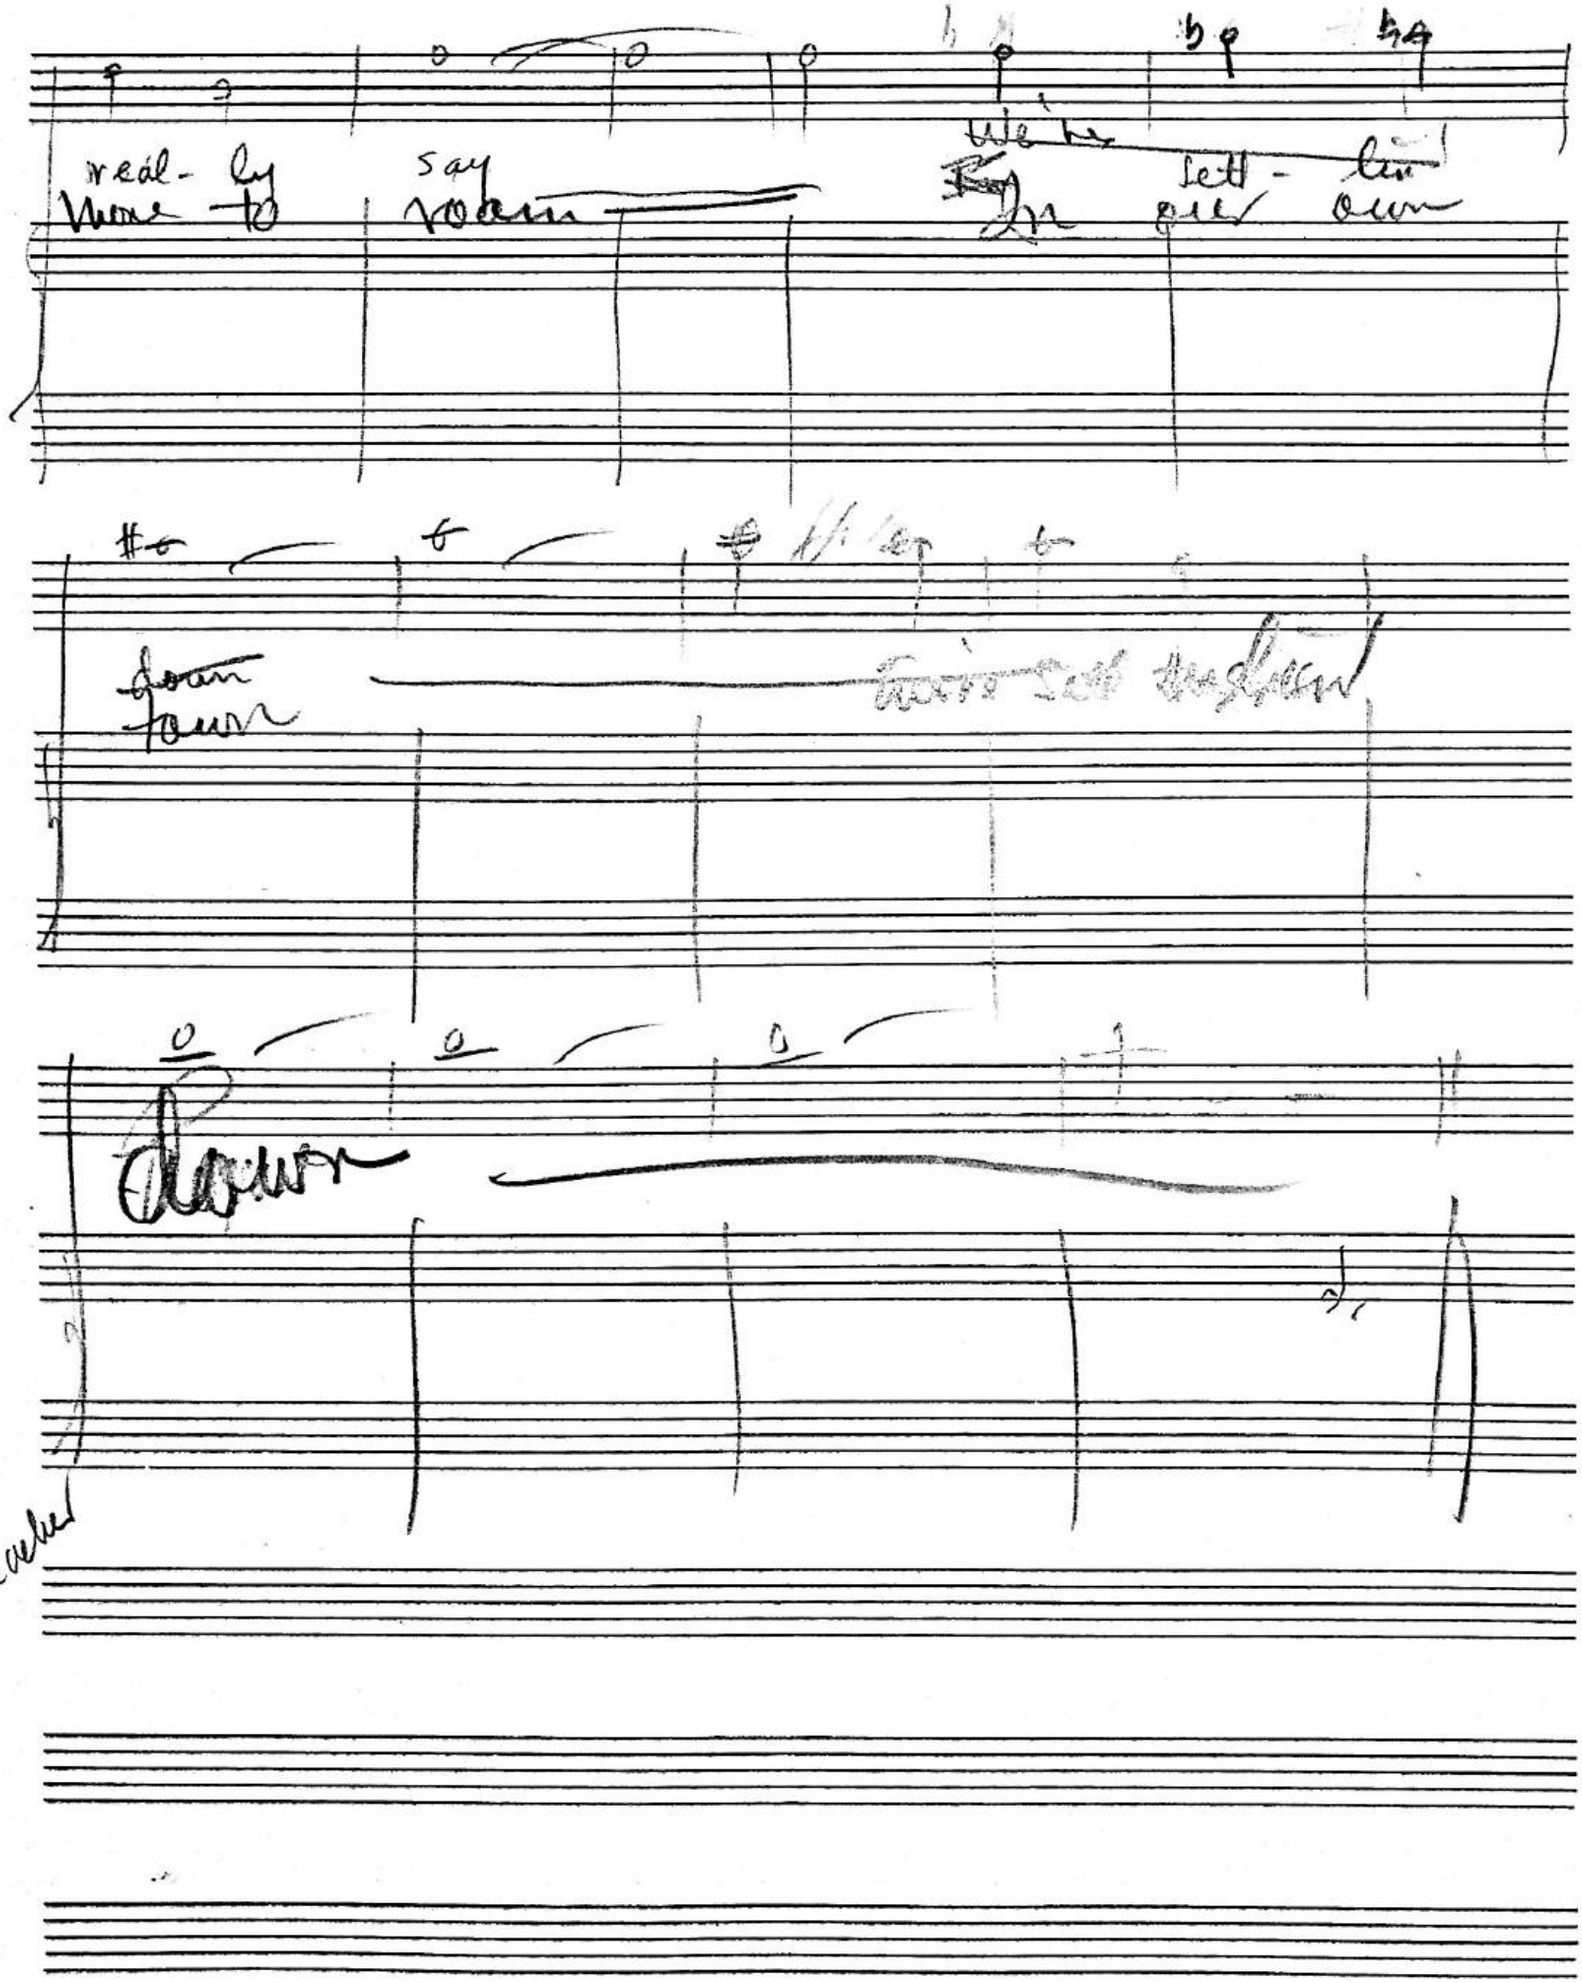

Printed in U.S.A.

CHAPPELL PROF.

down
sett - lin'
down were gon - na be se - cure in this proud heart
town Feelin' the uplift - hap - py
Got a rain - bow gon - na

things are look-in' bright - er
In this grand (new) town Yep!
Sett-lin' down
Well, I'll be for Without
way home
now we can We're two real- ly say We let - Tenor

Act II, Scene 2

Slow

Home Is Where You Dream At Night

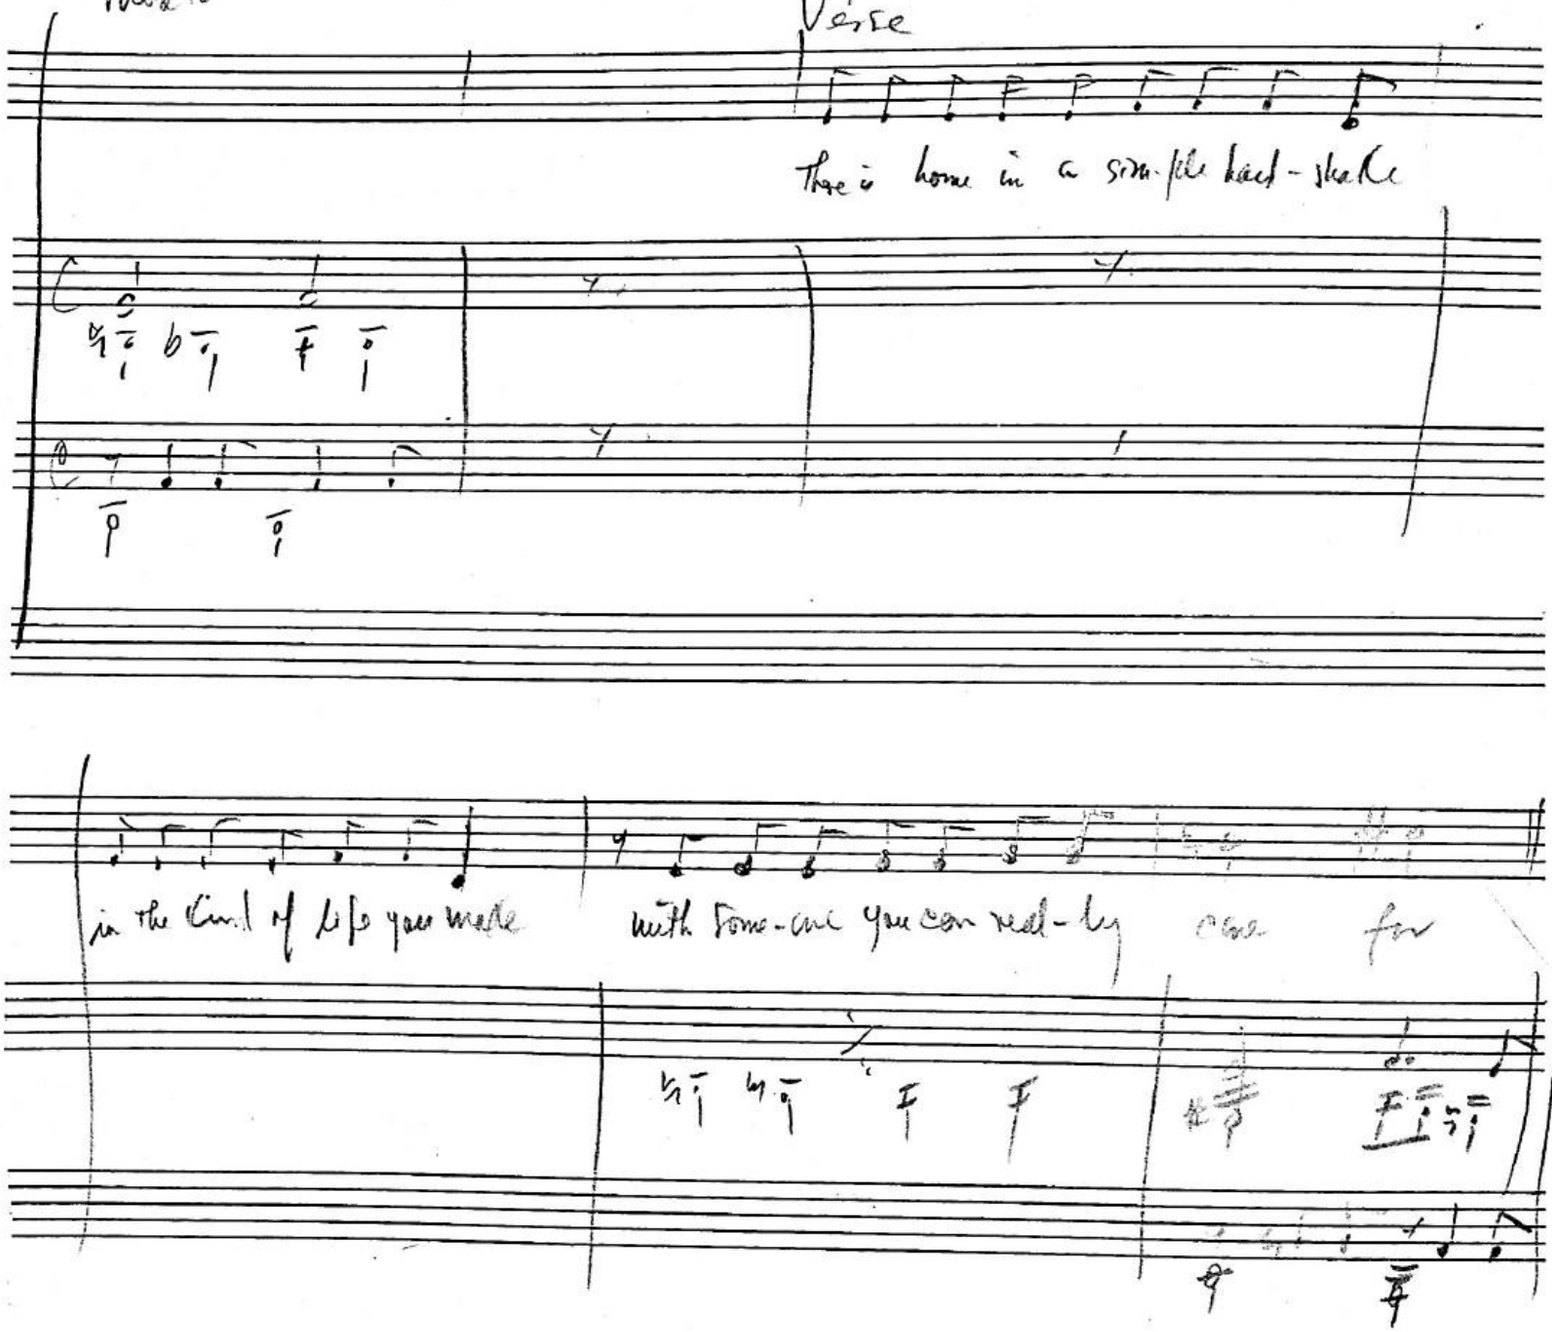

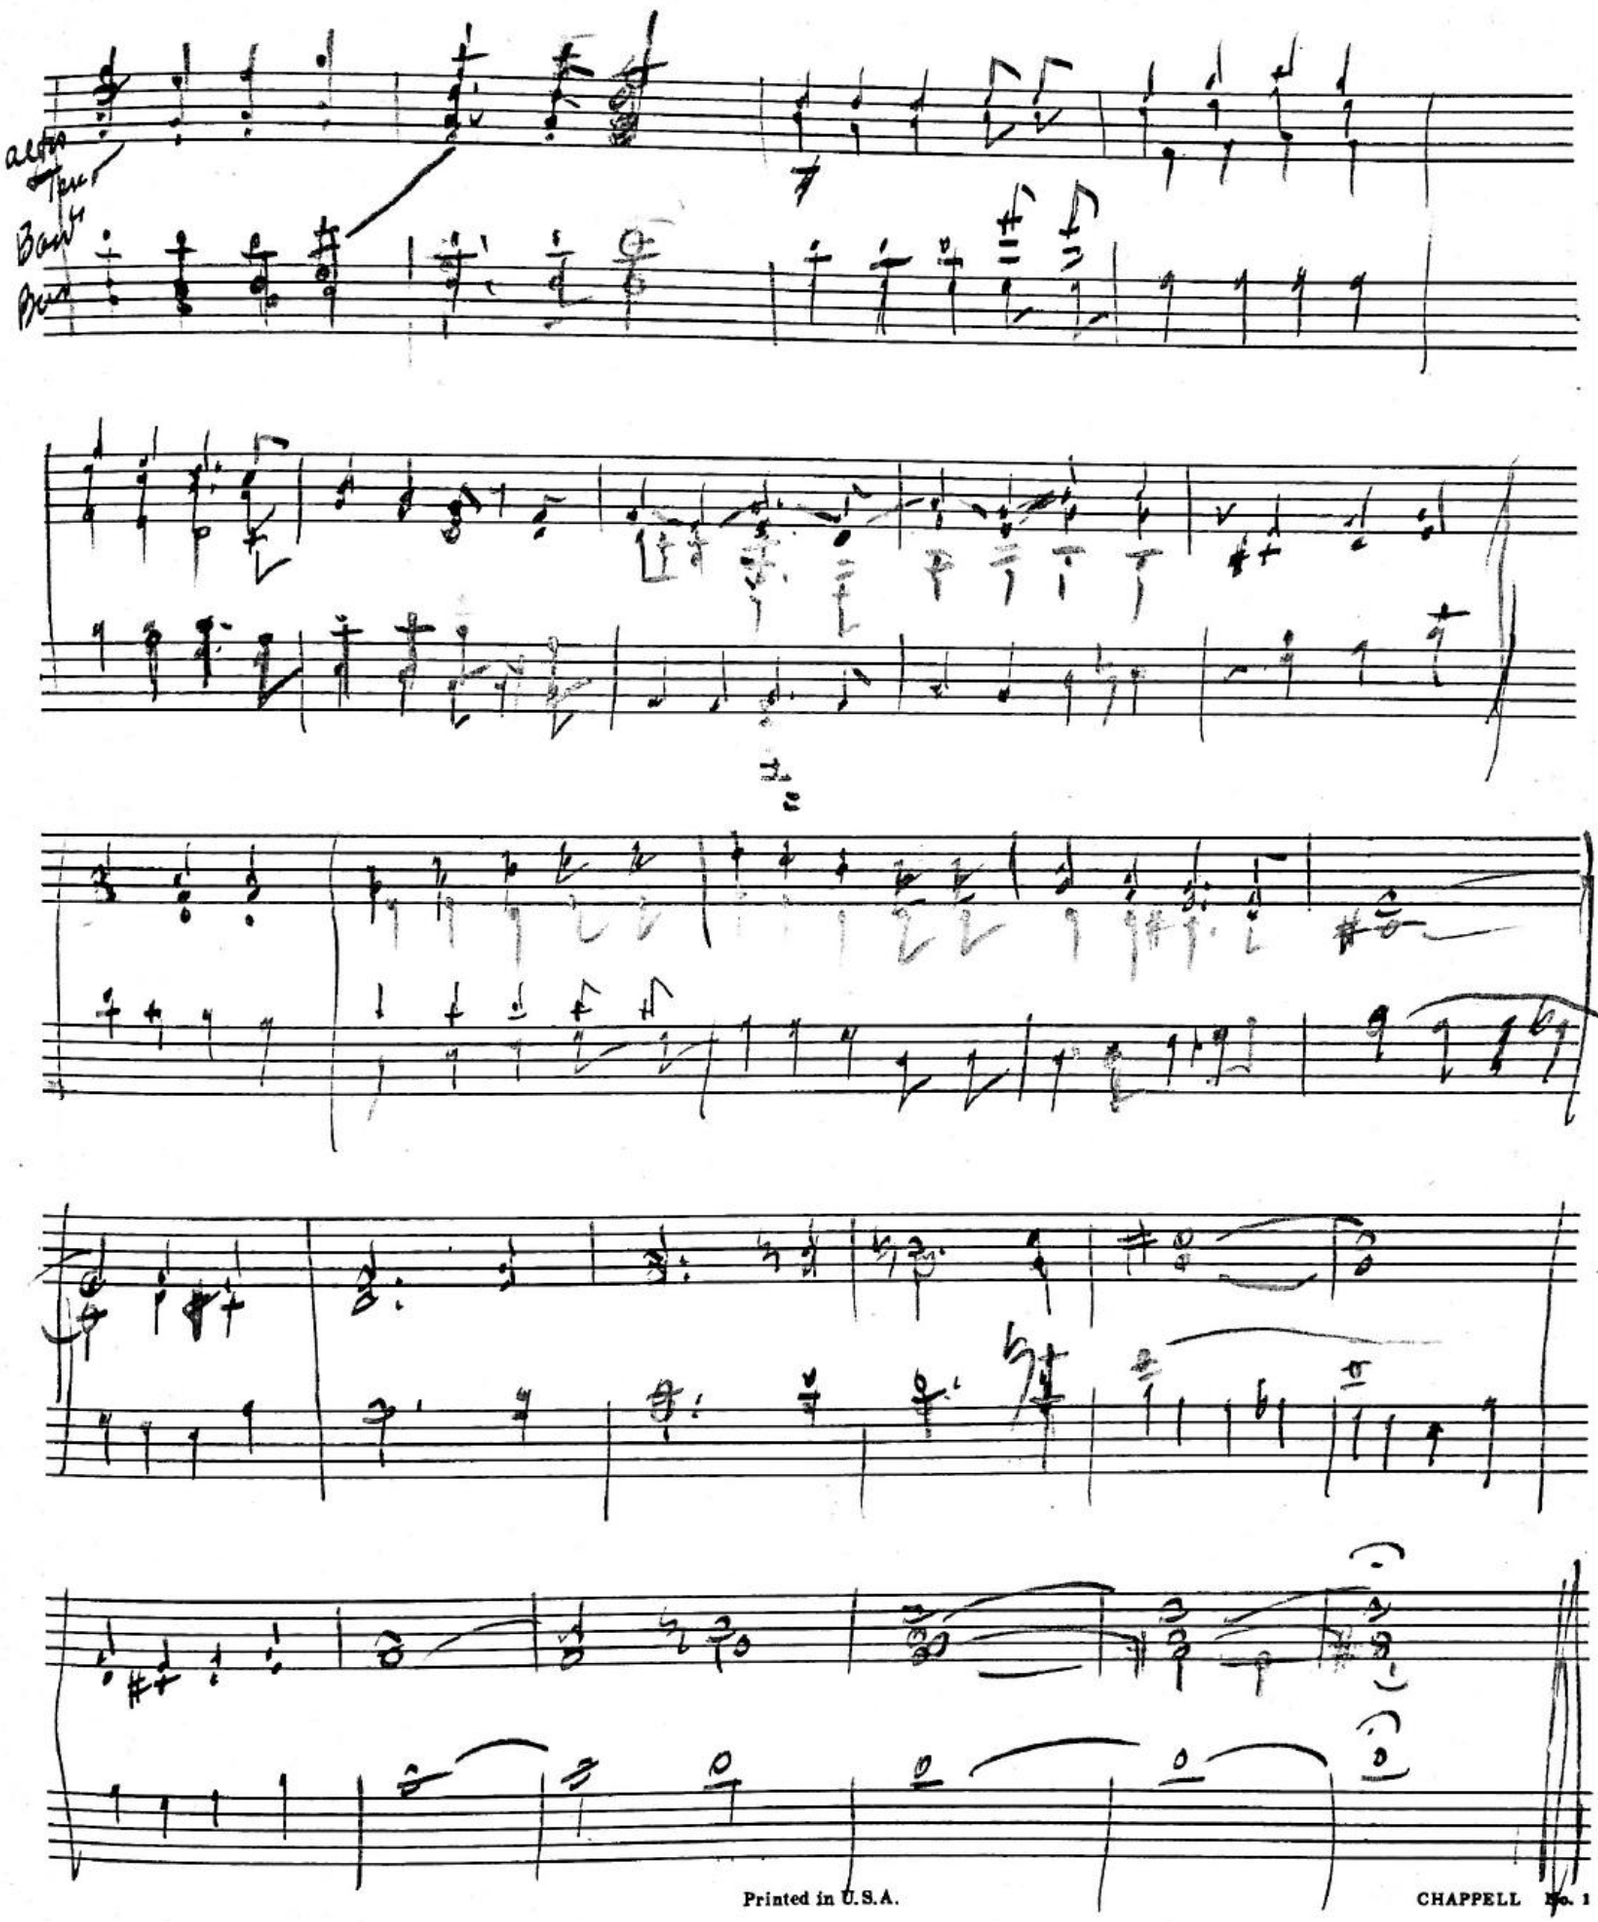

Sud-den-ly there a hand you take and your life you nev-er walk— from your dream be-came your life long ah-safely home
right— How is when you dream— at night

Act. II, Scene 2

Home Is Where Your Dream Is Right

Verse

alto Tenor Bass
Bass

Act II, Scene 3

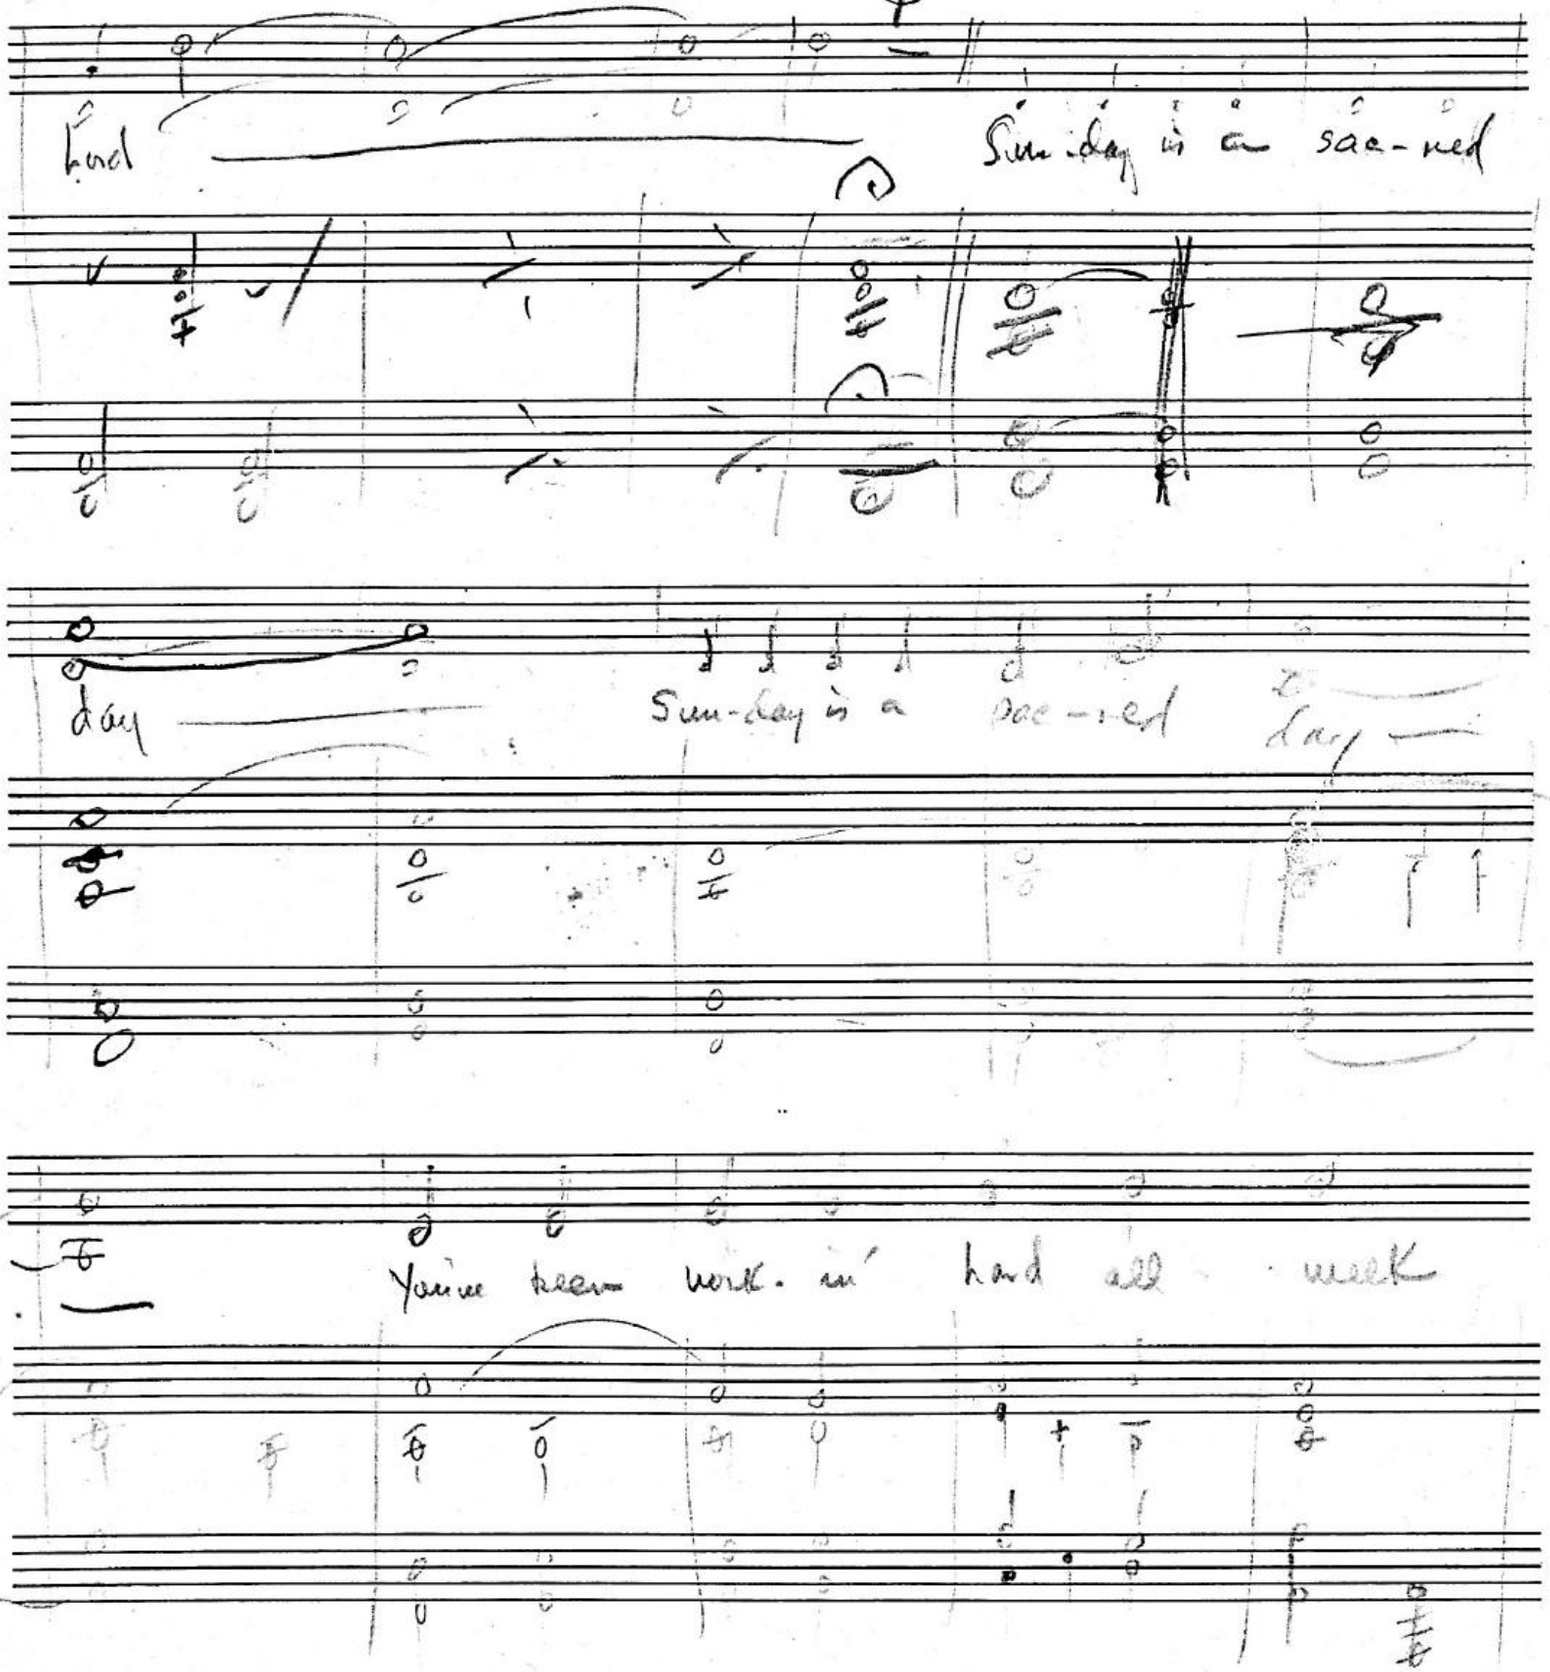

Say Good-Mornin' To The Lord

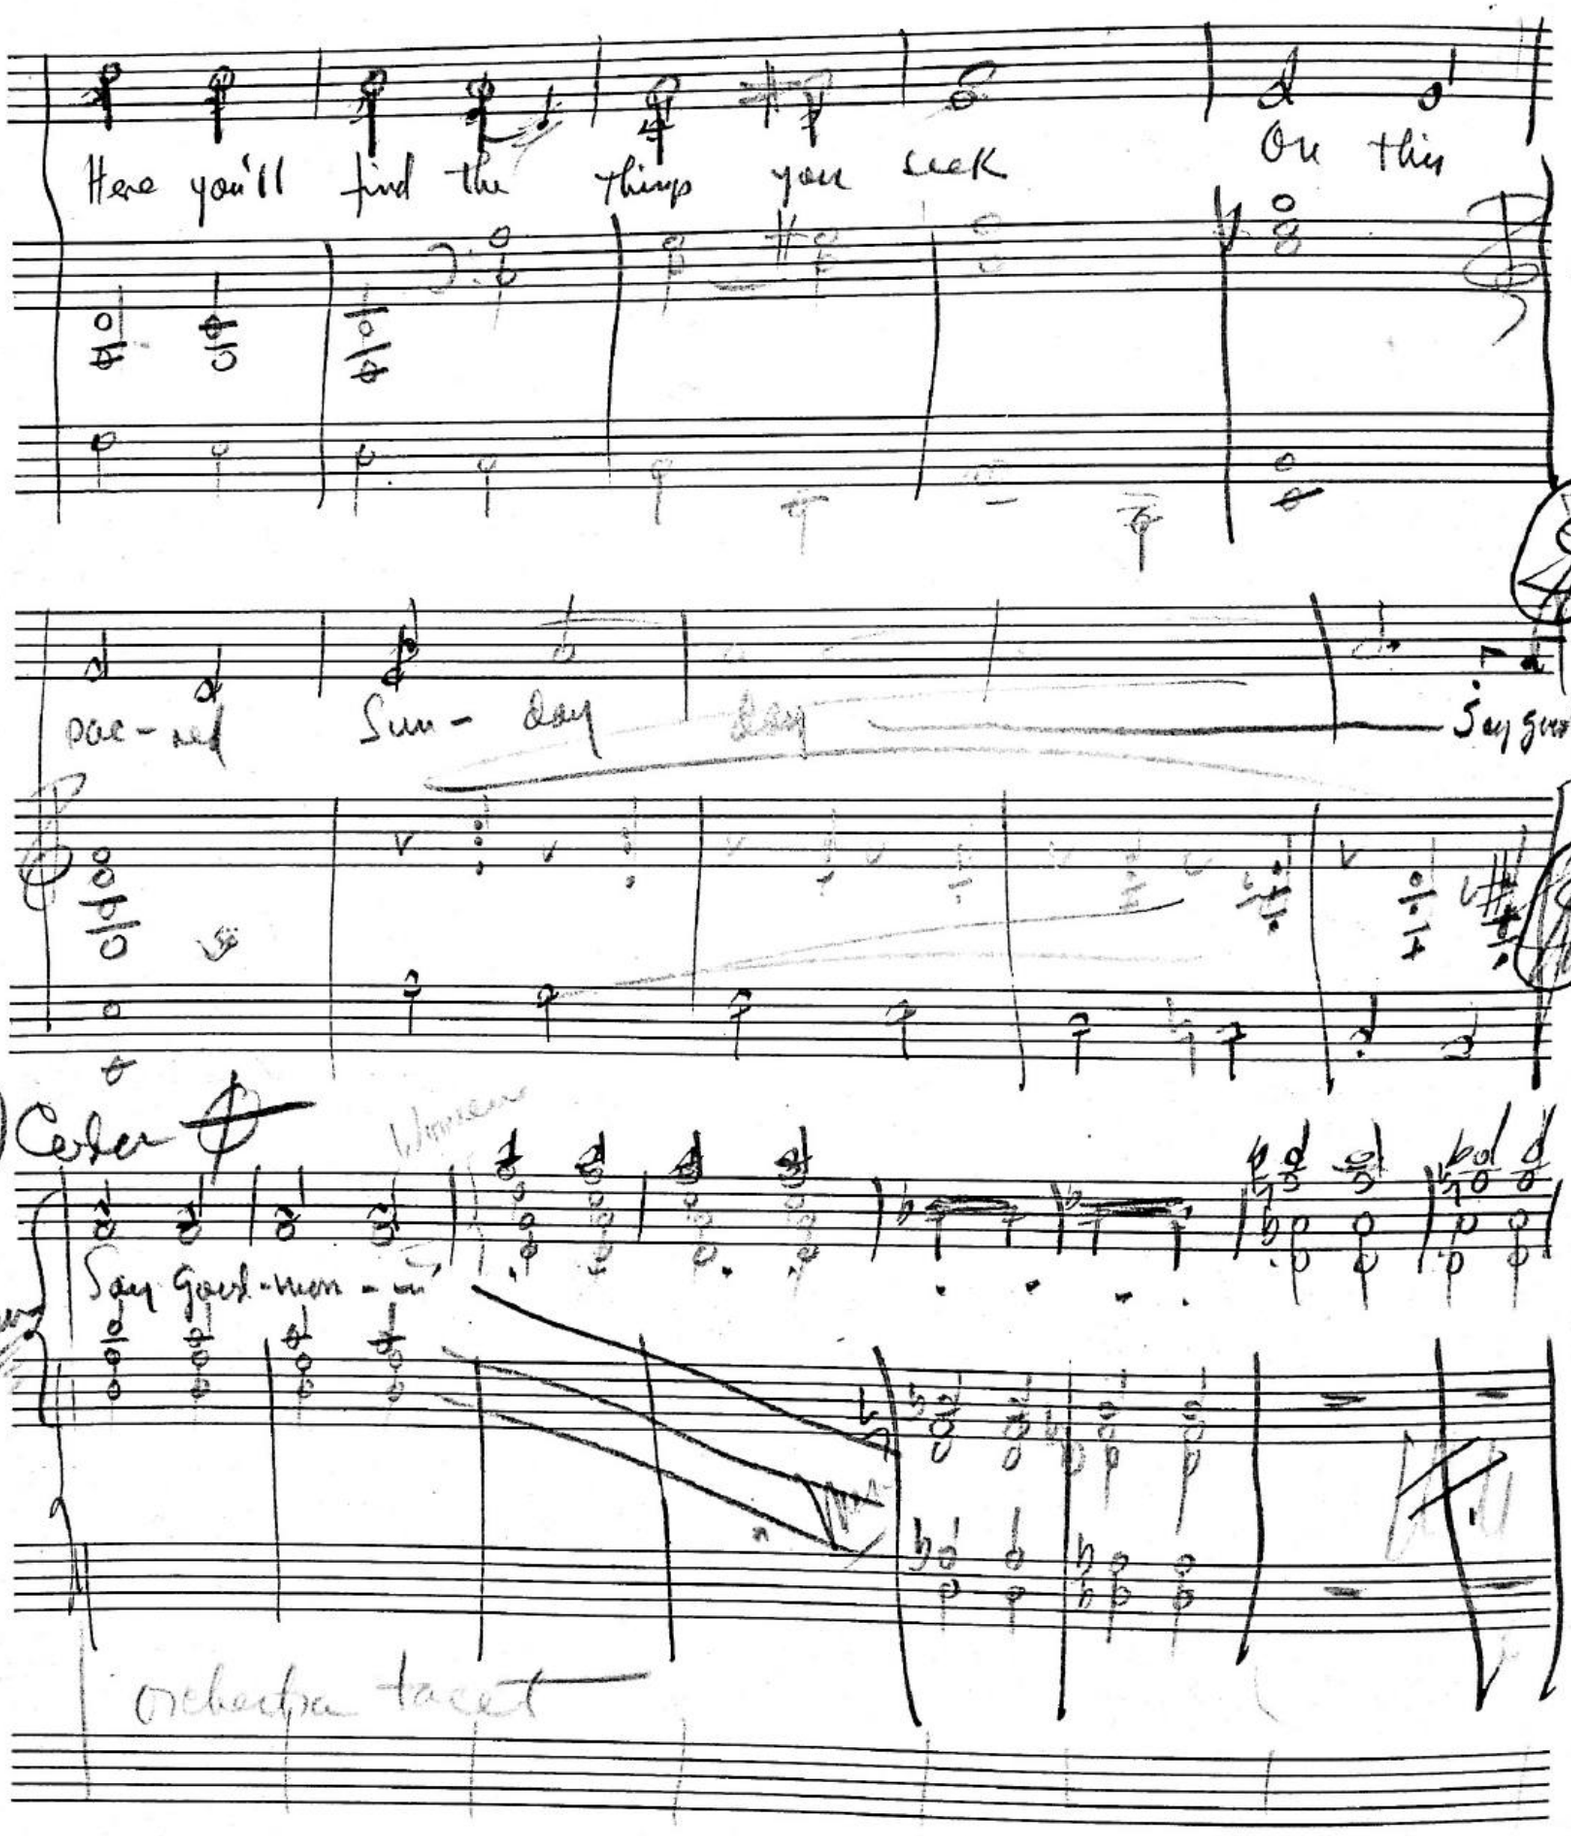

I. Schlein (ASCAP)

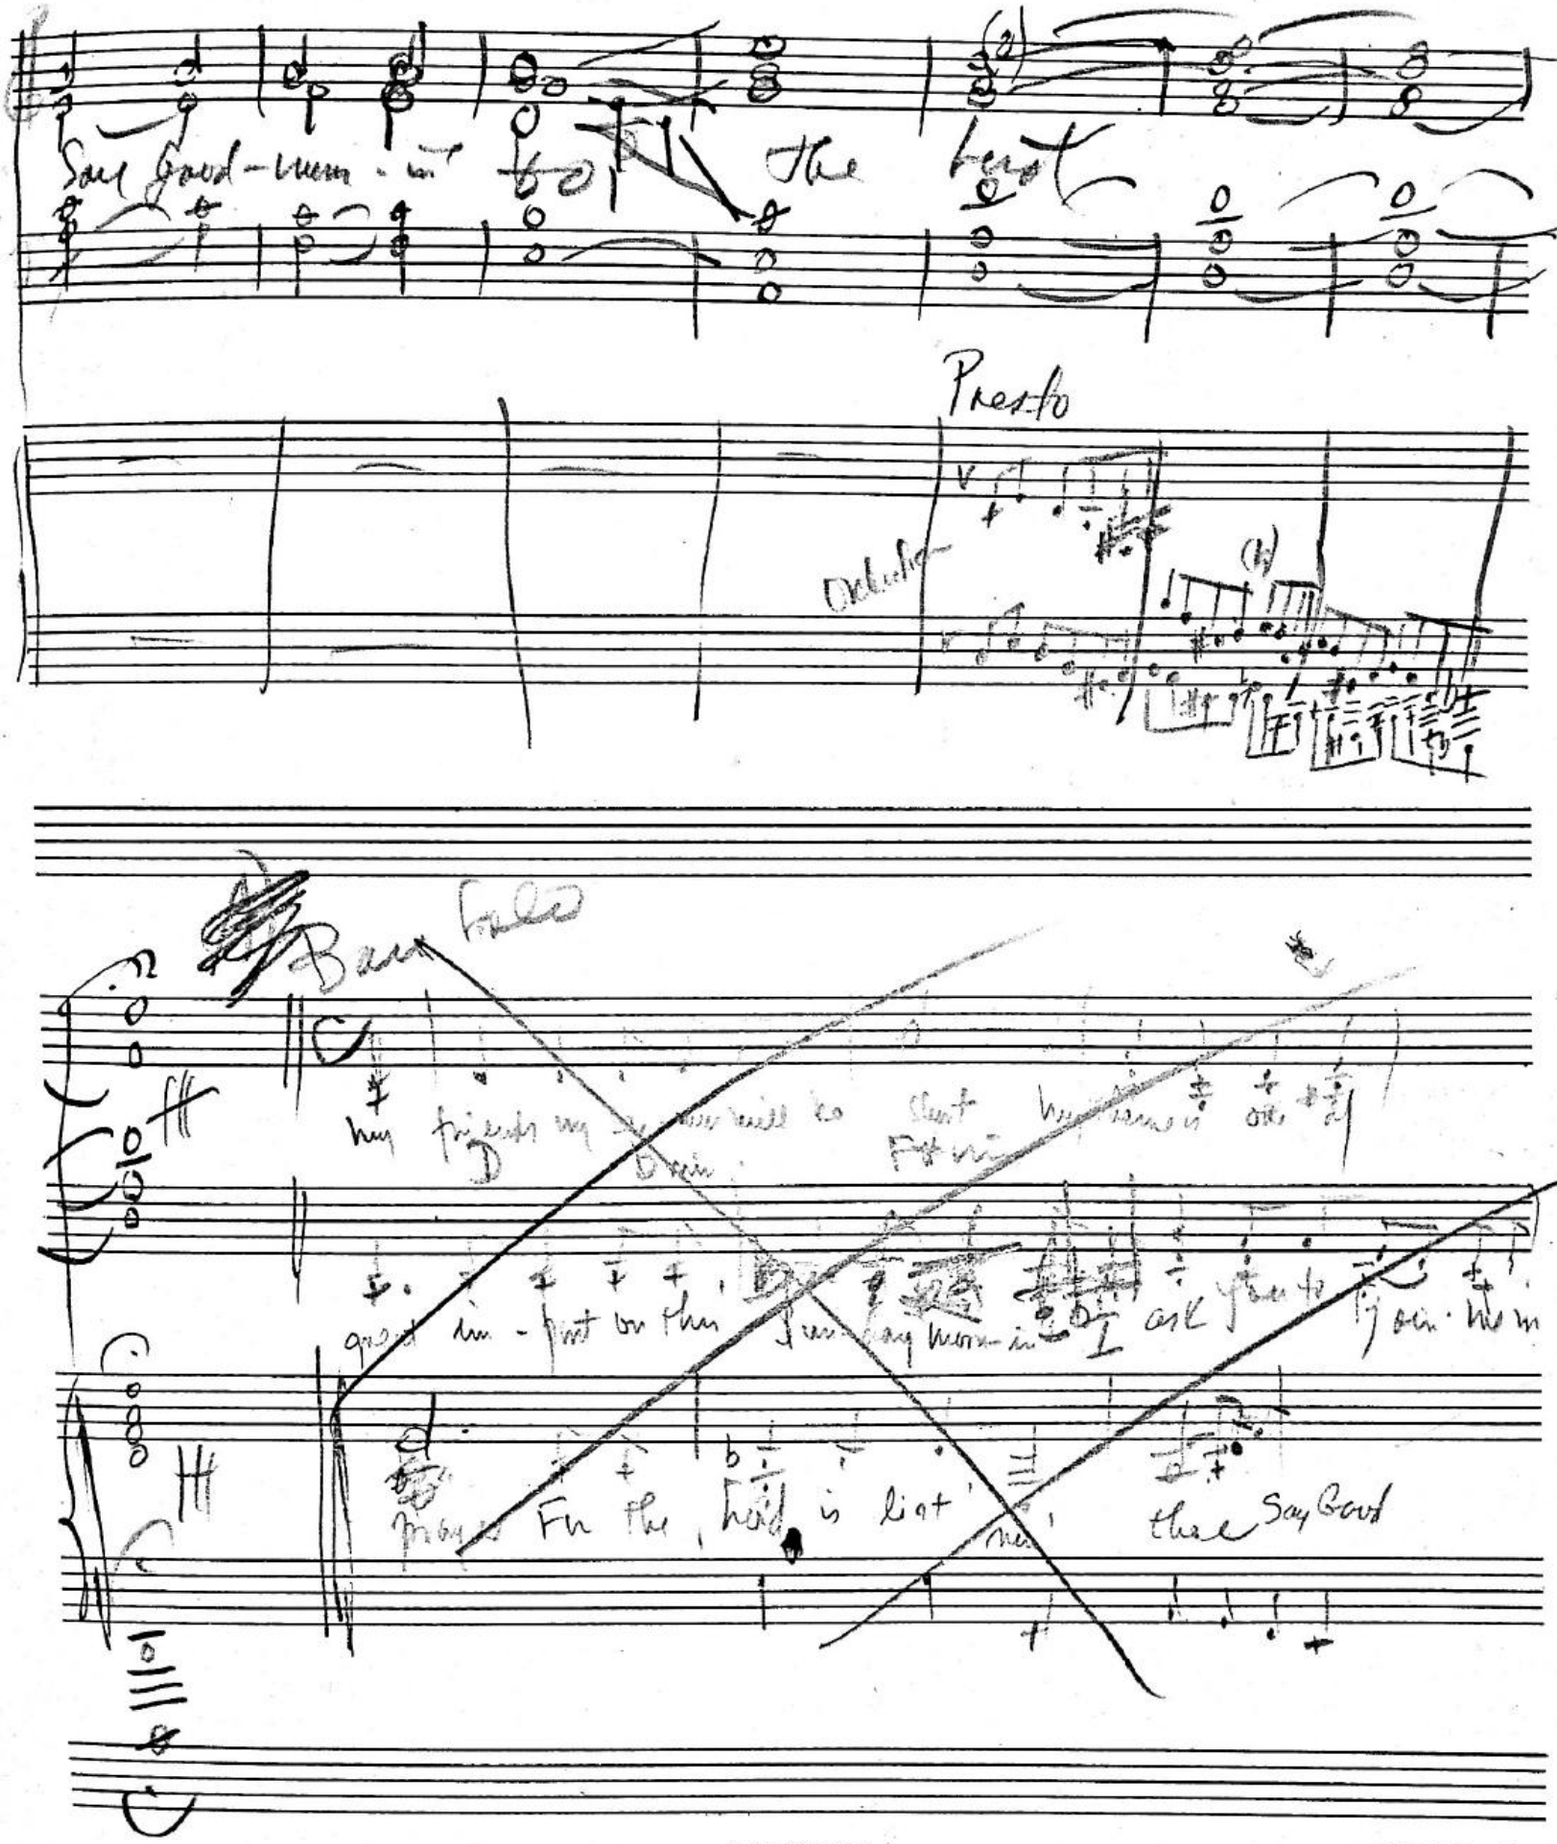

Lively

1st time A) 2nd time B Coda

Here you'll find the things you seek On this poe - ed
Sun - day day Say yes!
B
Women
Say Gent - men - Men
orchestra tacet

Presto
Bass Solo
Fine
D.S.

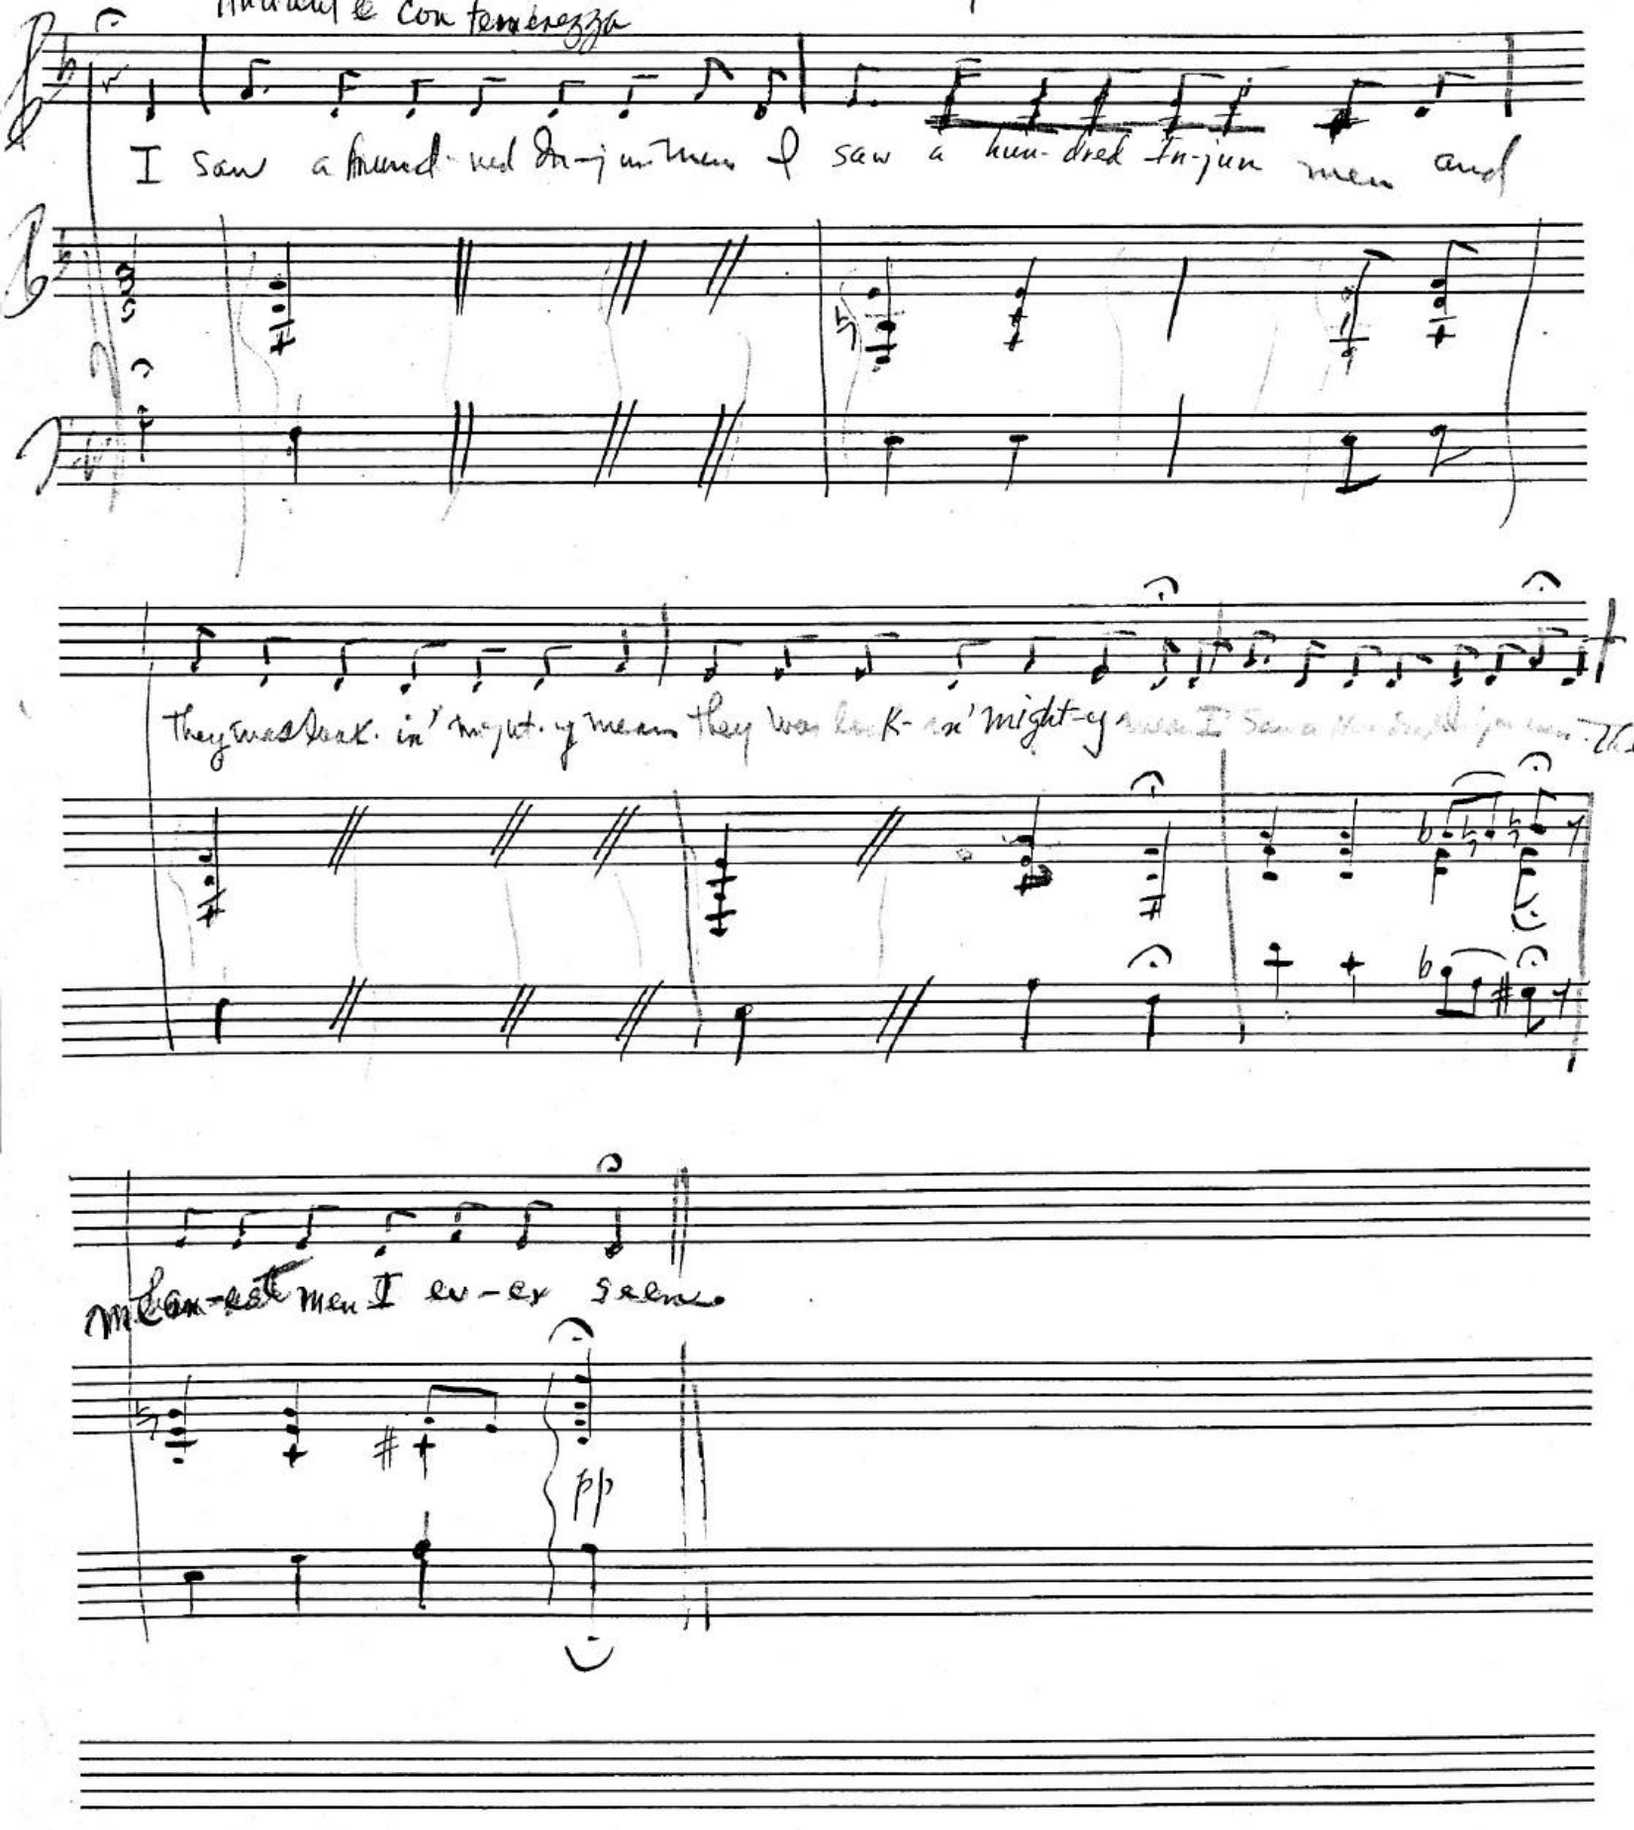

(4)

hey friends hey Ser-mon will be short my Name is one of great im-port on this Sun-day morn-in'
I Rit.
ask you to join me in prayer for the Lord is list-in' nin' A tempo
the — Say God

Act II, Scene 3

I Saw A Hundred Injun Men

Andante con tenerezza

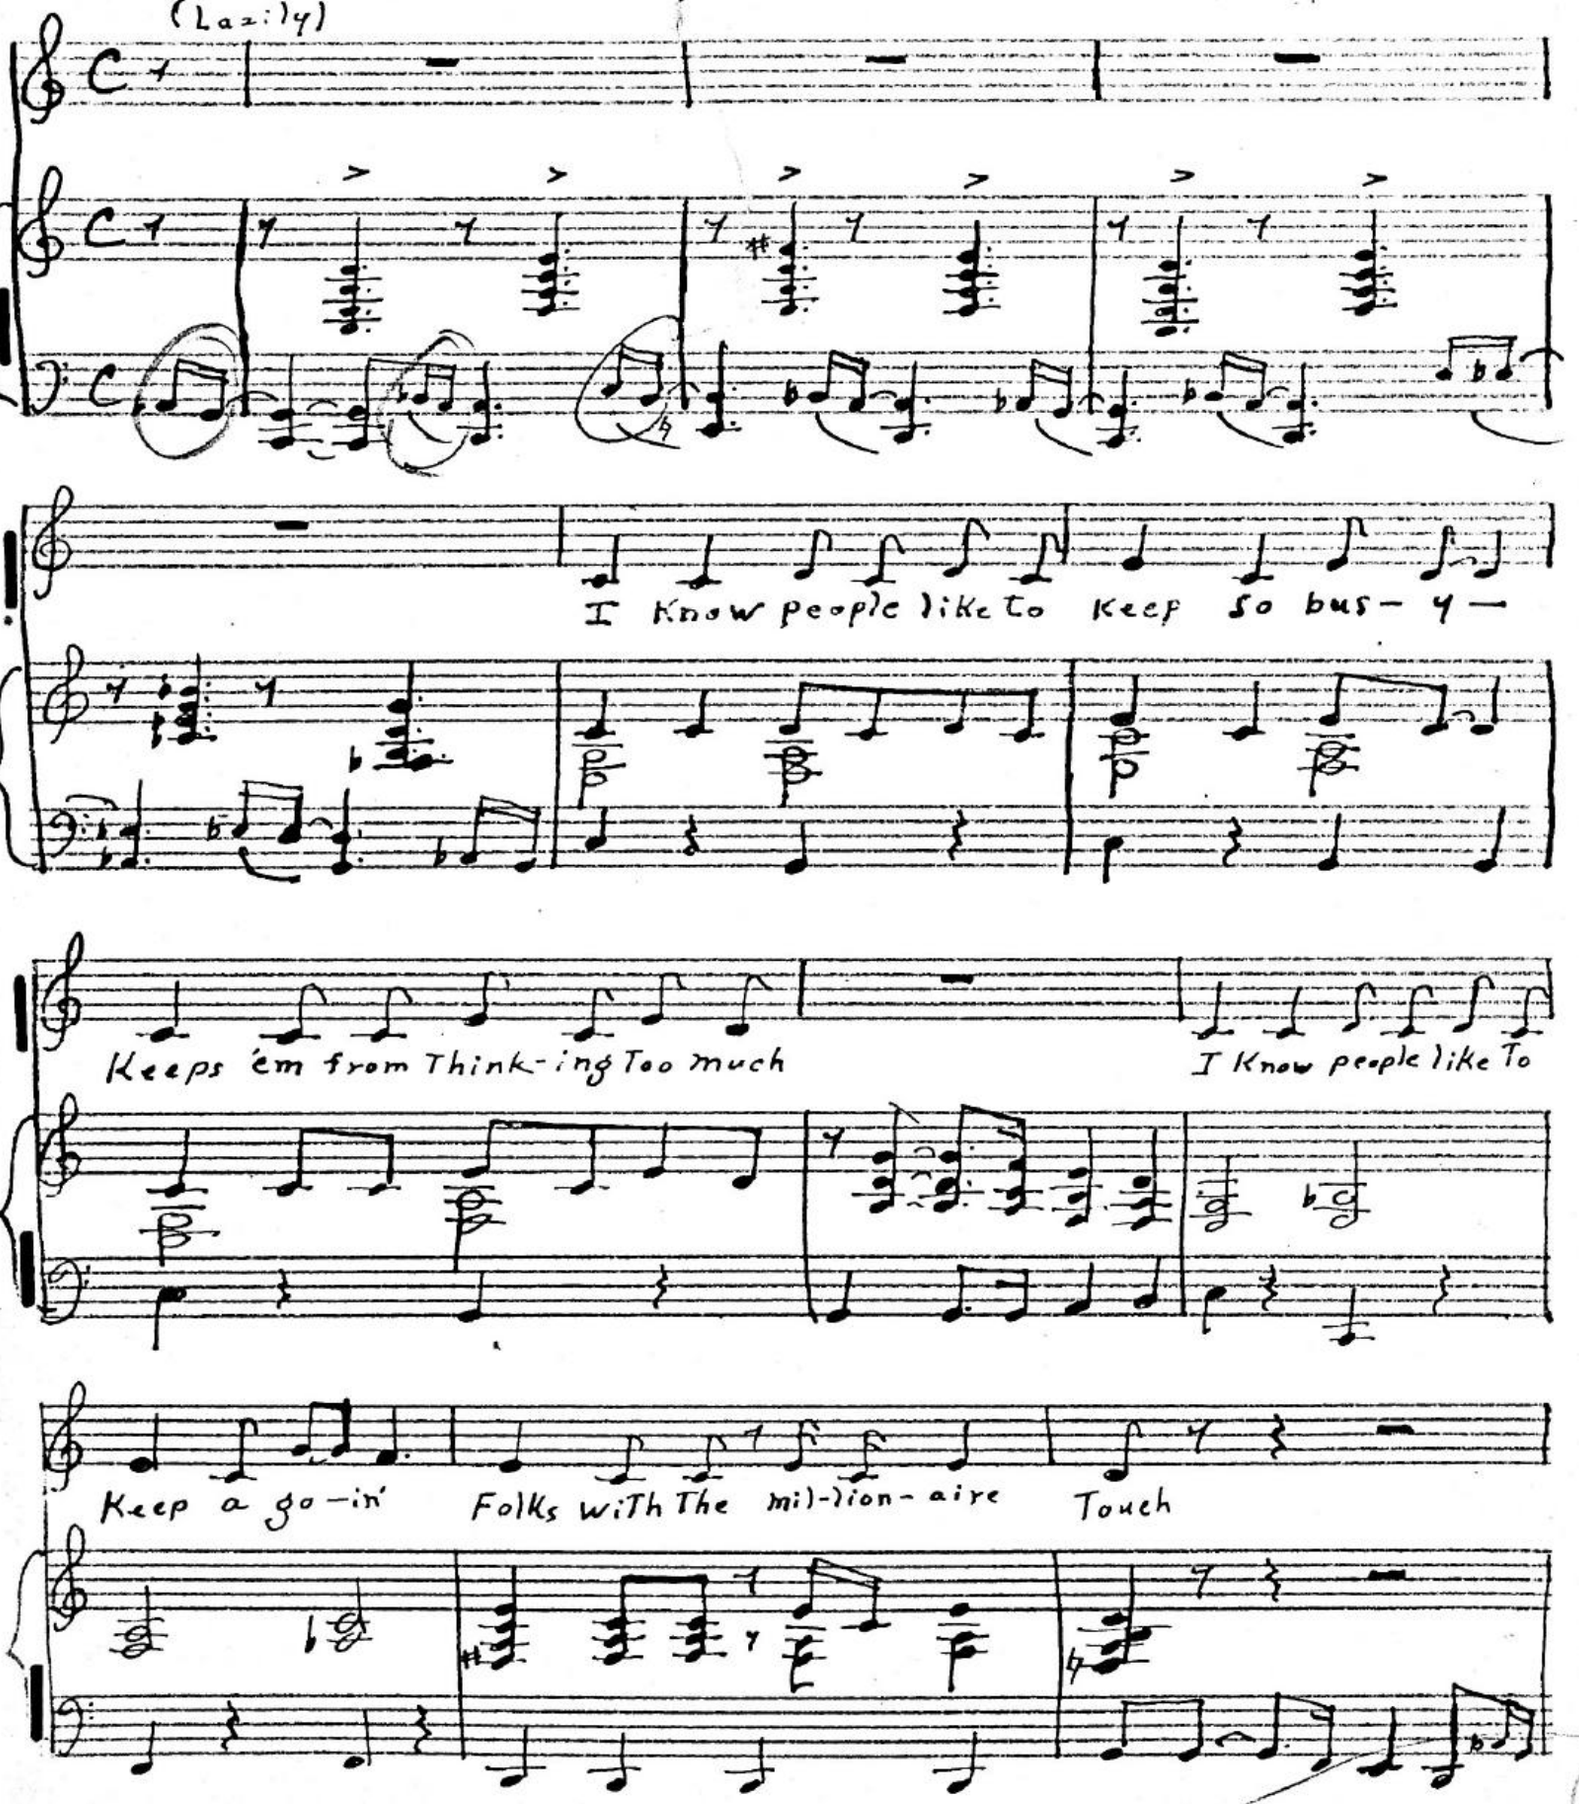

Act I Scene 4

Lyrics by William Kaye
"Blue Grass"

"The Sun Is Here To Stay"

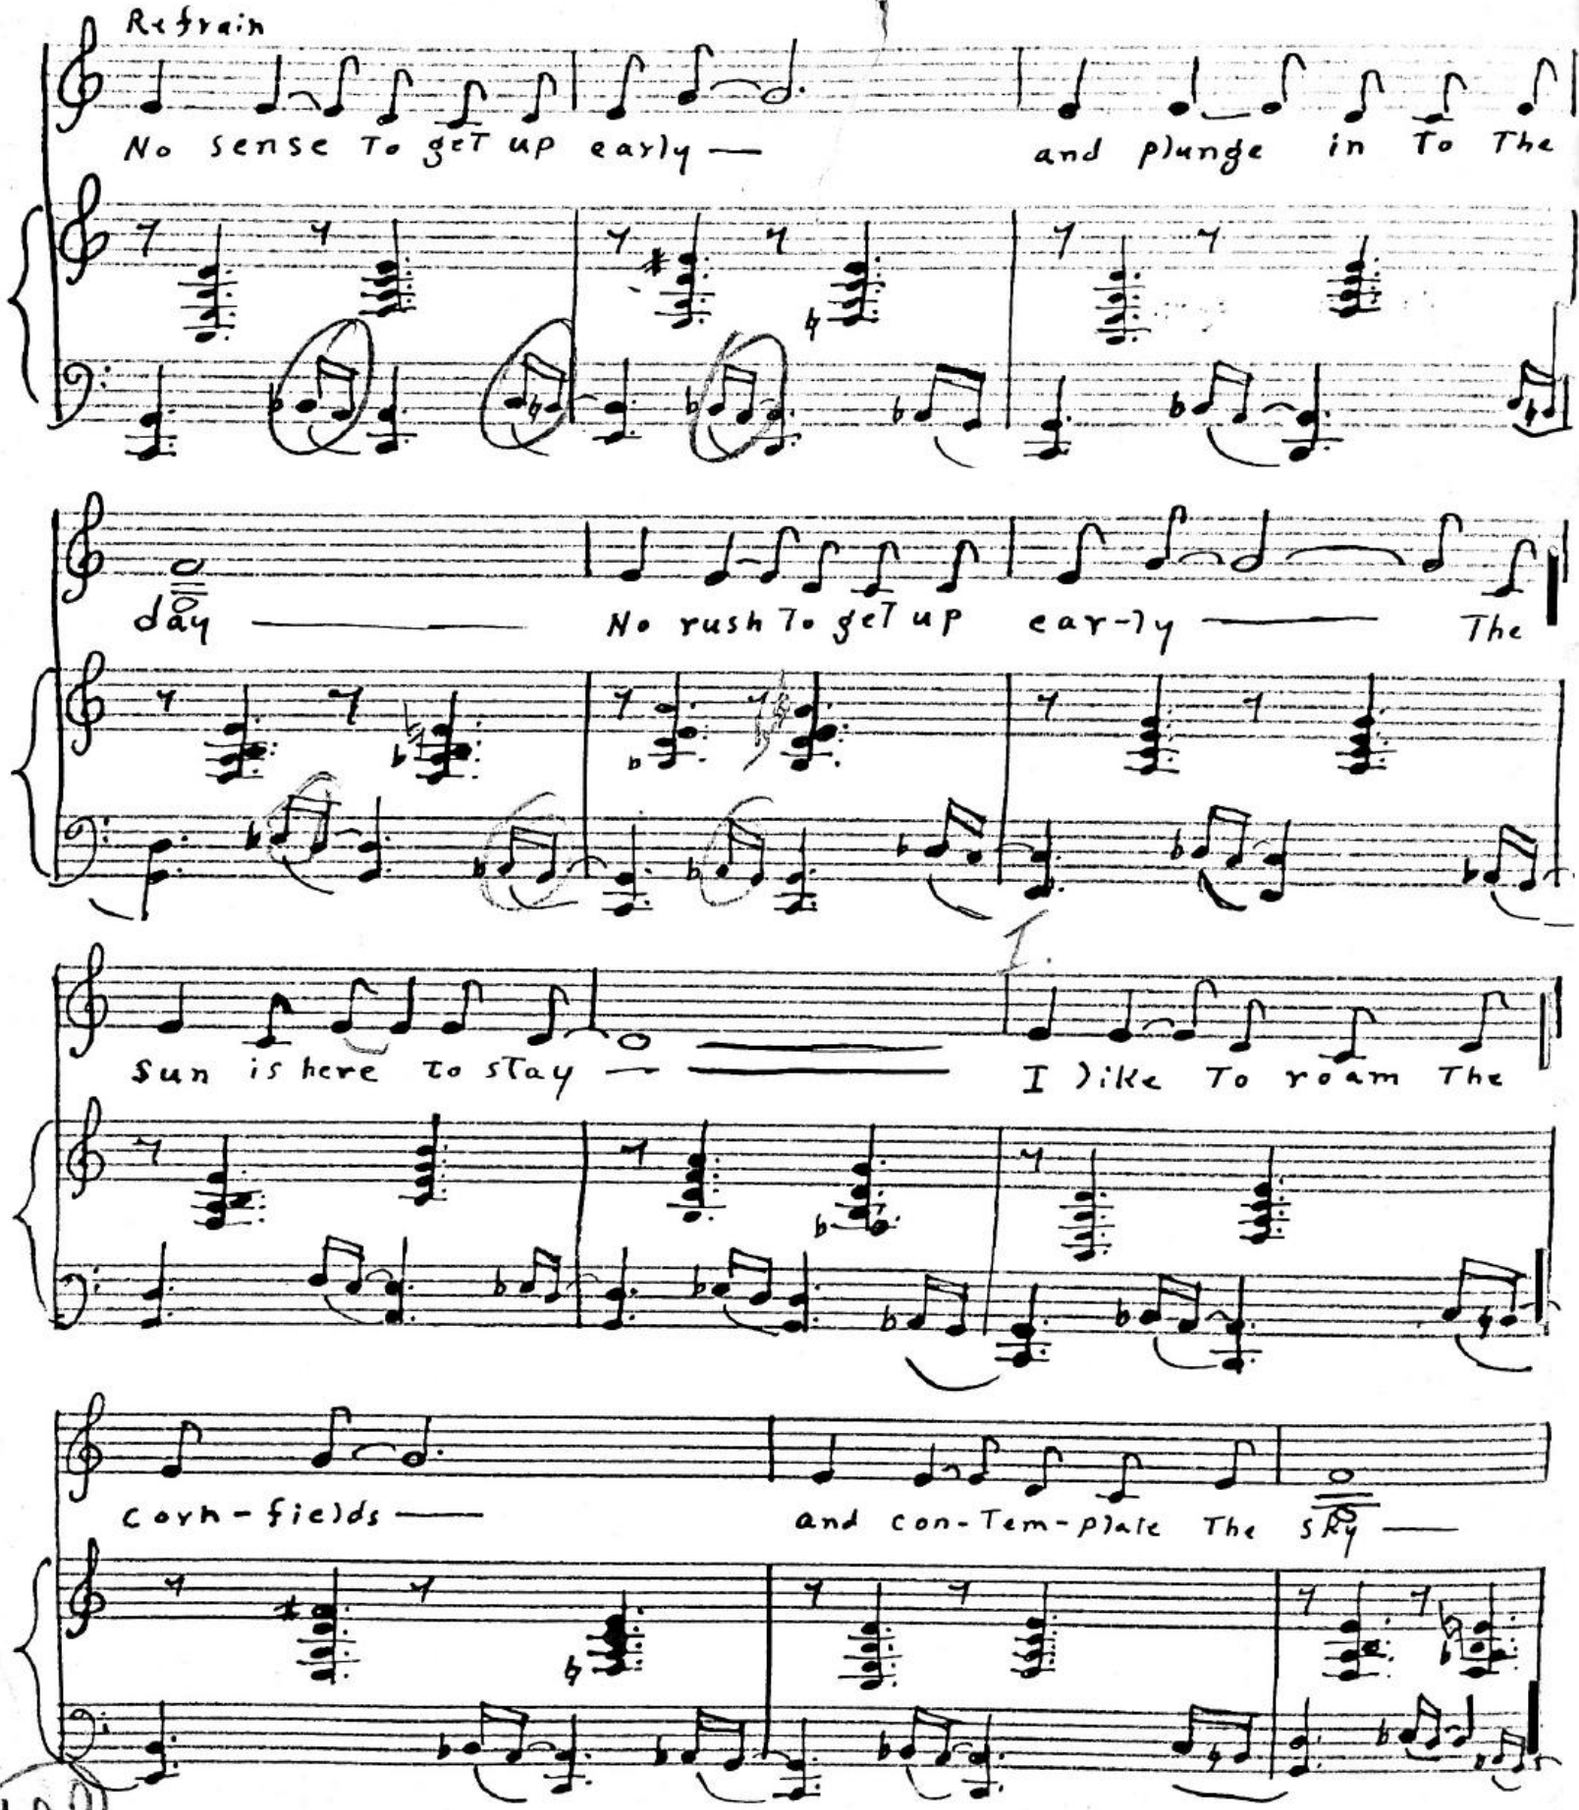

[redacted]

Music by Irving Schlein

'The Sun Is Here To Stay'

"Blue Grass"

'The Sun Is Here To Stay'

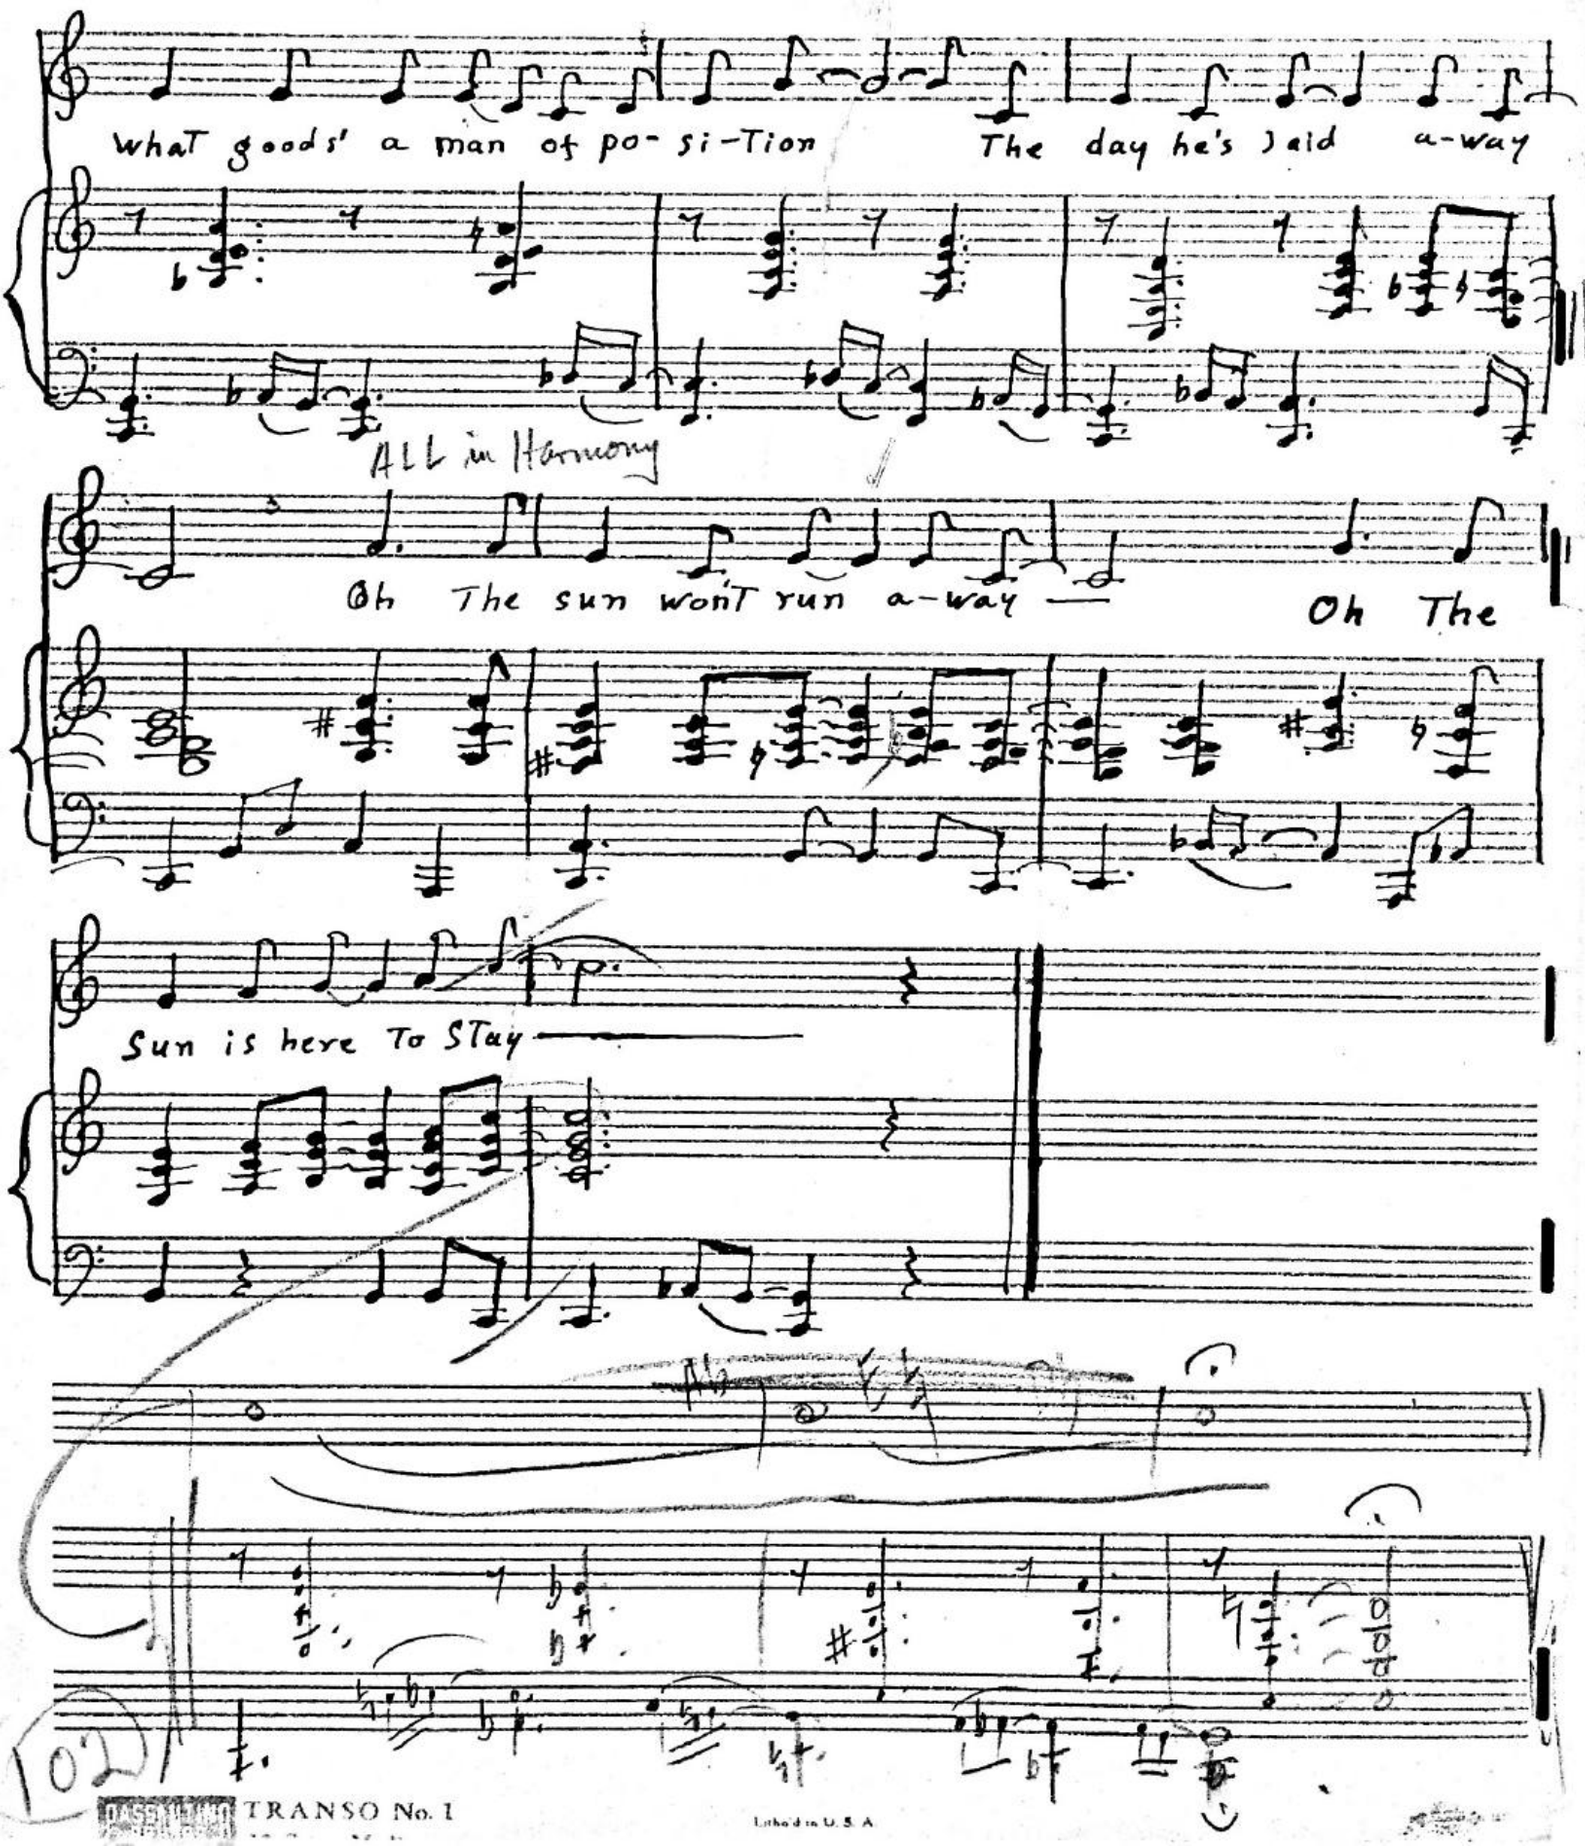

"Blue Grass"

TRANSO No. 1
Library of U.S.A.

'The Sun Is Here To STay'

"Blue Grass"

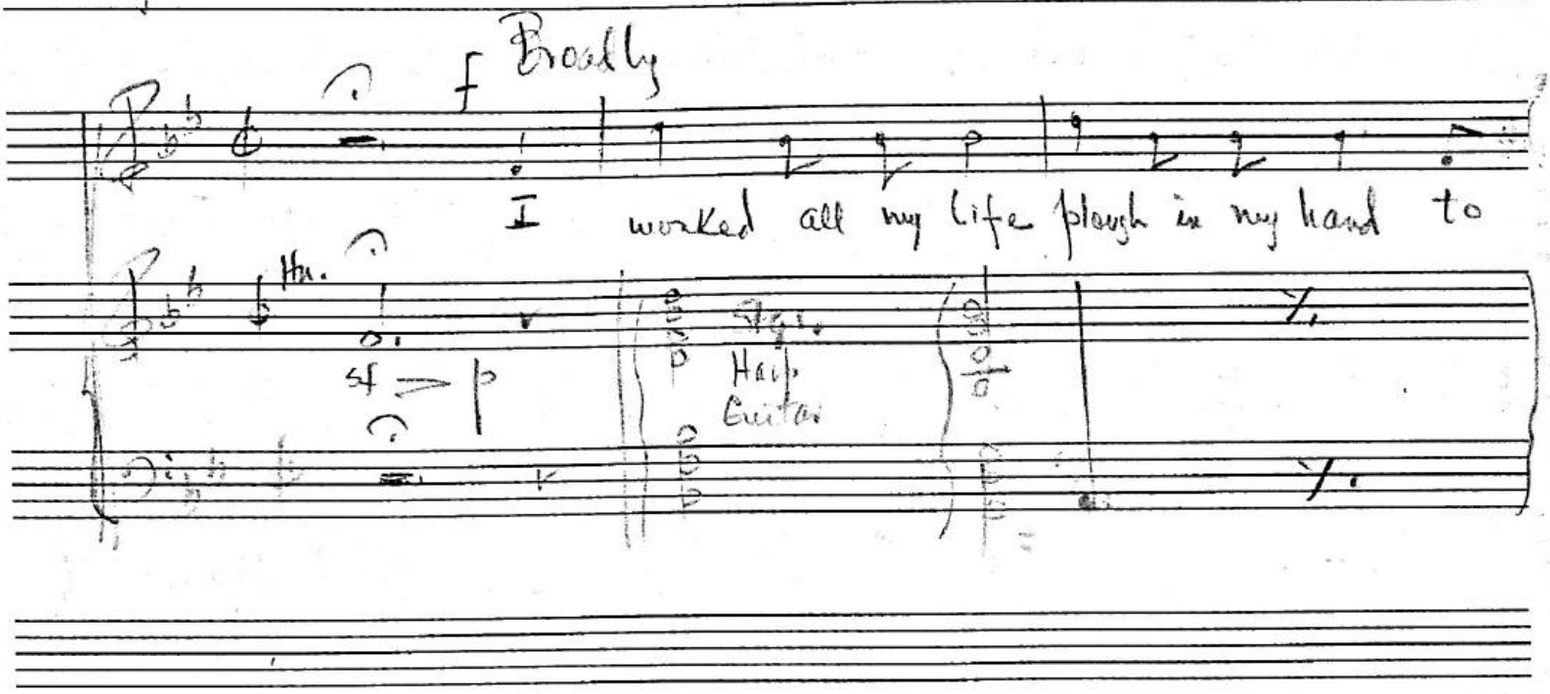

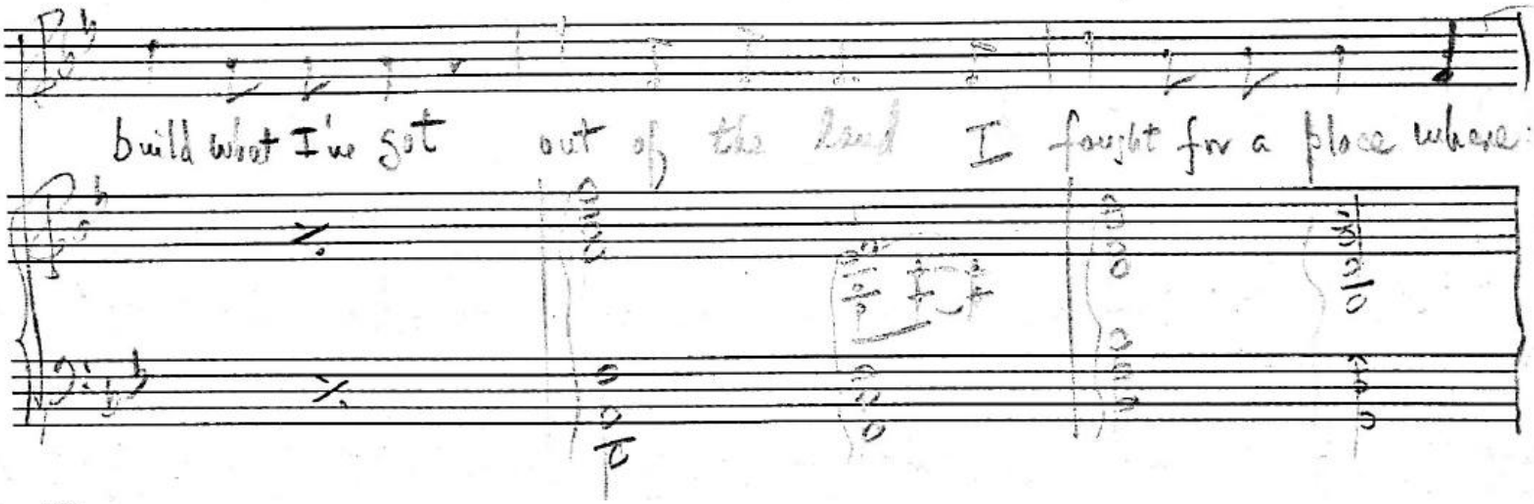

Lithod in U.S.A.

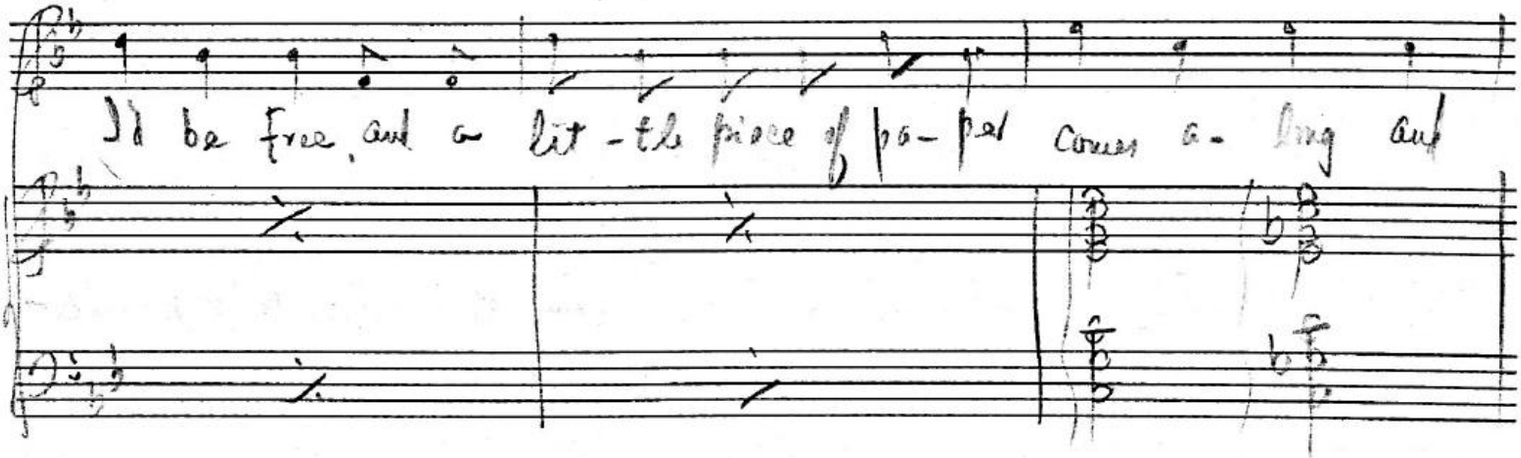

Act II, Scene 5 (I Worked All My Life)

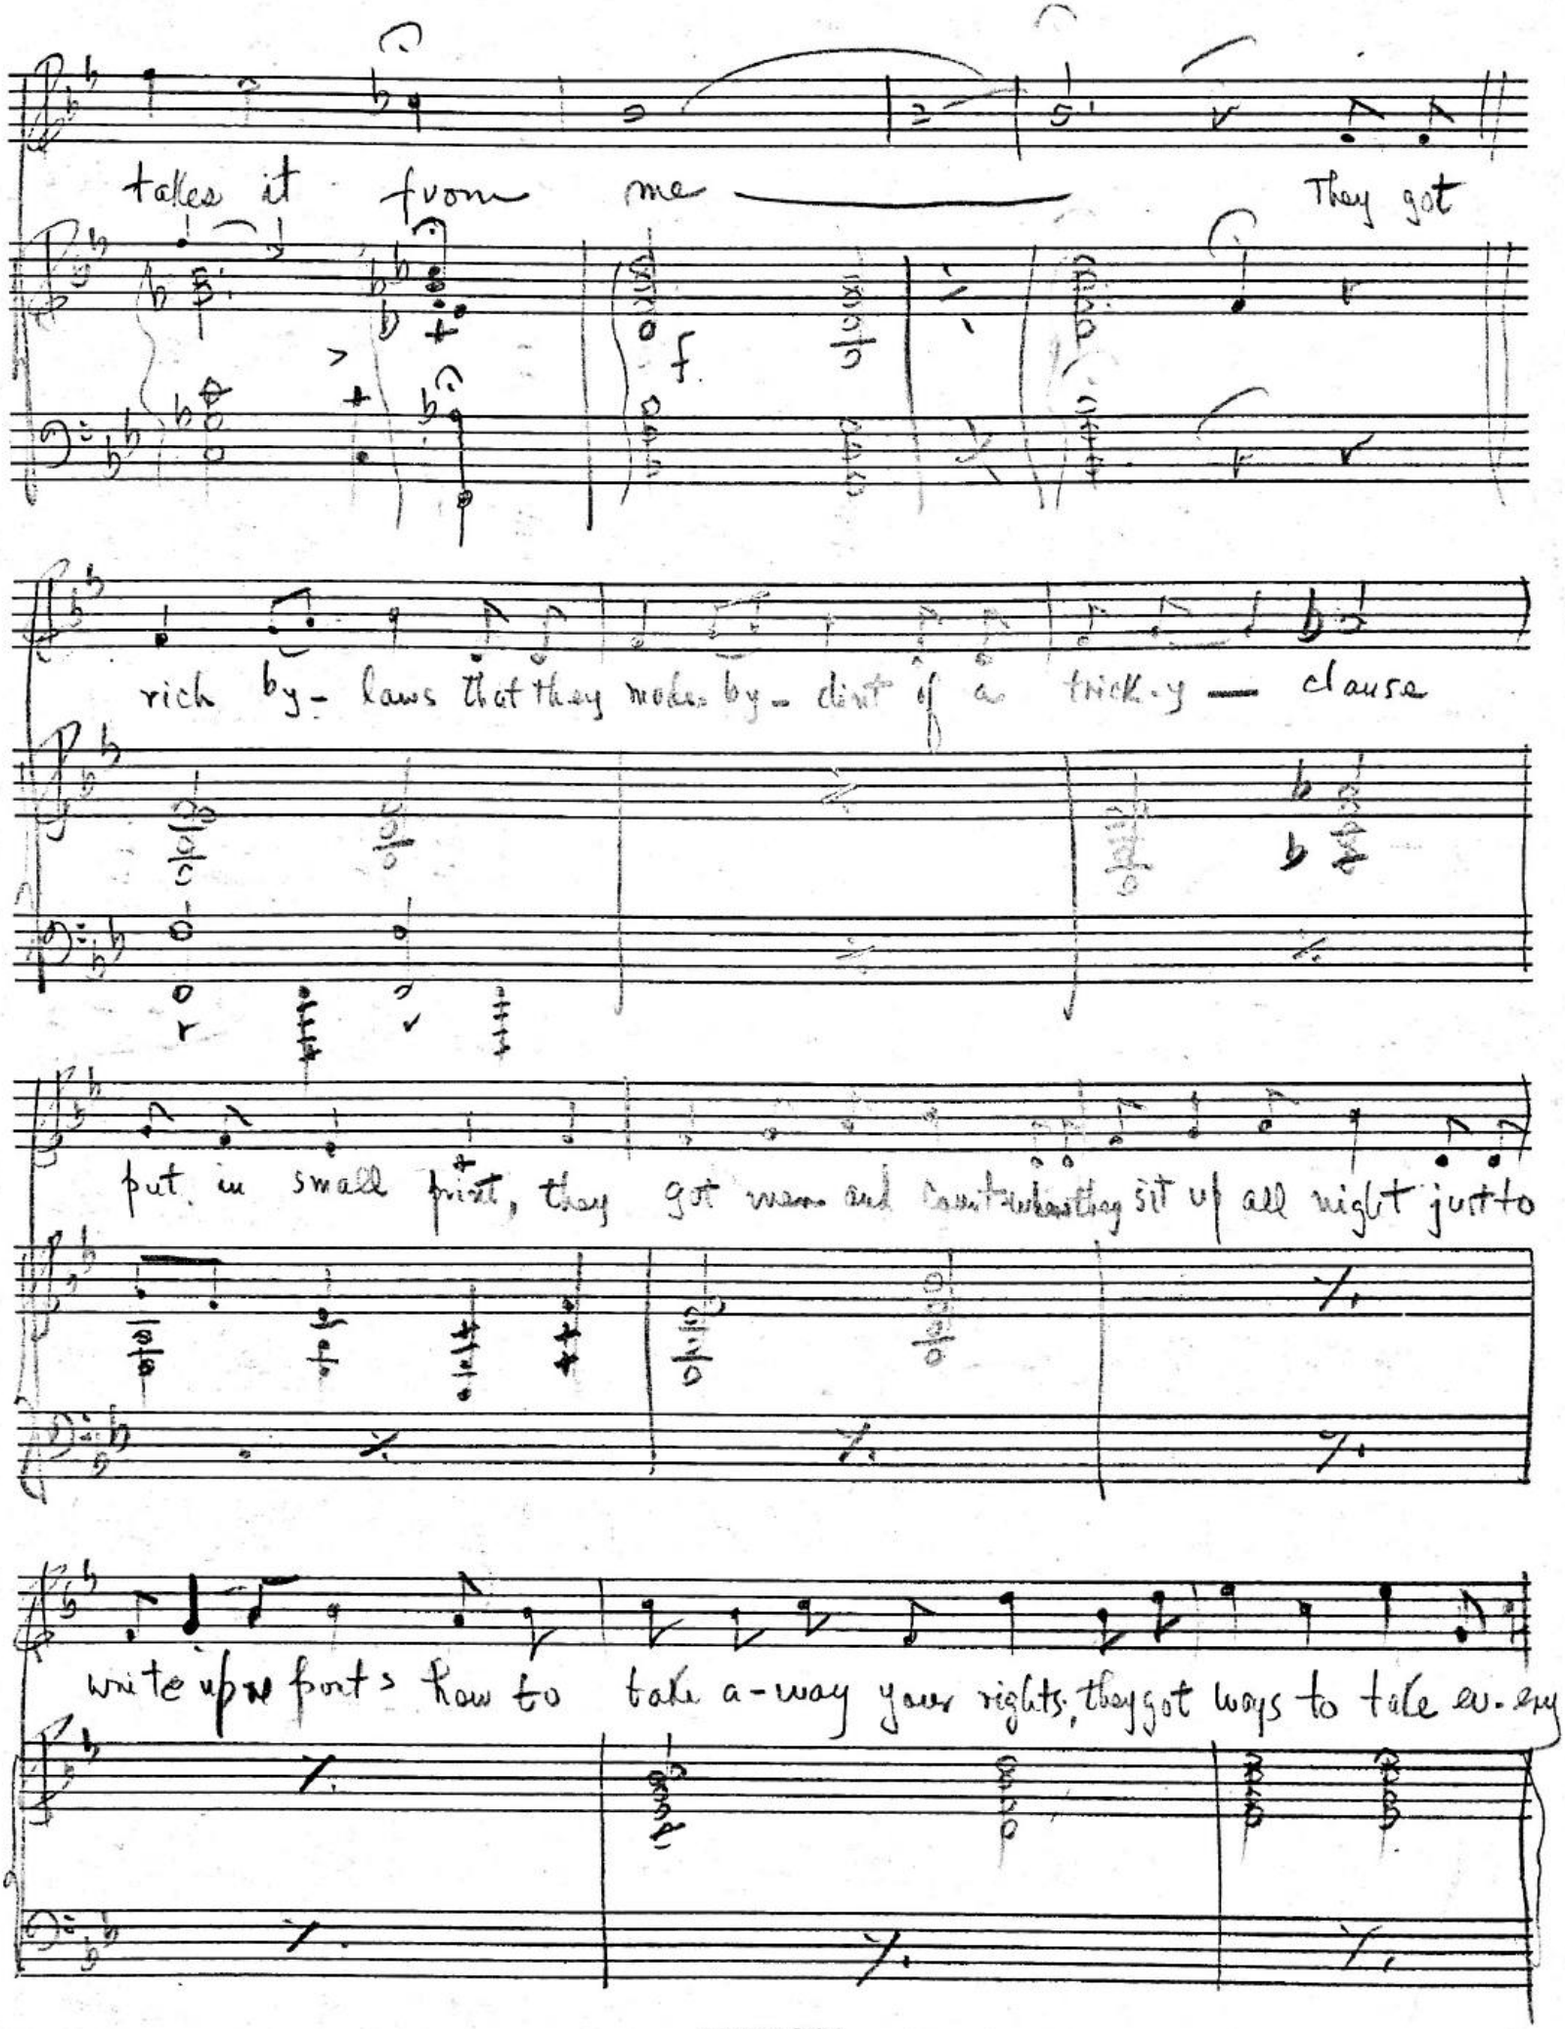

Ionel: Anyone Can Do That / The Things That Belong To You

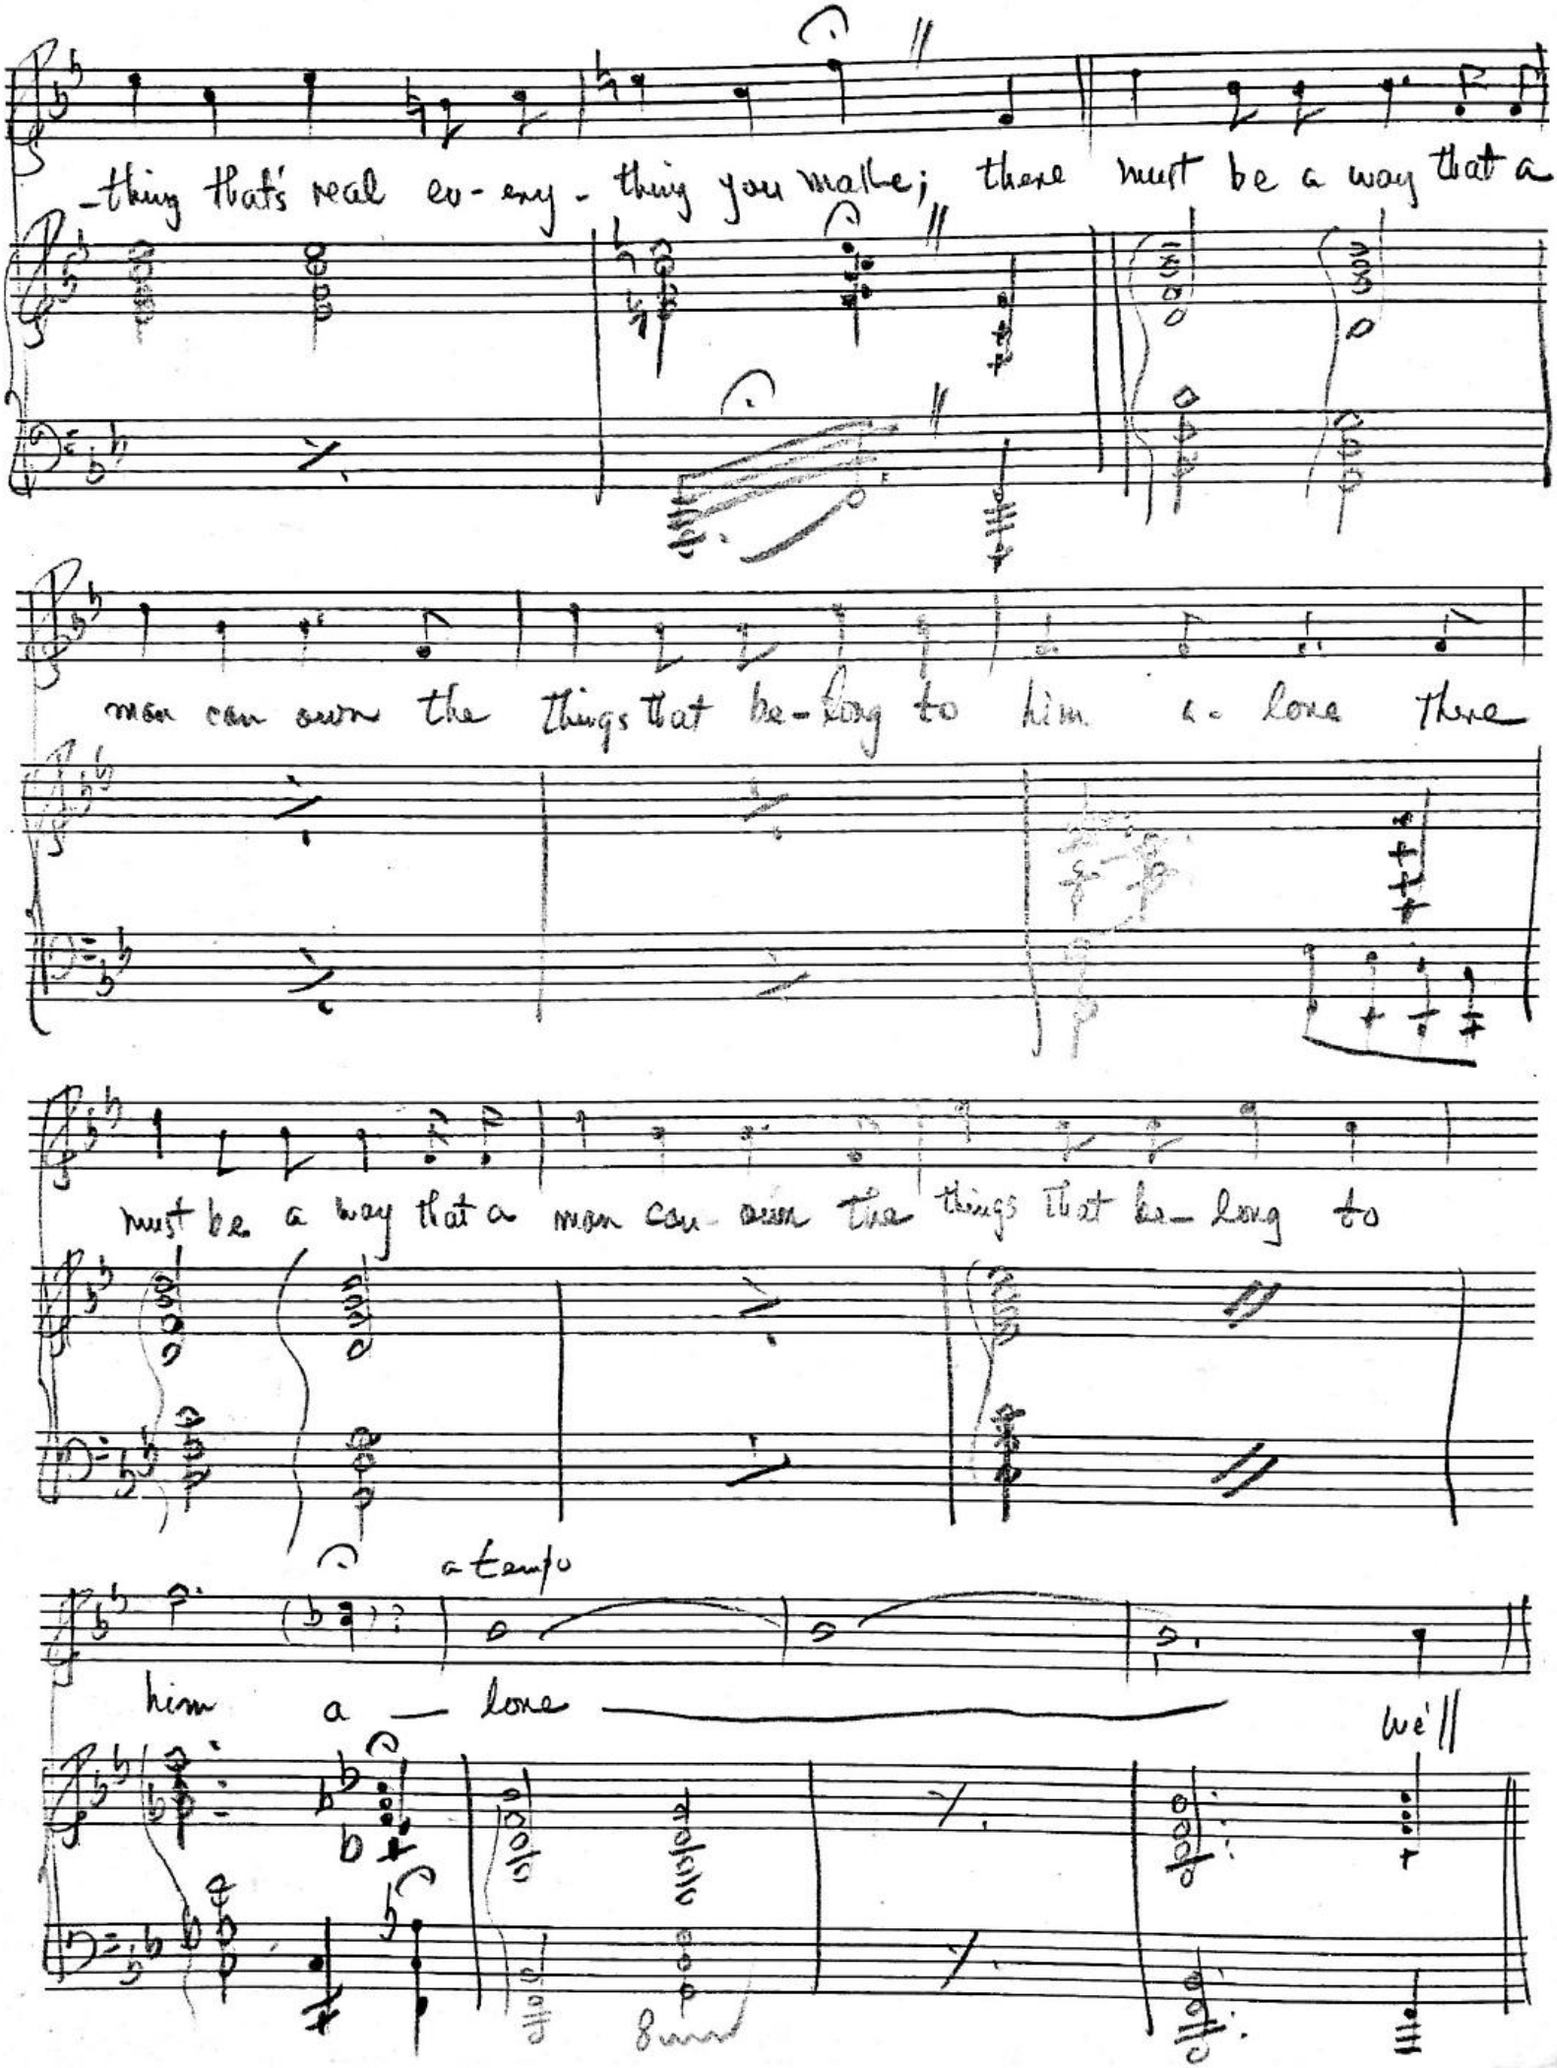

Did you know that?

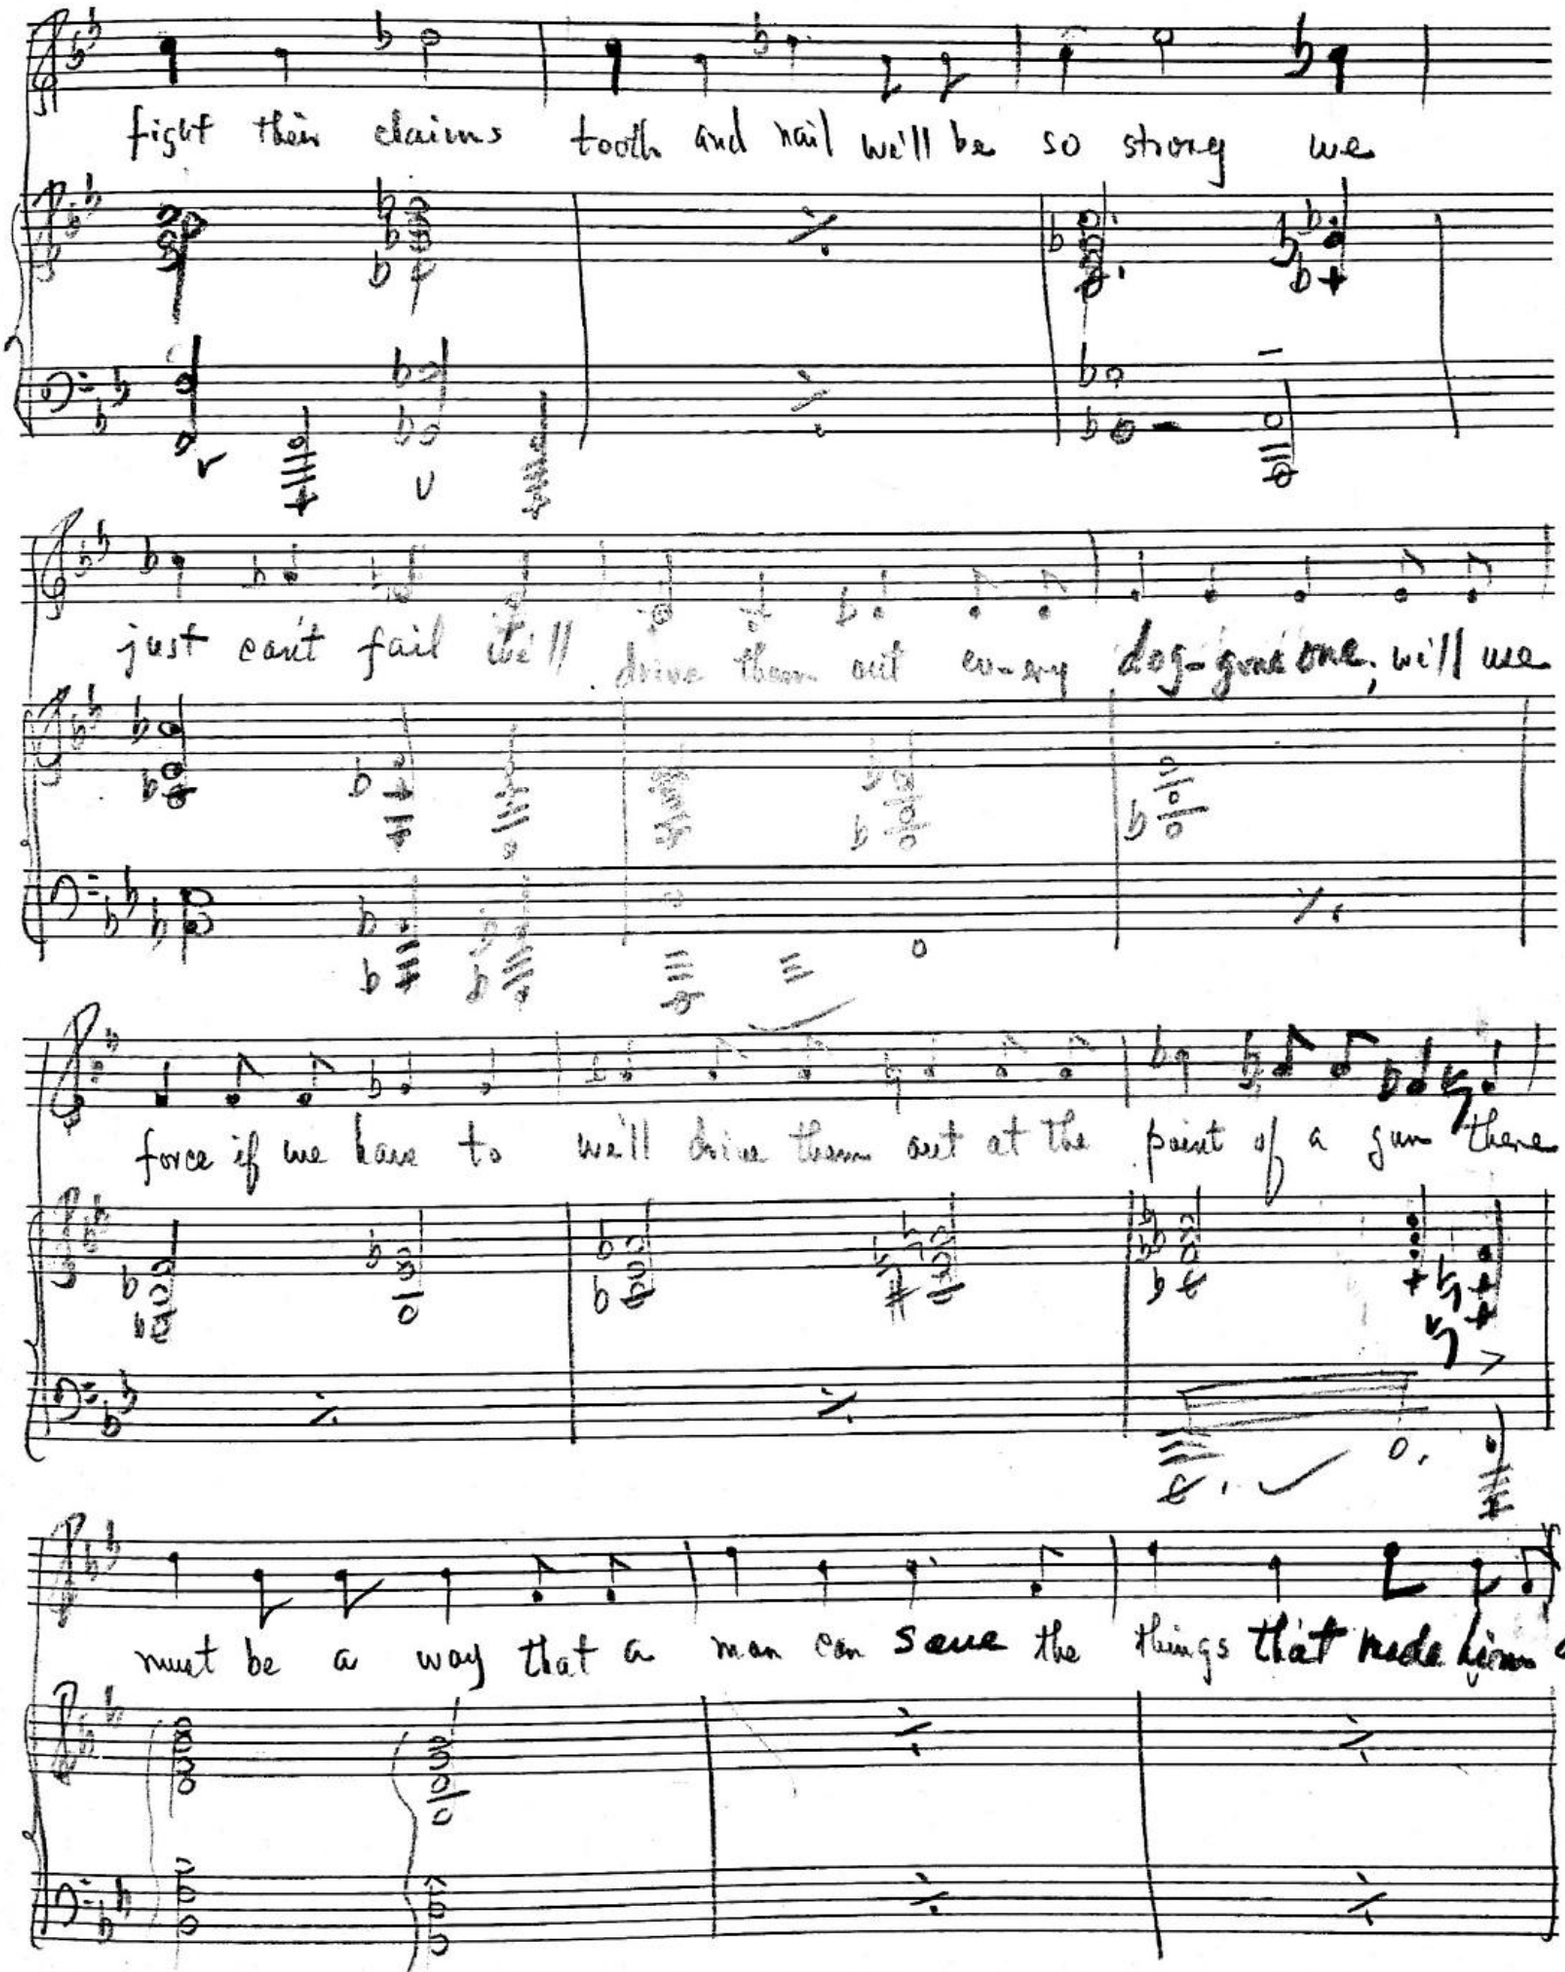

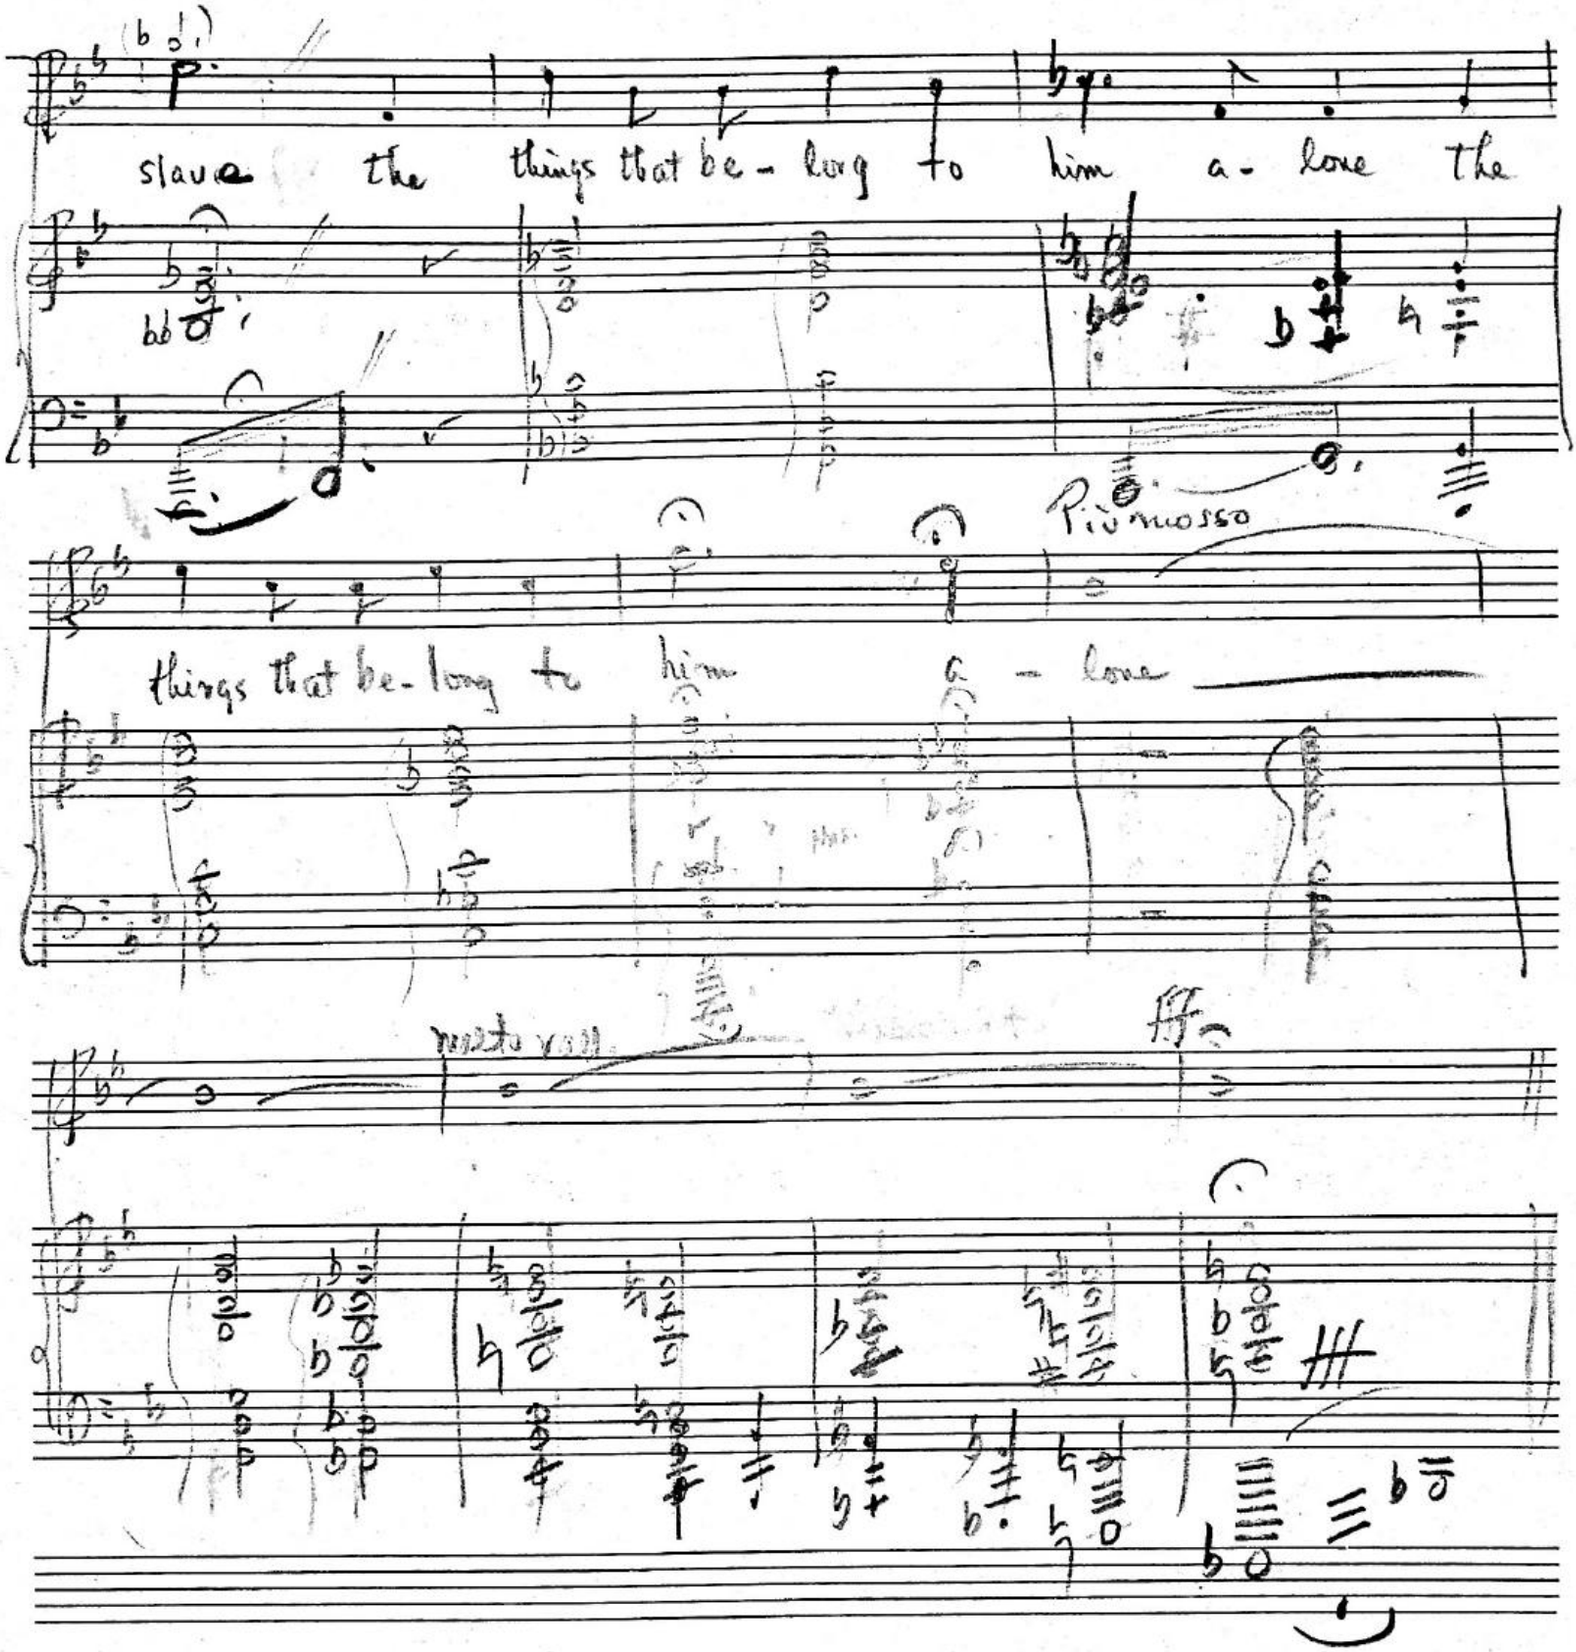

takes it from me
They got f.
rich by- laws that they make by- dint of a trick- y — clause put in small print, they got men and women they sit up all night just to write up fonts how to take a- way your rights, they got ways to take a- way

-thing that's real ev-ery-thing you make; there must be a way that a man can own the things that be-long to him a-lone there must be a way that a man can own the things that be-long to a tempo
him a — lone we'll fight their claims tooth and nail we'll be so strong we just can't fail we'll drive them out every dog-gone one, we'll use force if we have to we'll drive them out at the point of a gun there must be a way that a man can save the things that made him a slave the things that be-long to him a-love the Più mosso things that be-long to him a-love molto rall.

Act II, Scene 5

Bright

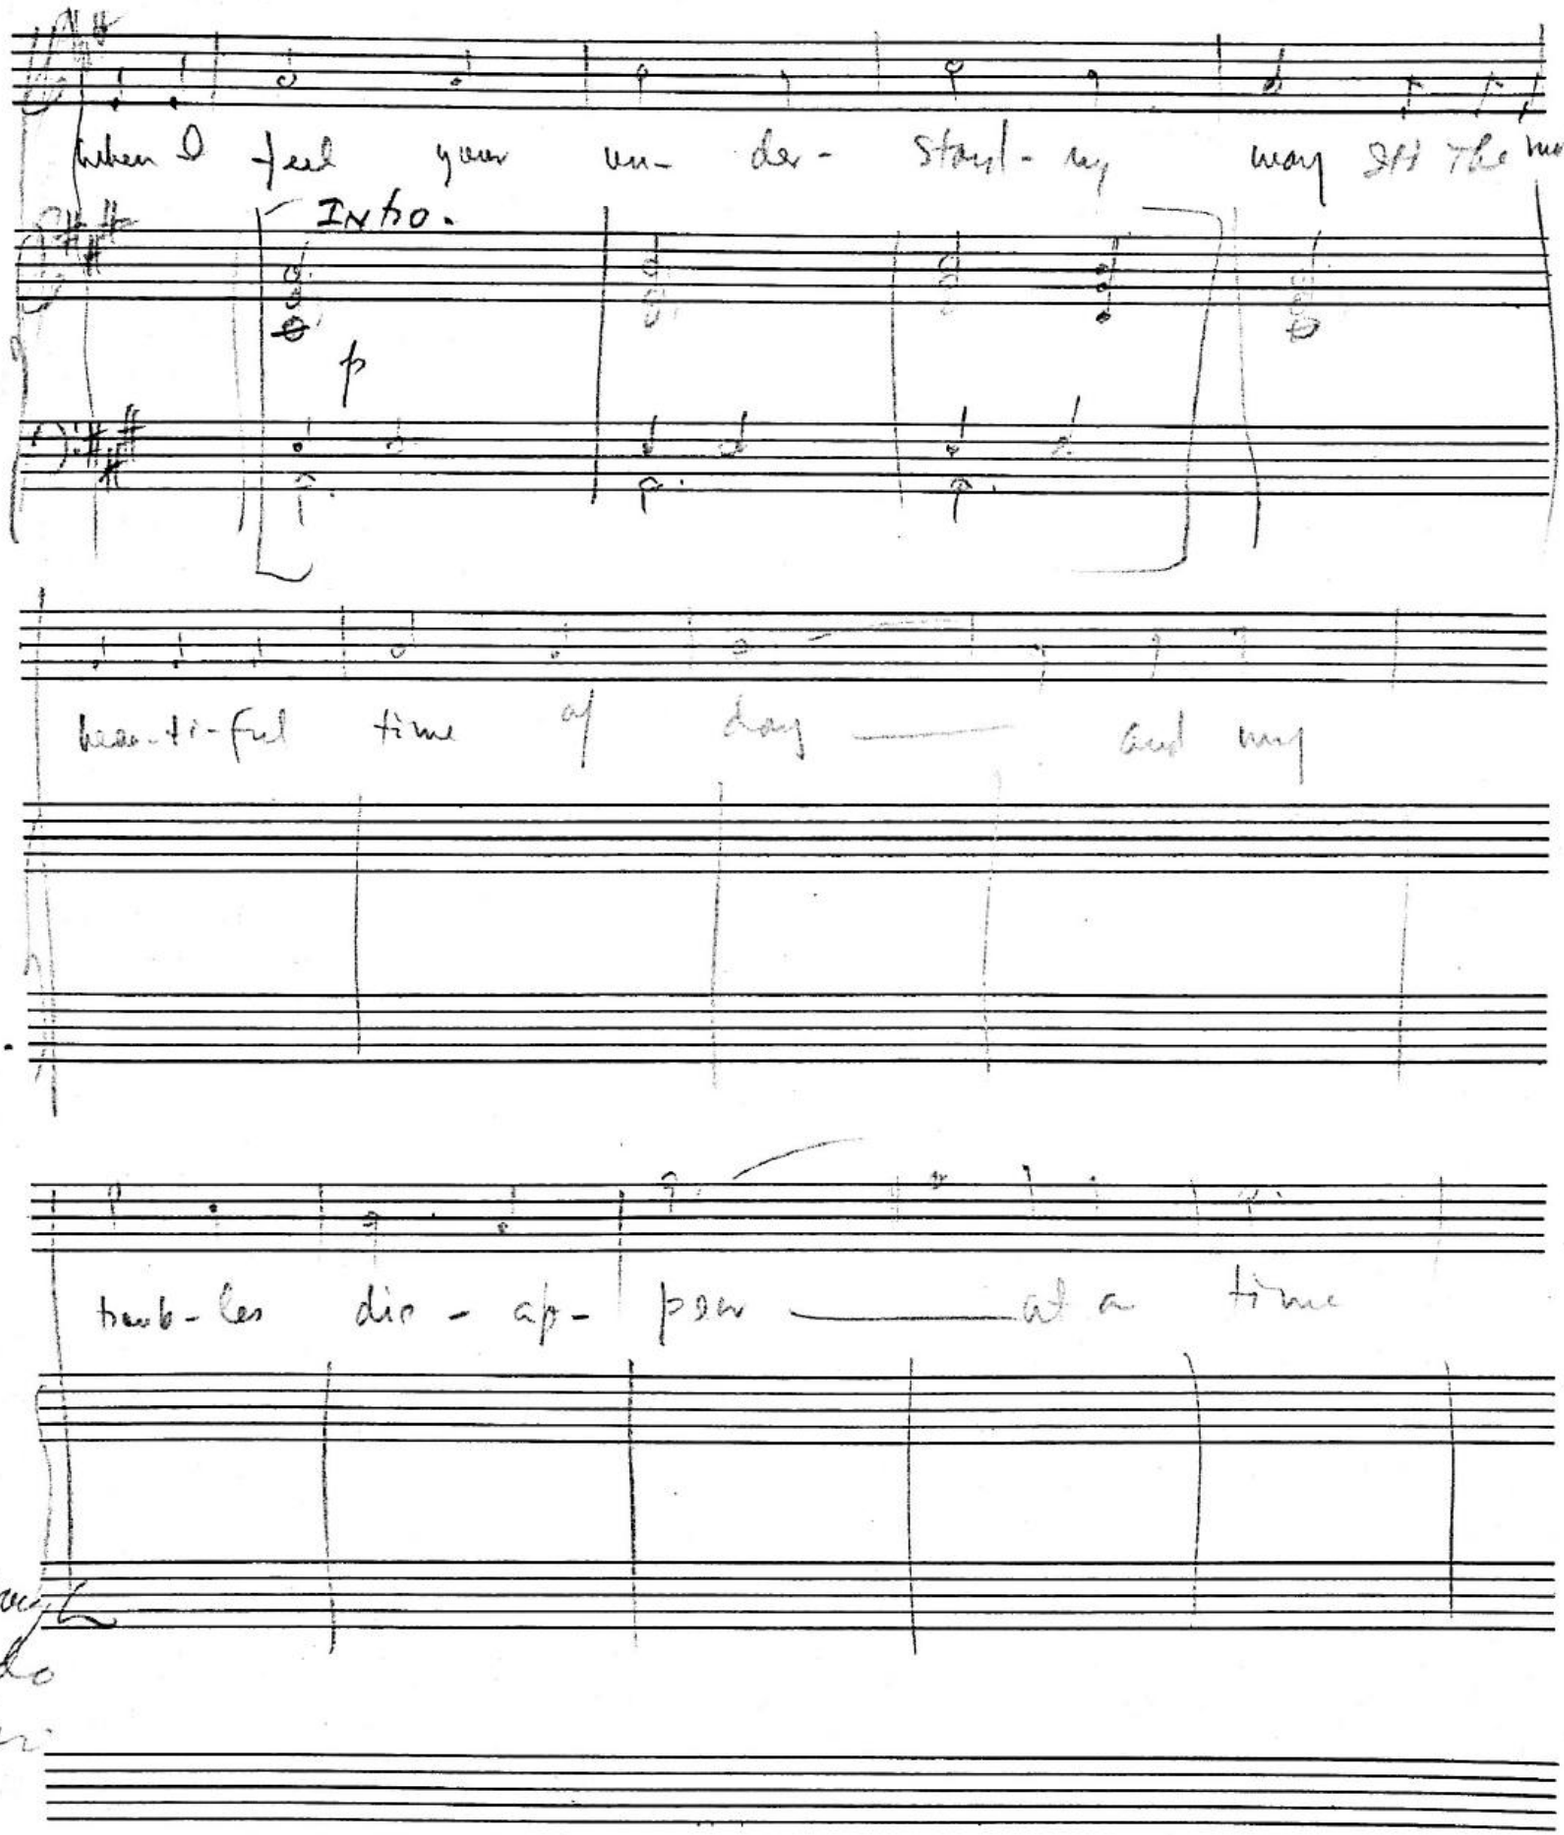

At A Time Like This

fall to the ground — at a time like that — at a mom-ent when the last ad lib heart is filled with fear — he got

At a Time Like This

Verse

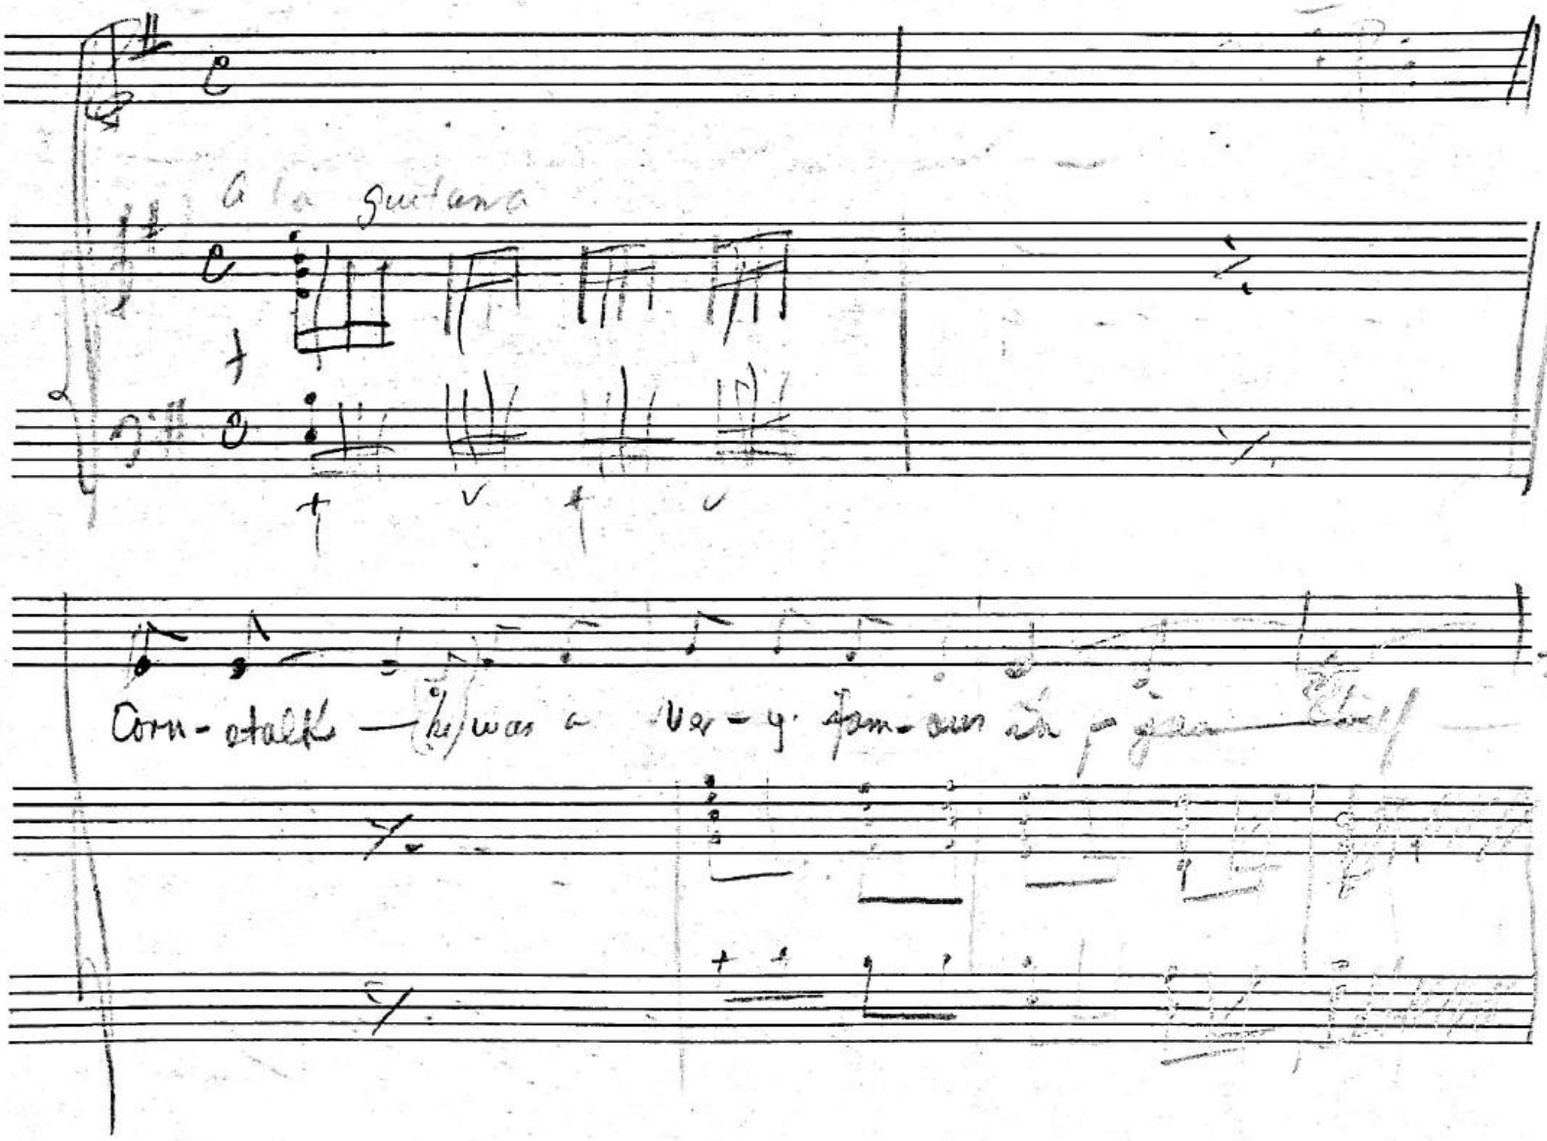

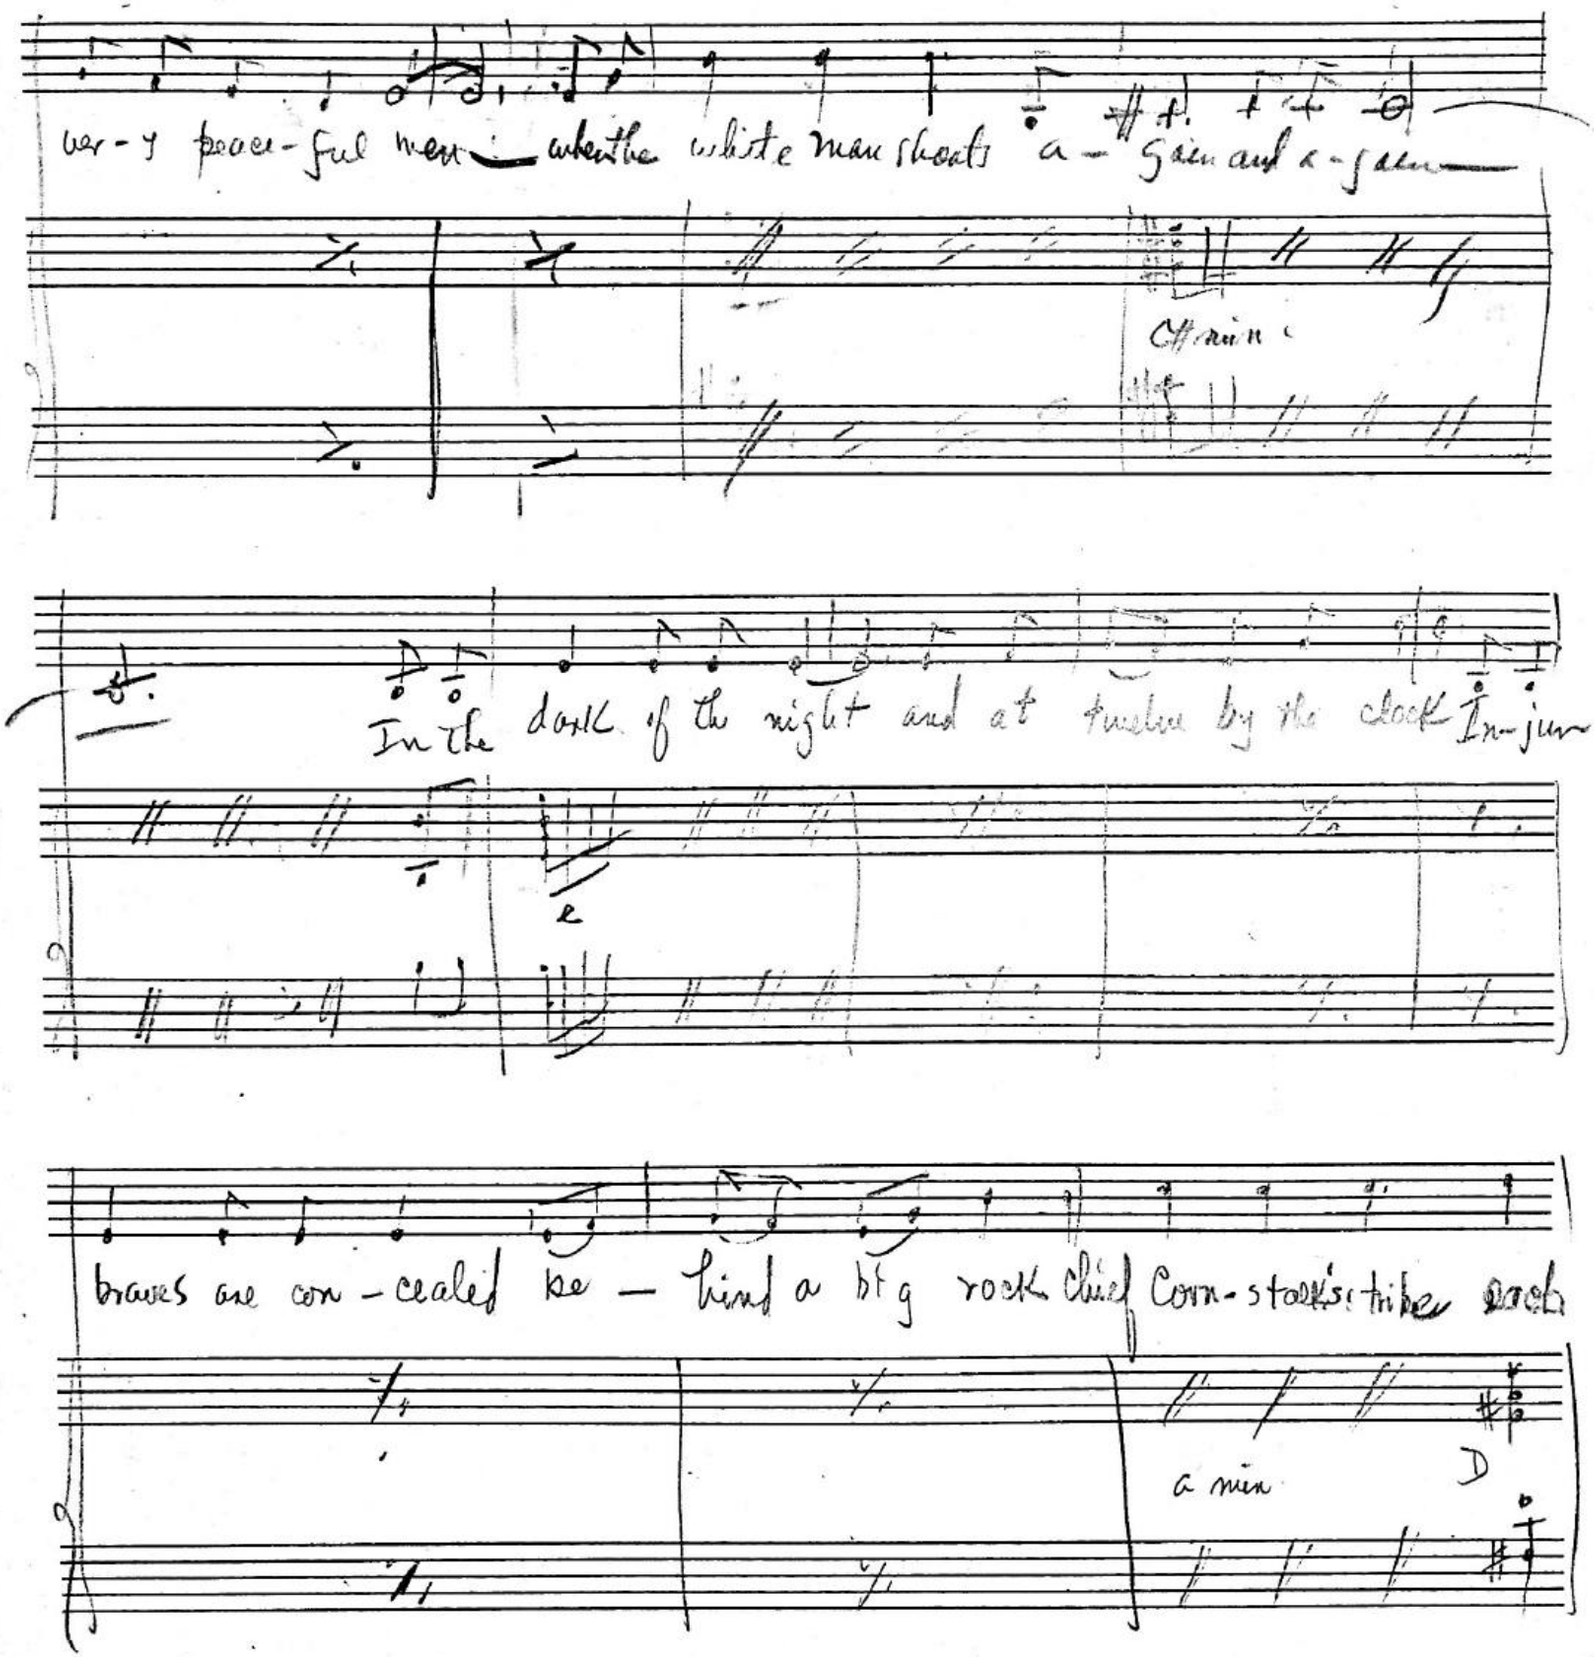

Thru
2 Do
Tri

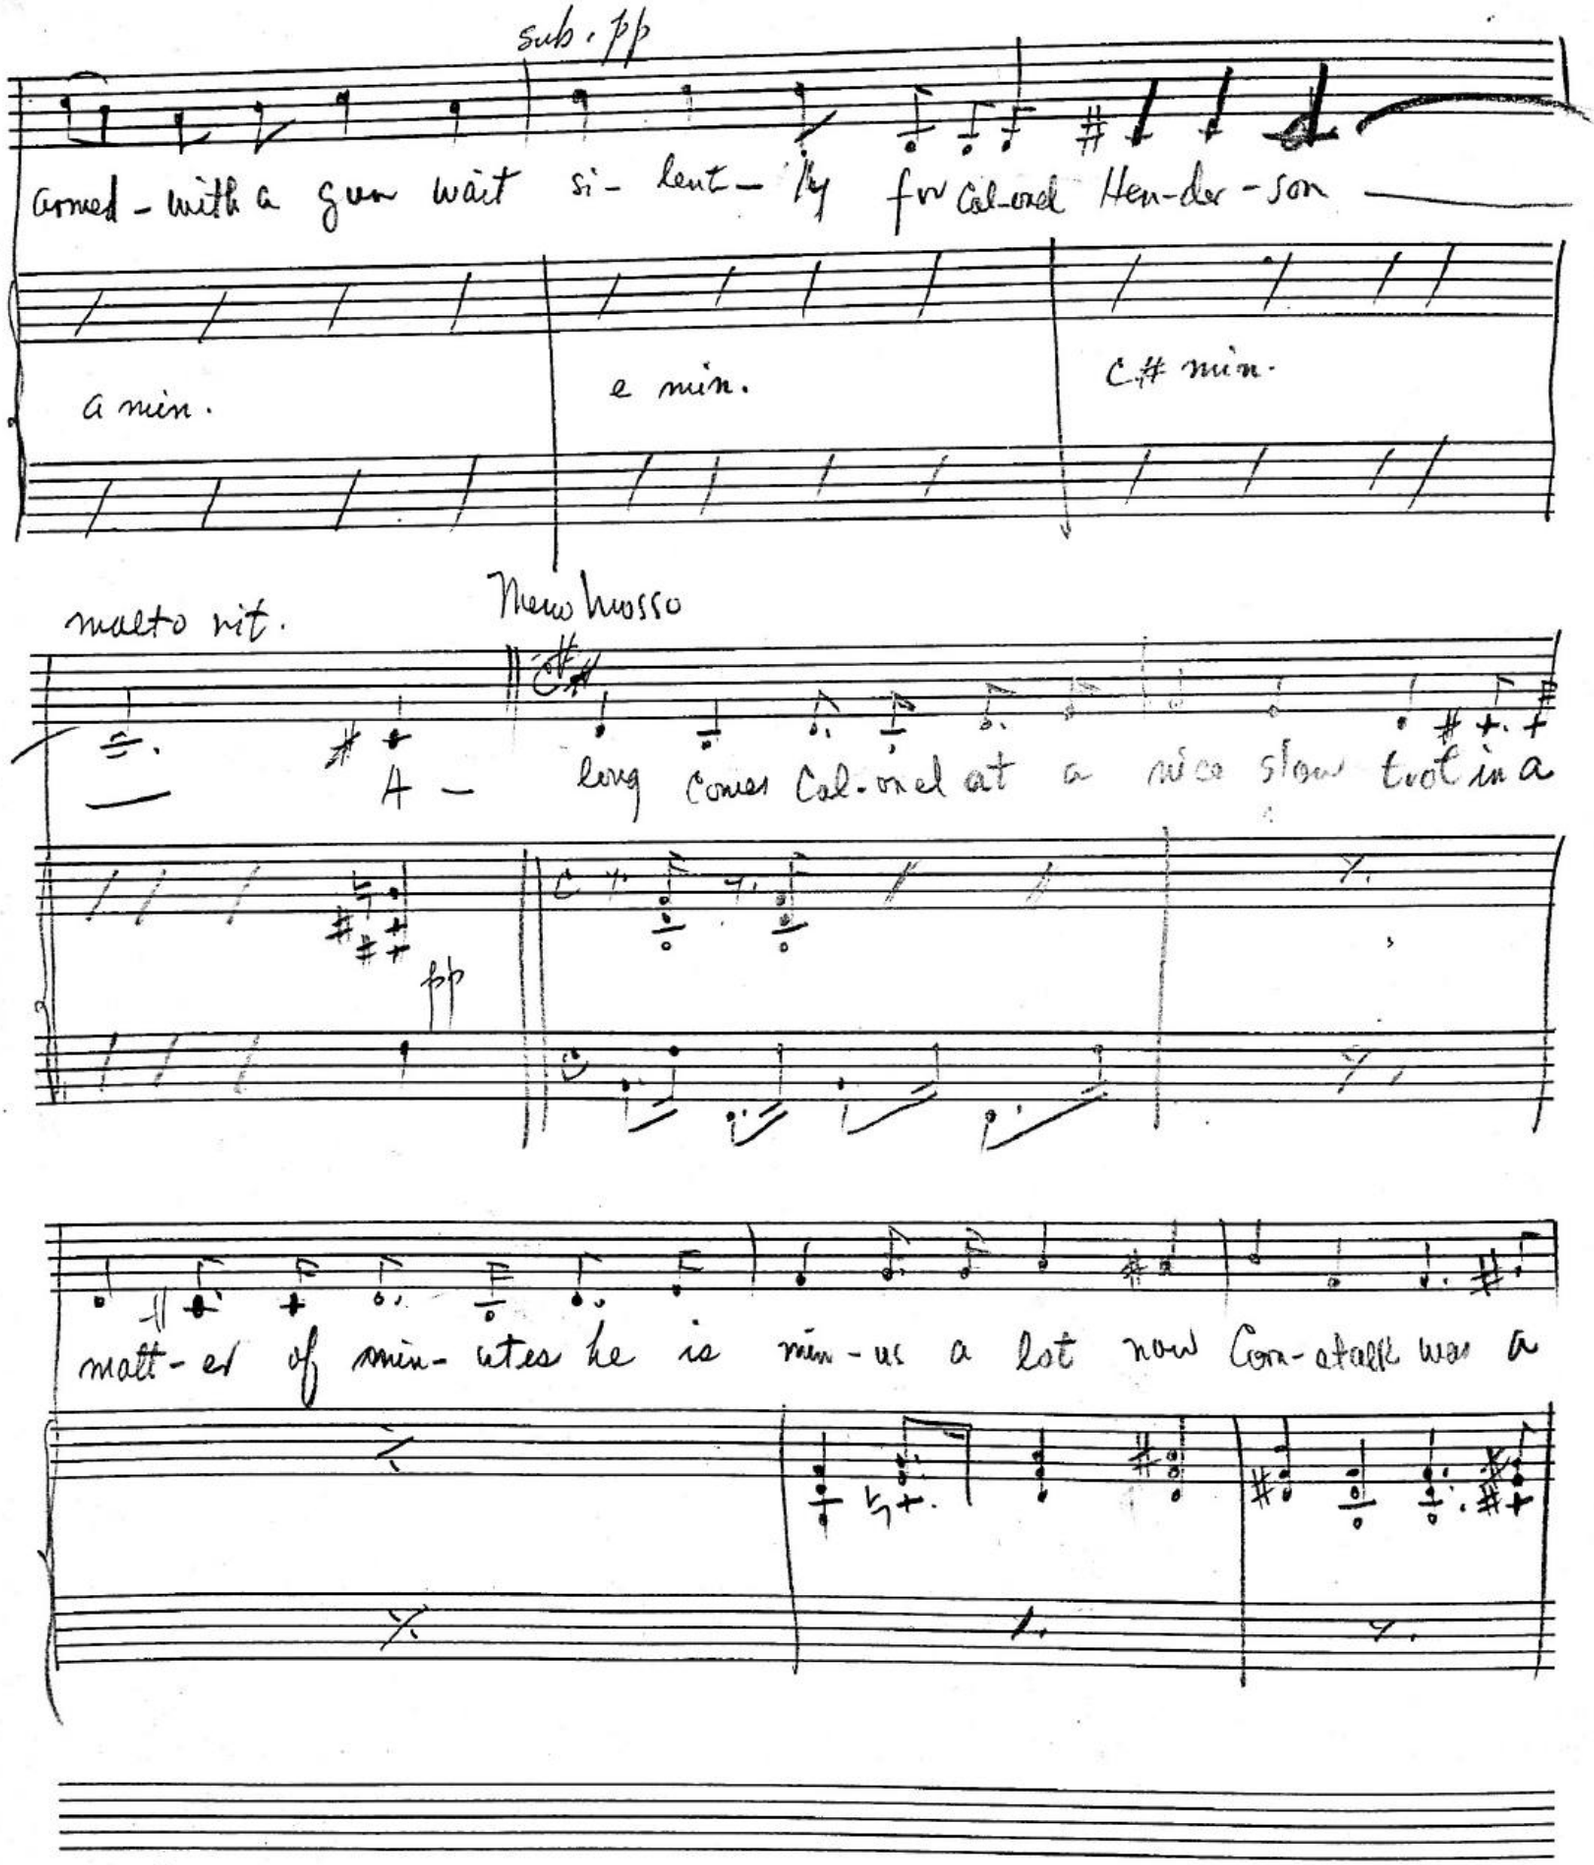

Act II, Scene 5

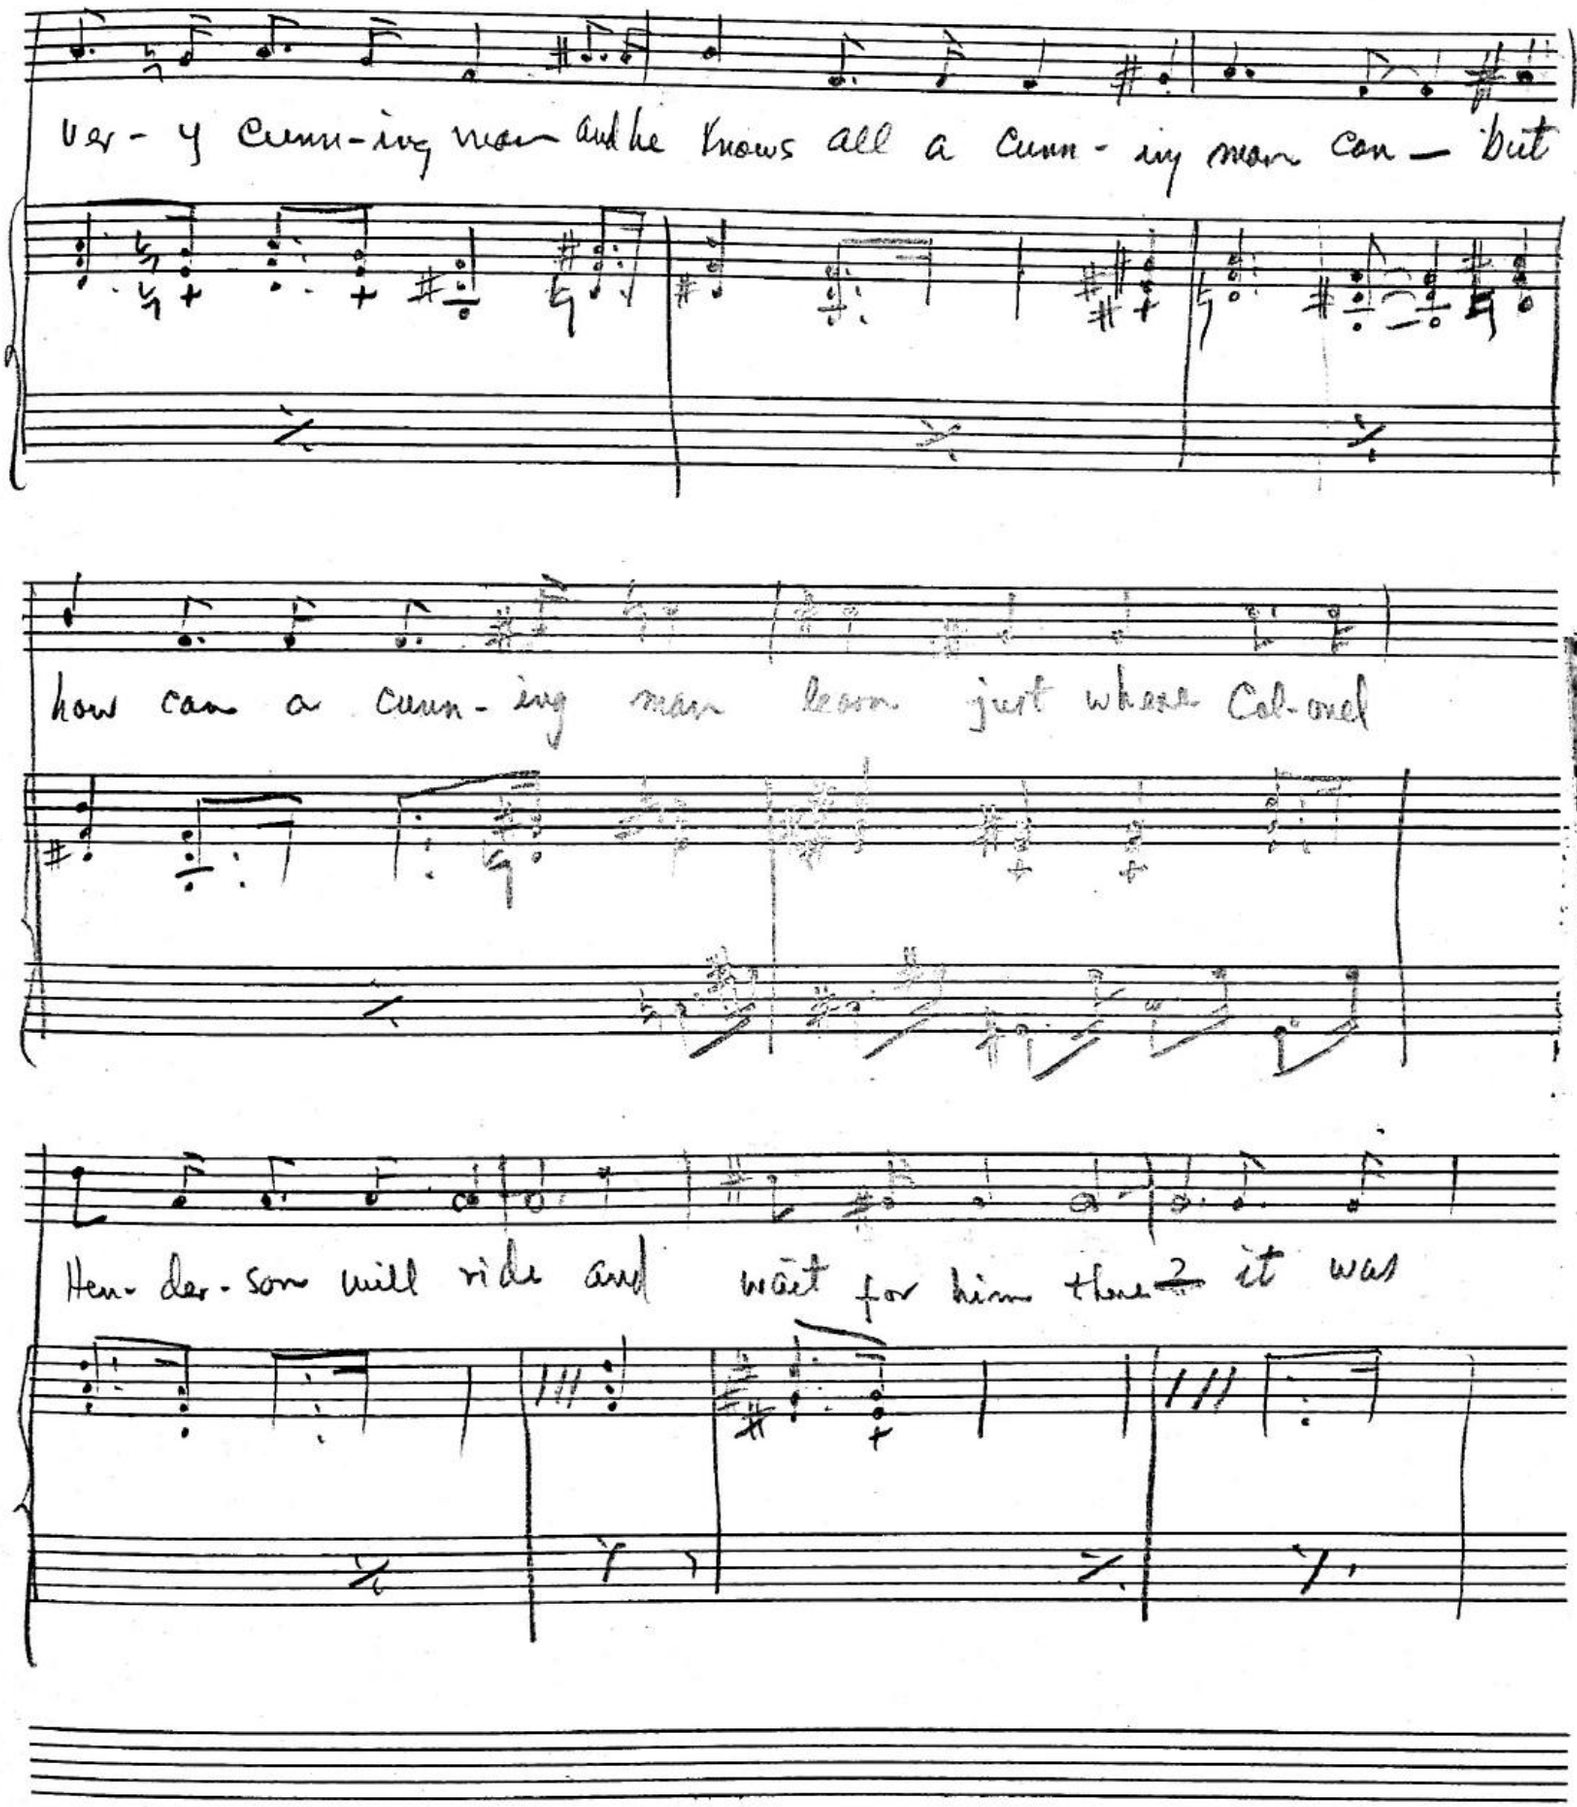

Vivace

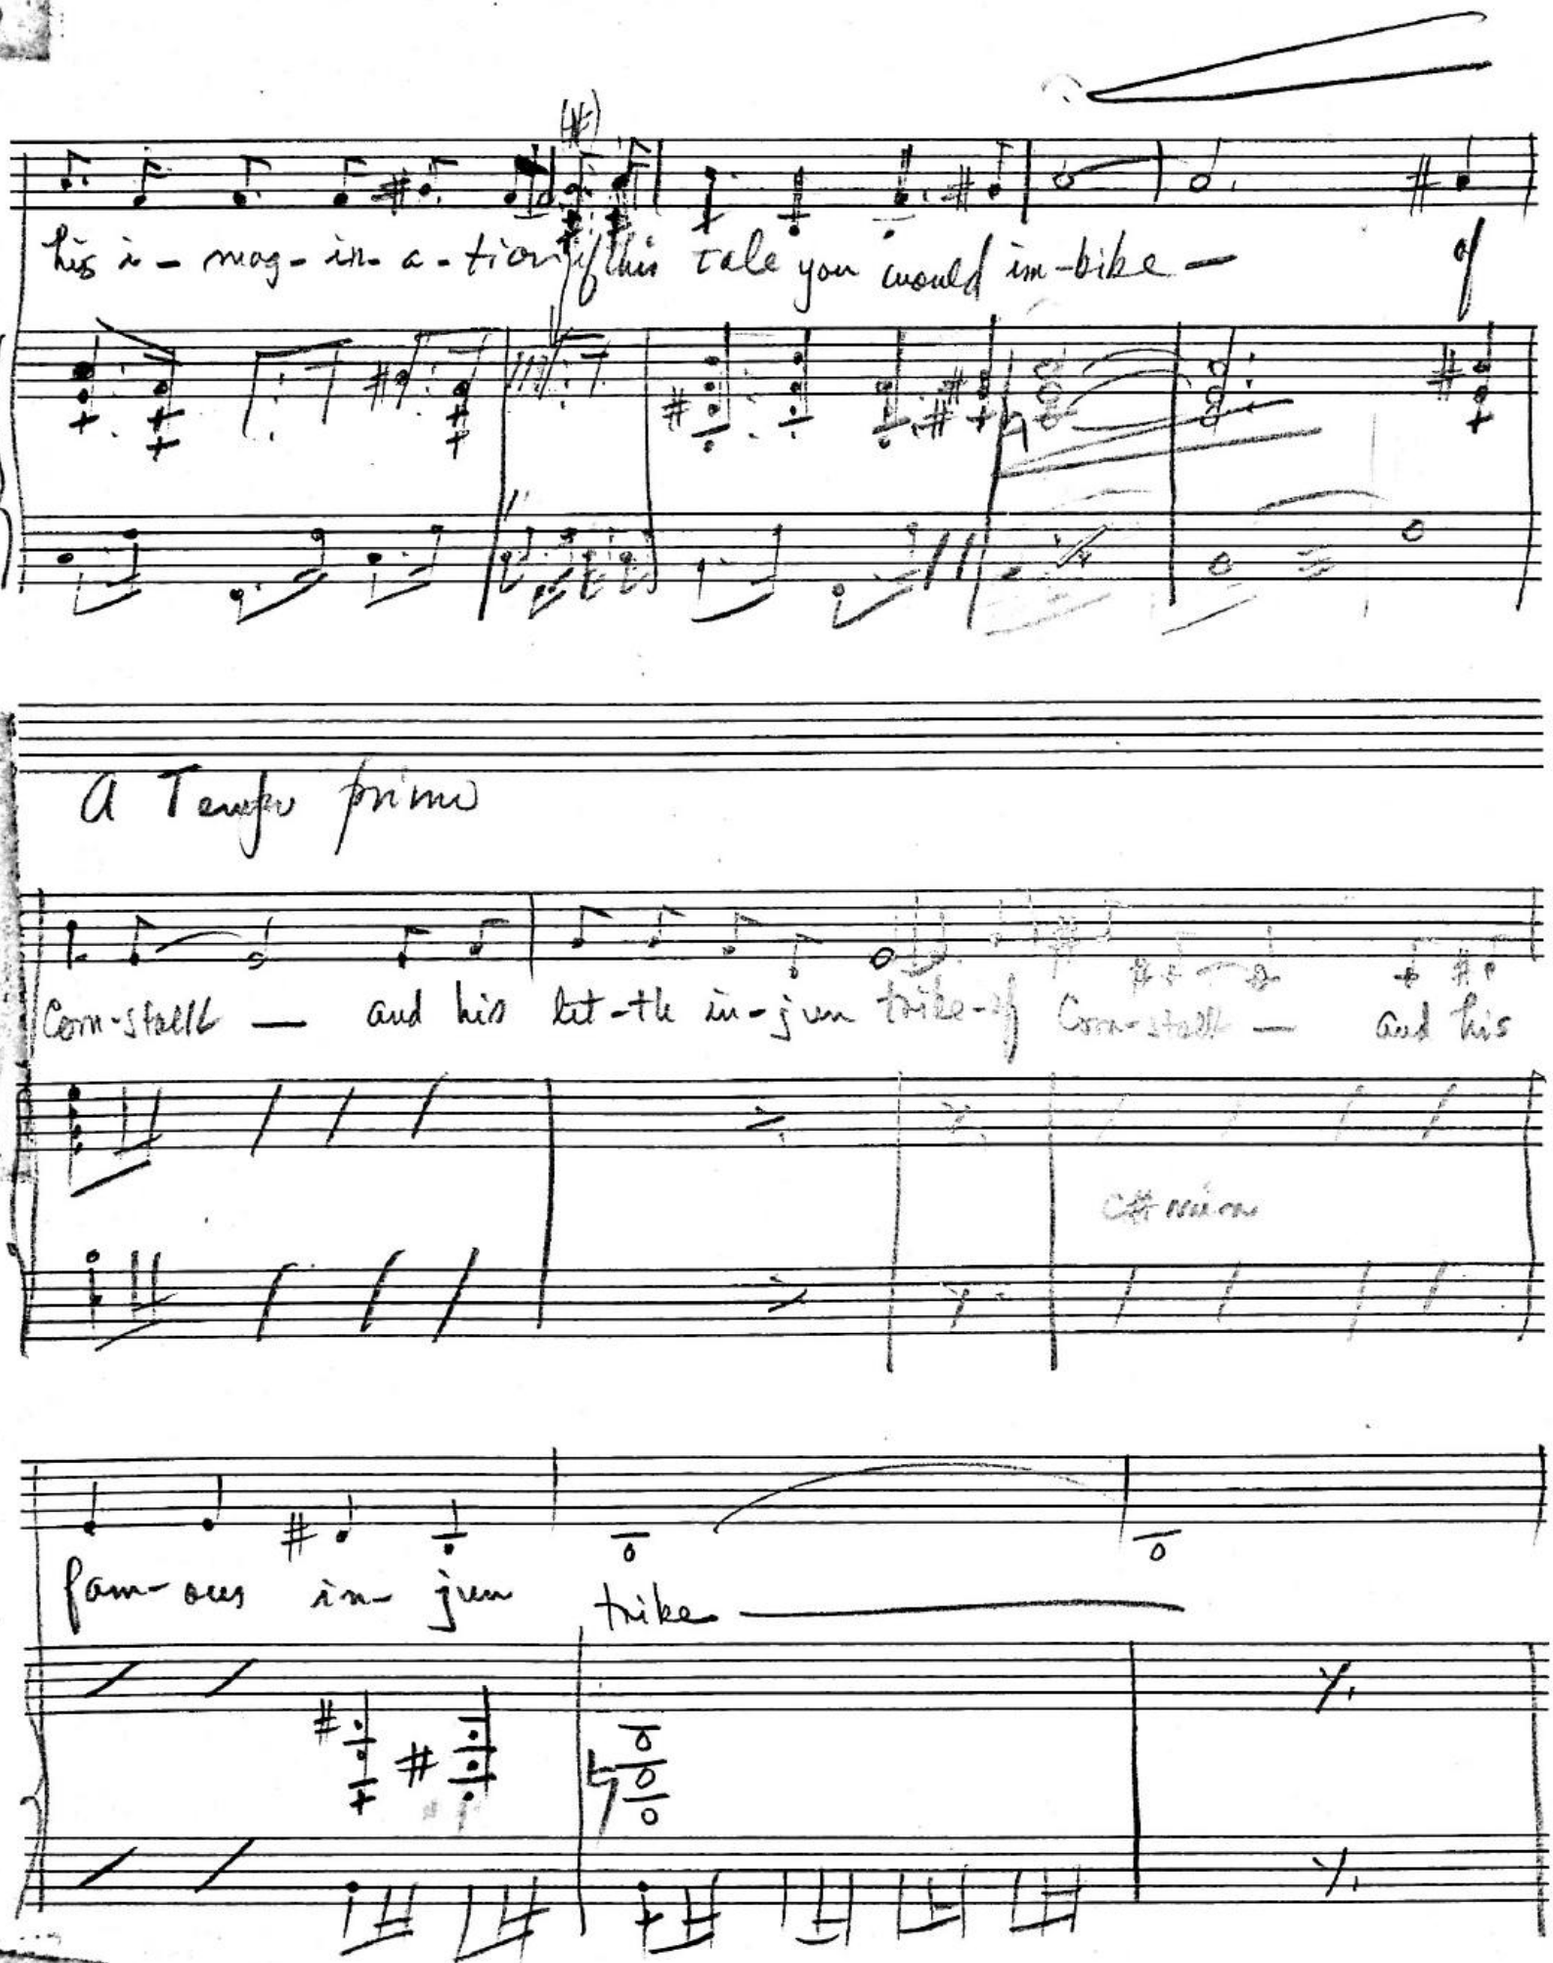

Corn-stalk

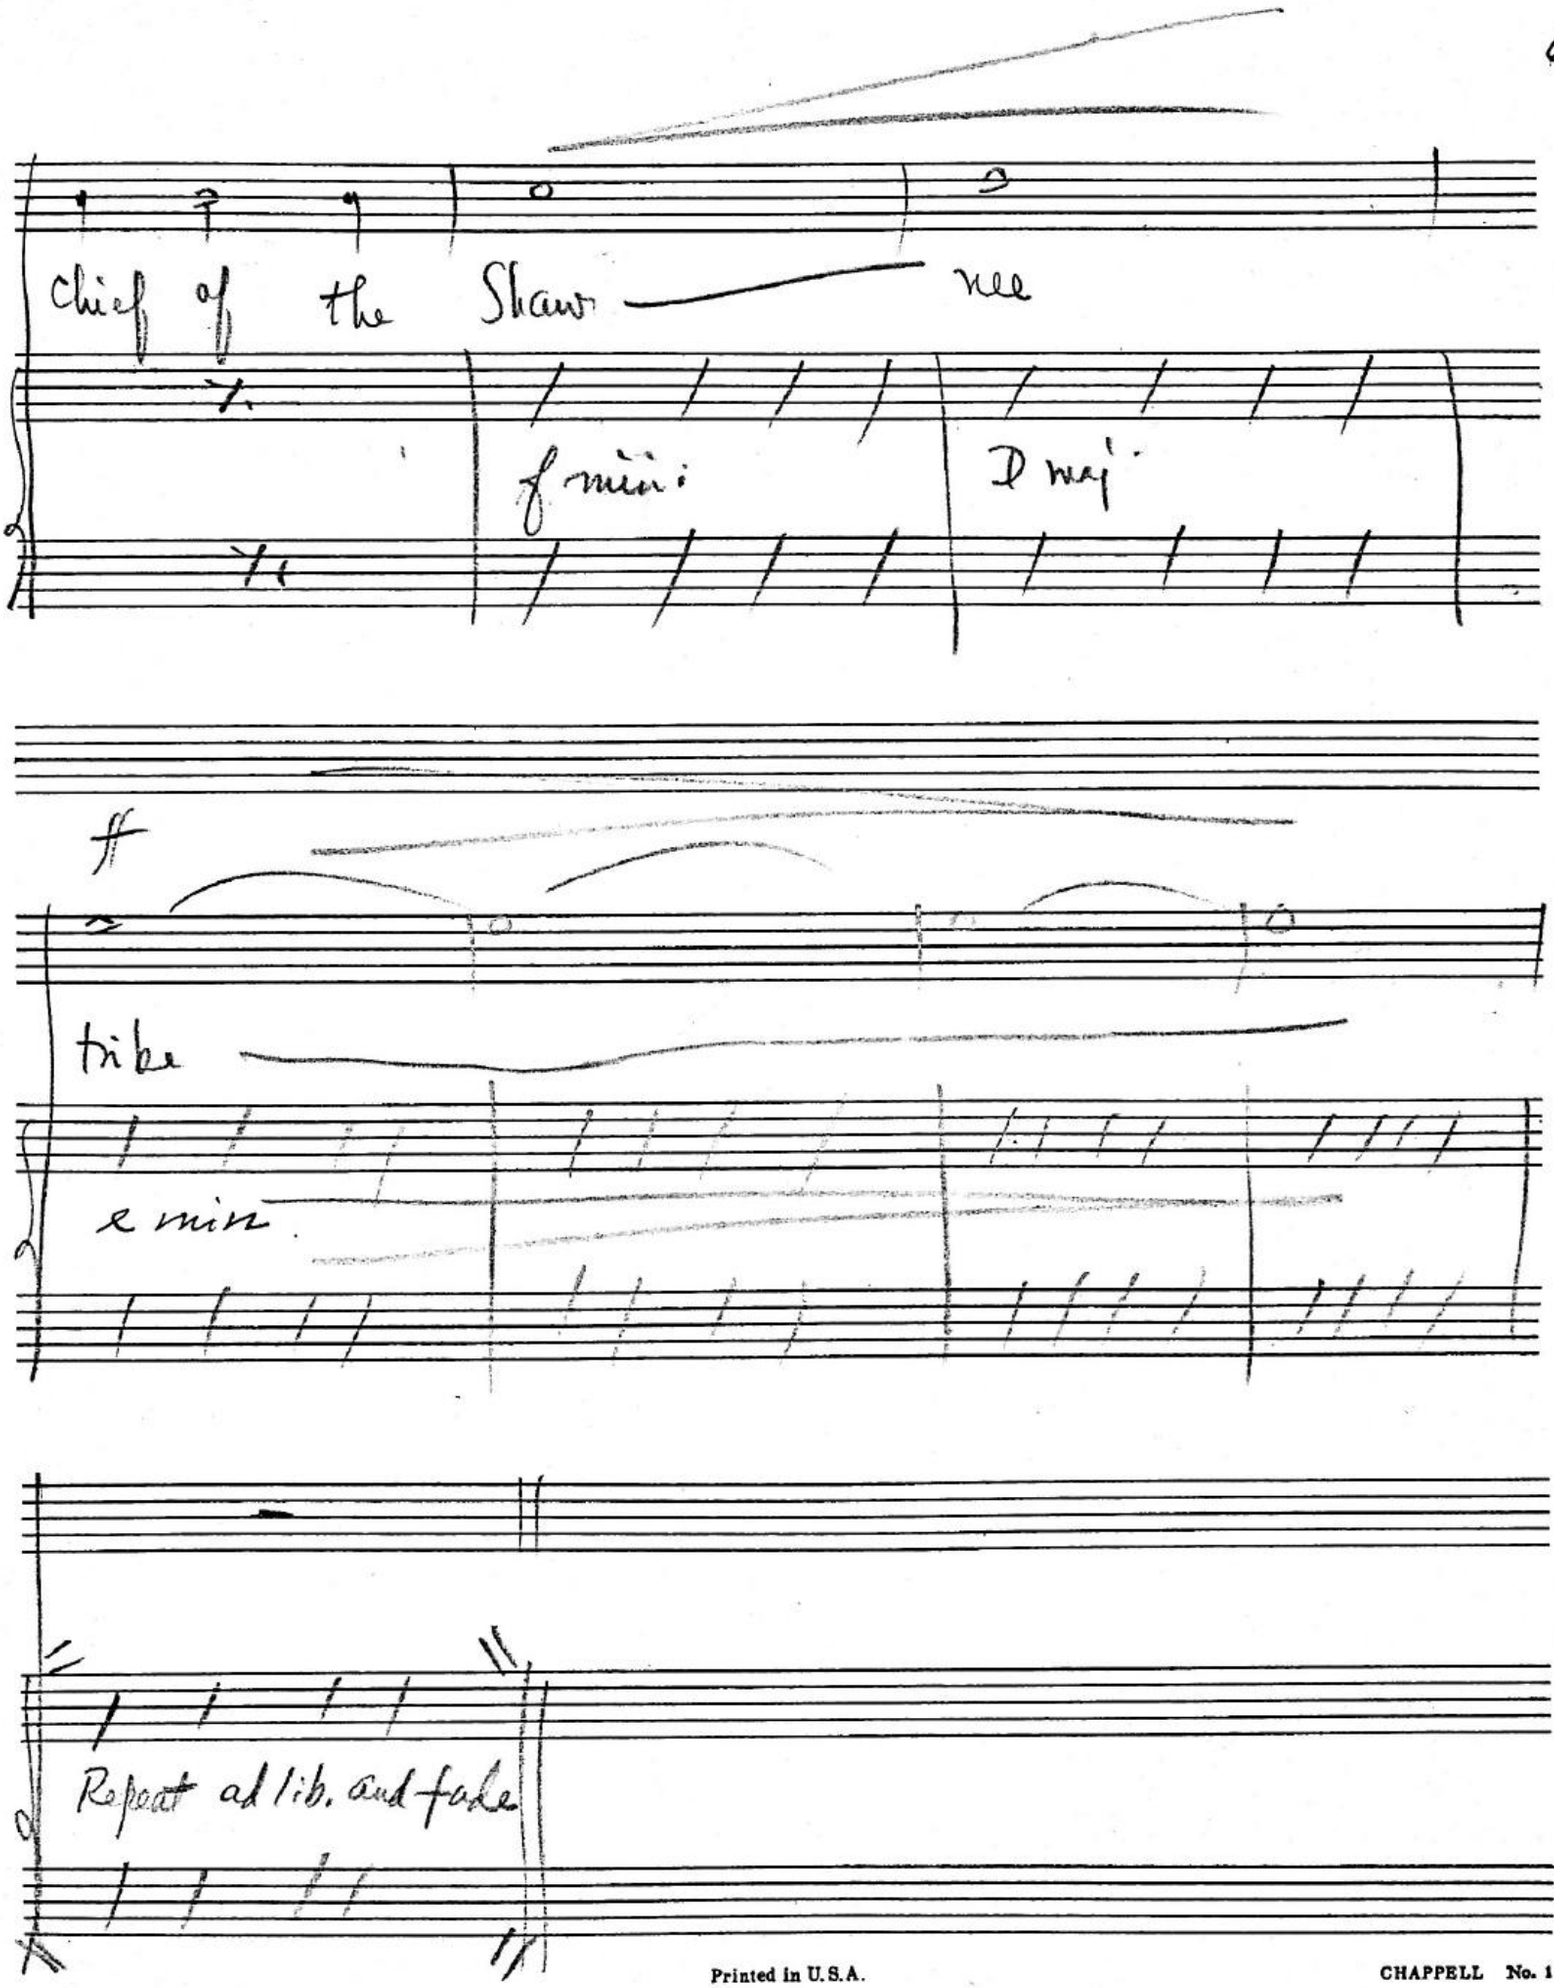

ver - y peace - ful men when the white man shoots a - gain and a - gain C#min
In the dark of the night and at twelve by the clock In - jun e braves are con - cealed be - hind a big rock Chief Corn - stalk strikes a min
D

sub. pp armed - with a gun wait si - lent - ly for Col-onel Hen-der - son a min. e min.
C# min.
molto rit.
New Musso
A - long comes Col-onel at a nice slow trot in a pp matt - er of min - utes he is min - us a lot now Con-stable was a

Ver - y cunn-ing man and he knows all a cunn - ing man can — but how can a cunn - ing man learn just when Col-ored Hen-der-son will ride and wait for him then it was his i - mag - in - a - tion if this tale you would im - bike — a Tempo prima Corn - stalk — and his lit - tle in - jun trike - if Corn - stalk — and his fam - ous in - jun trike —

Chief of the Shaw nee f min.
D maj.
ff
tribe
e min.
Repeat ad lib. and fade

Scene 6 Act. II

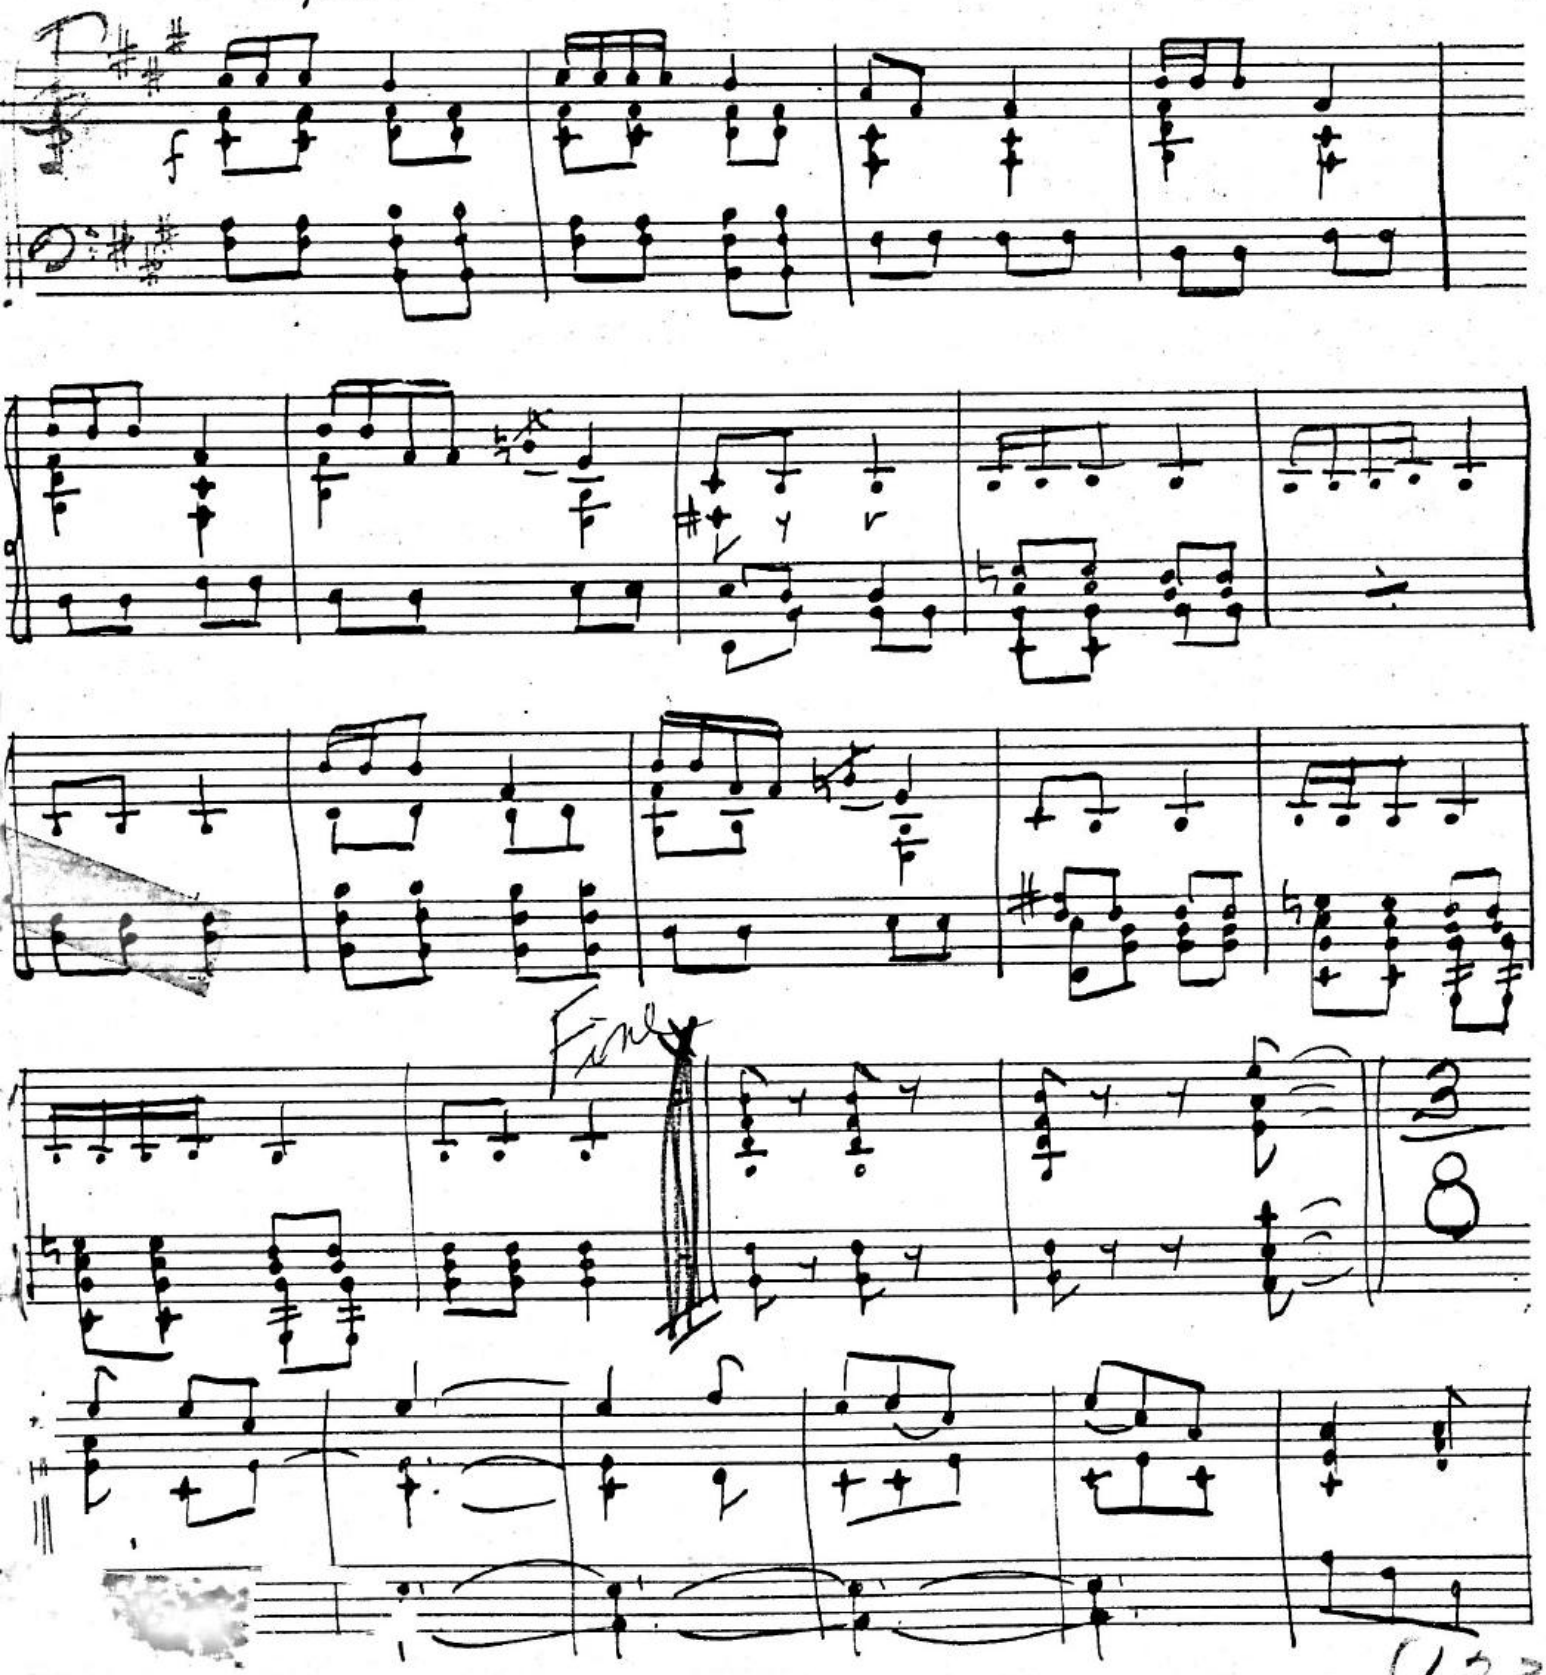

Act II, Scene 7

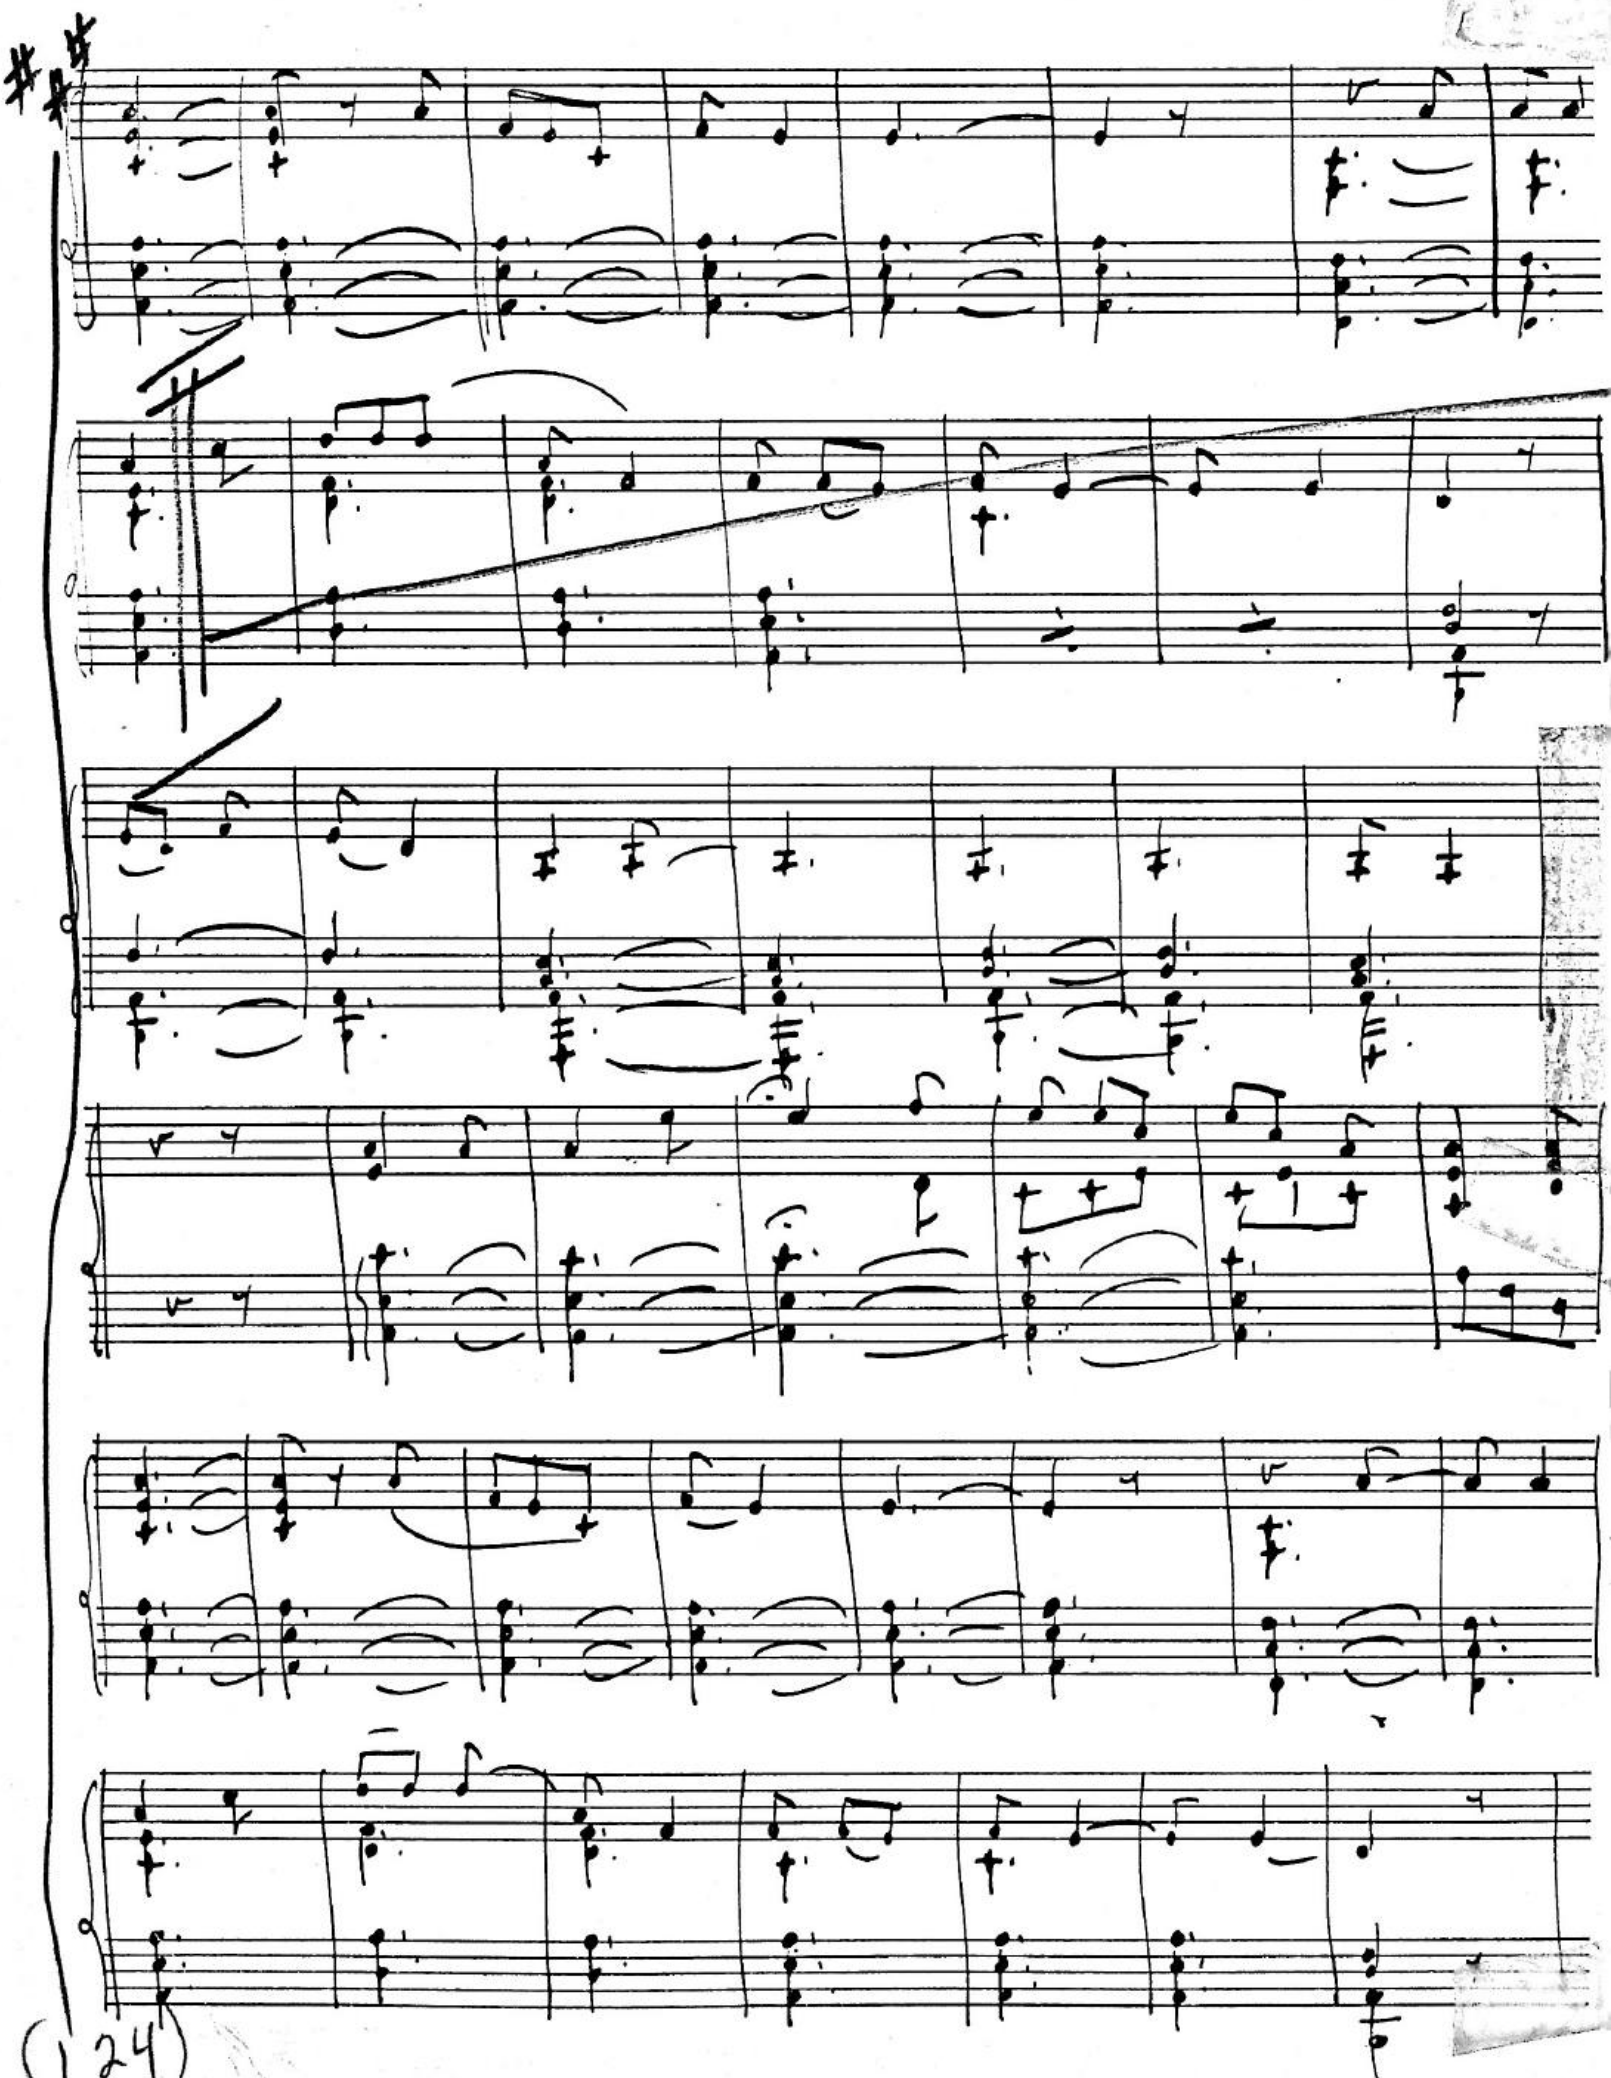

Indian Dance

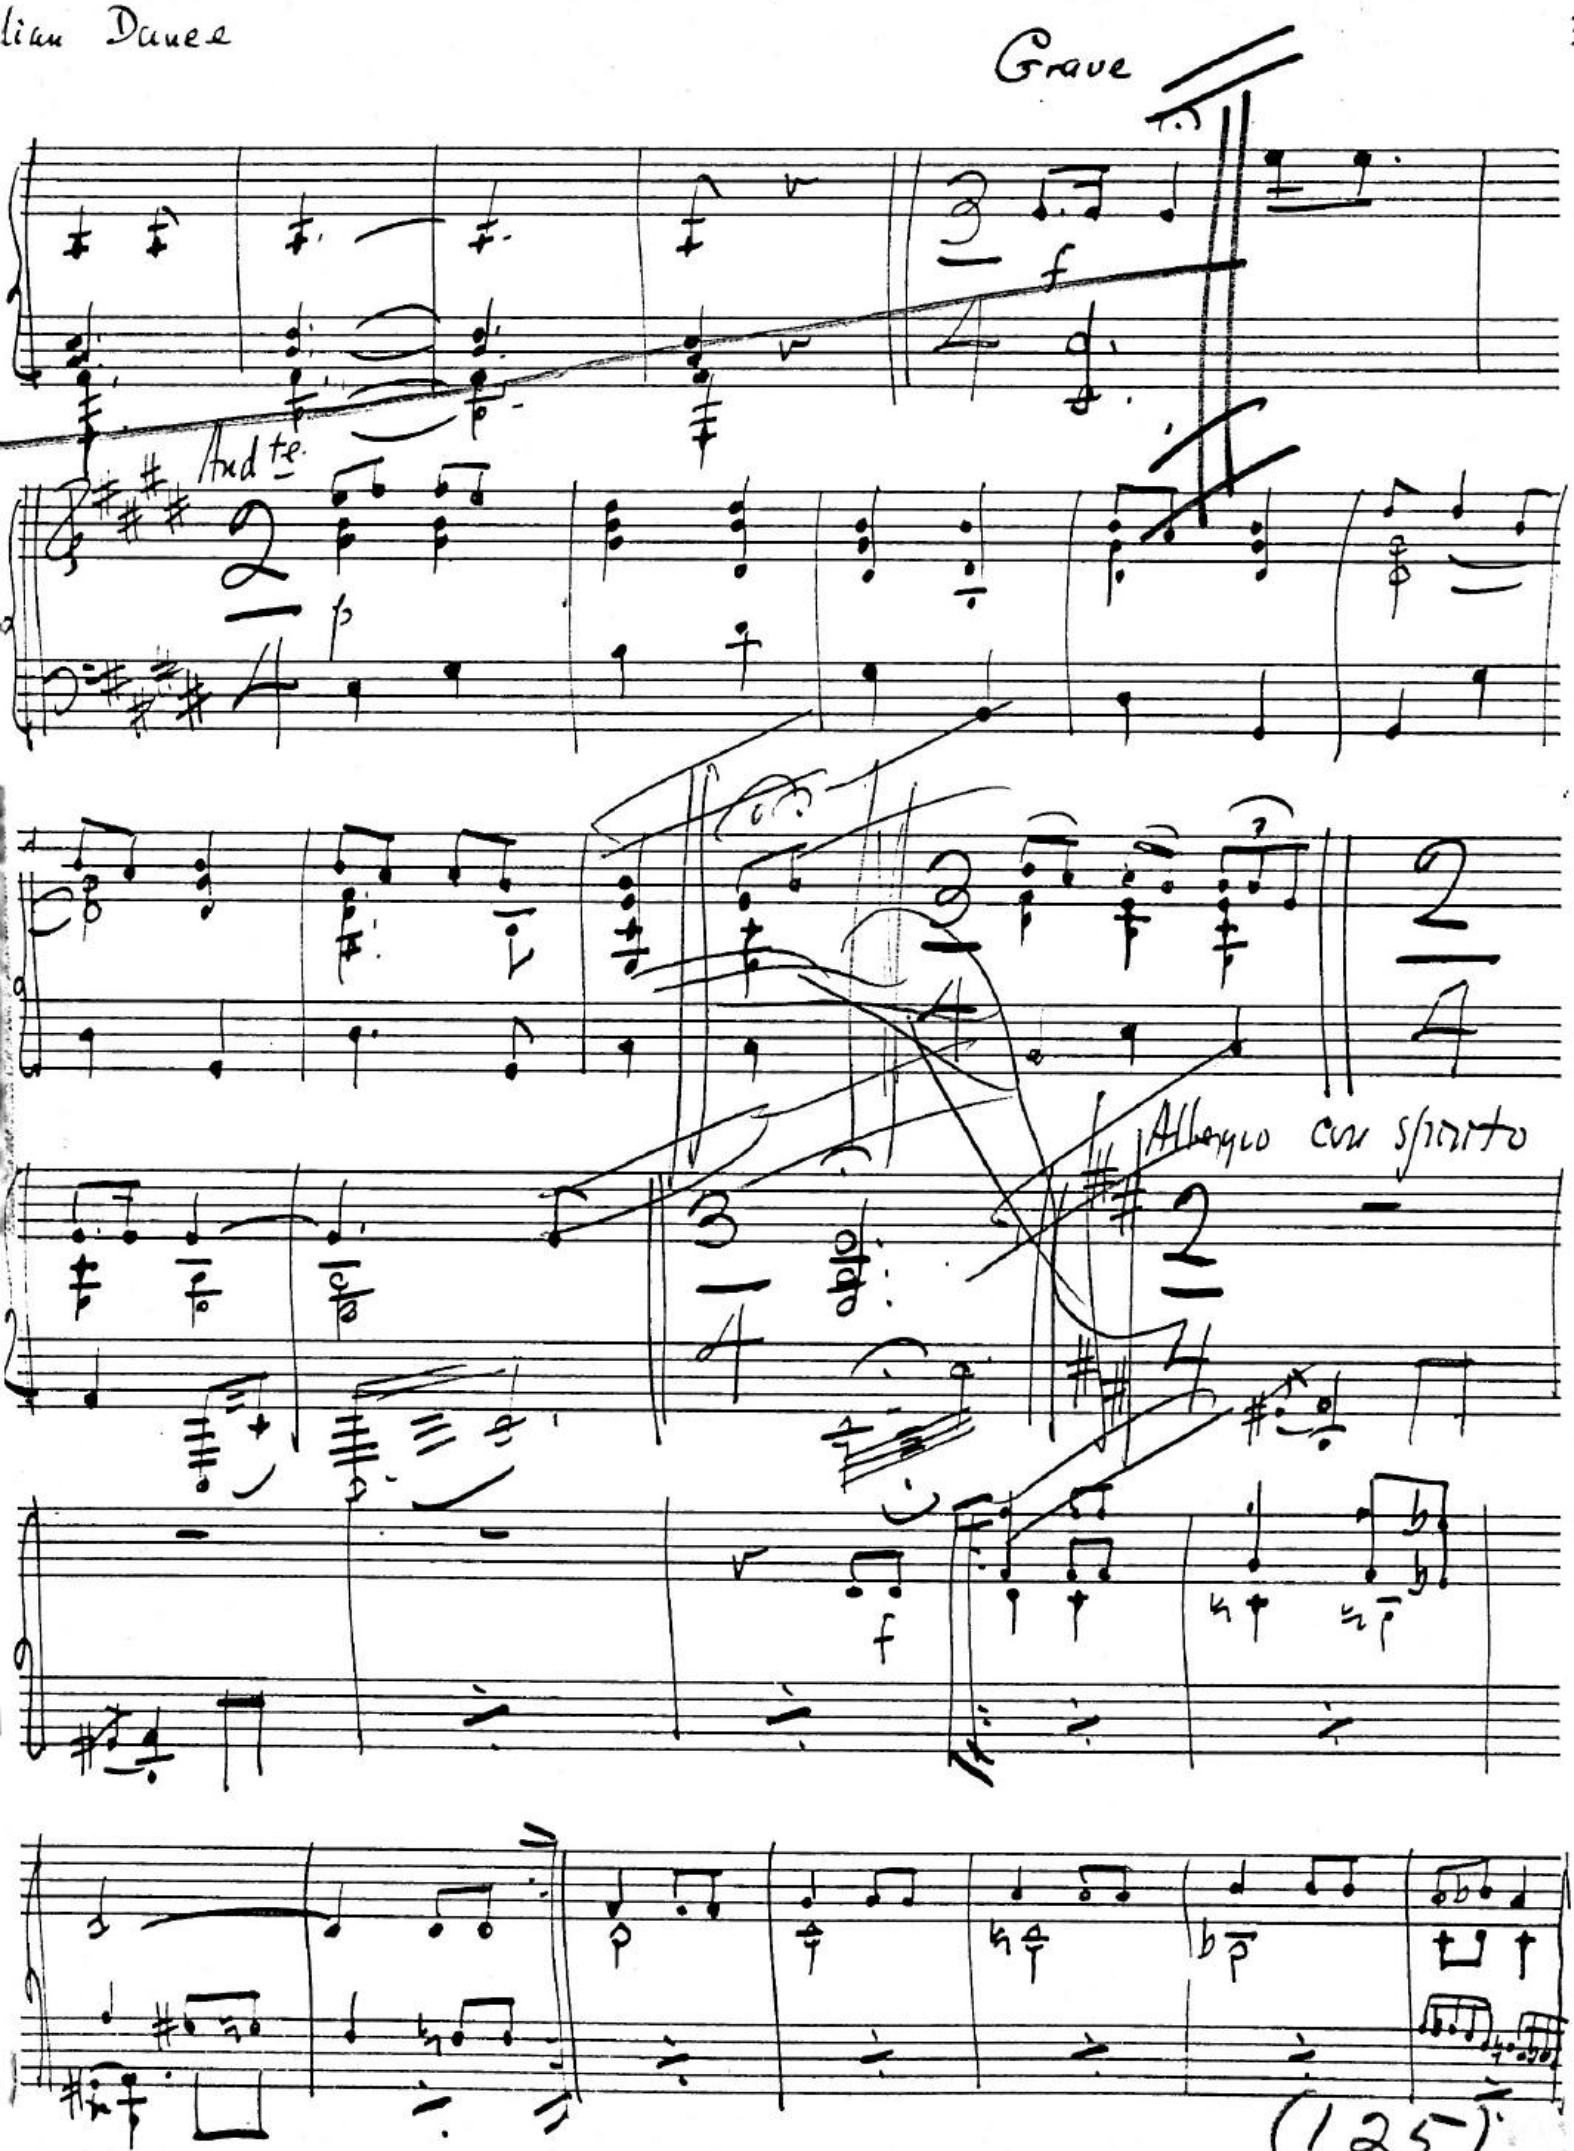

20

Agitato

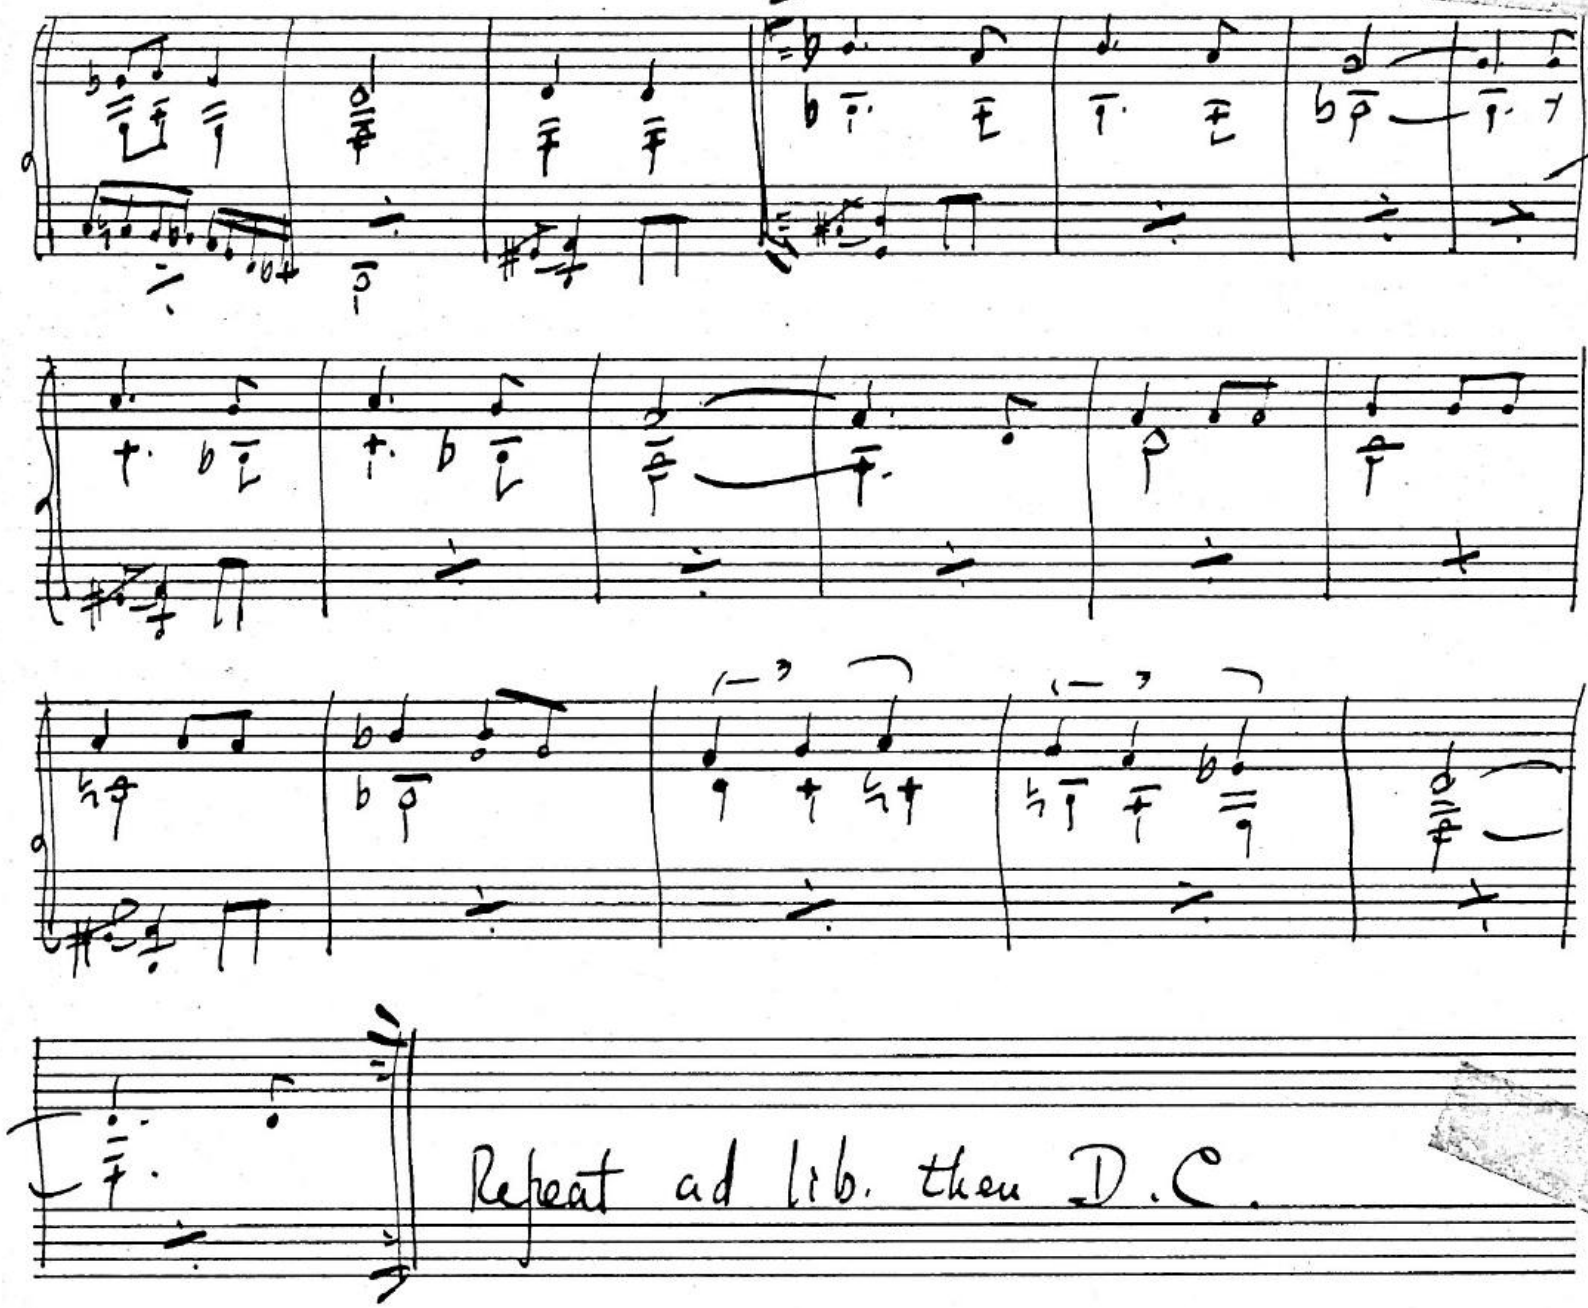

Indian Dance

Grave
And te
Allegro con spirito

Indian Dance

Repeat ad lib. then D.C.

Act II Scene 9

37

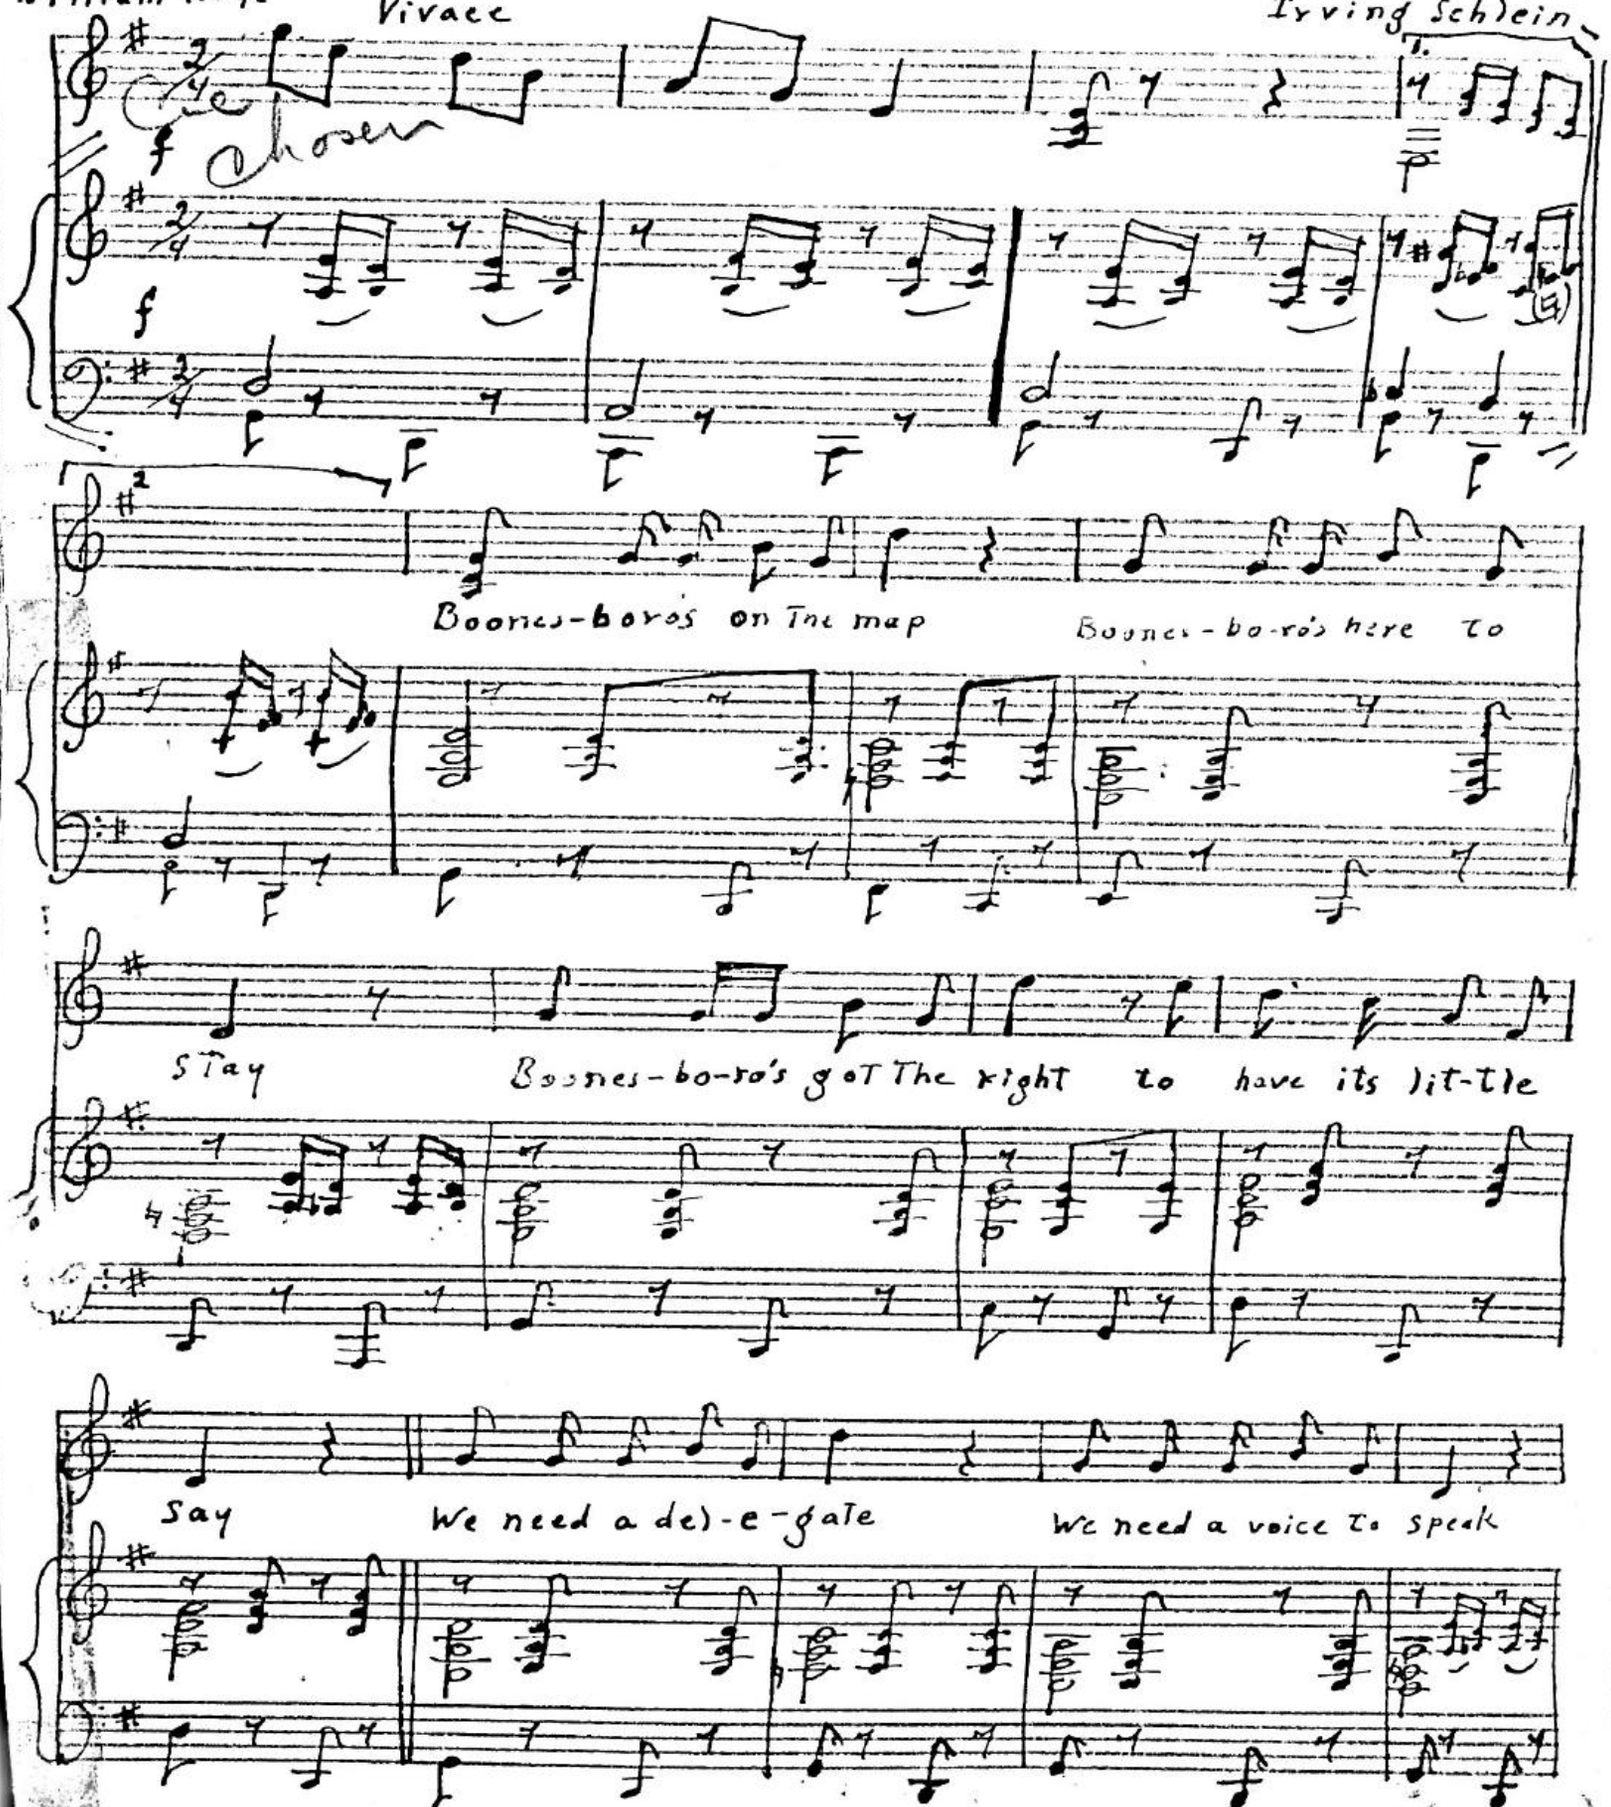

"Boonesboro's On The Map"

"Blue Grass"

Produced by Floyd Worthington + William Kaye

Lyrics by William Kaye

Music by Irving Schlein

Doonesbury on the rise

"Blue Grass"

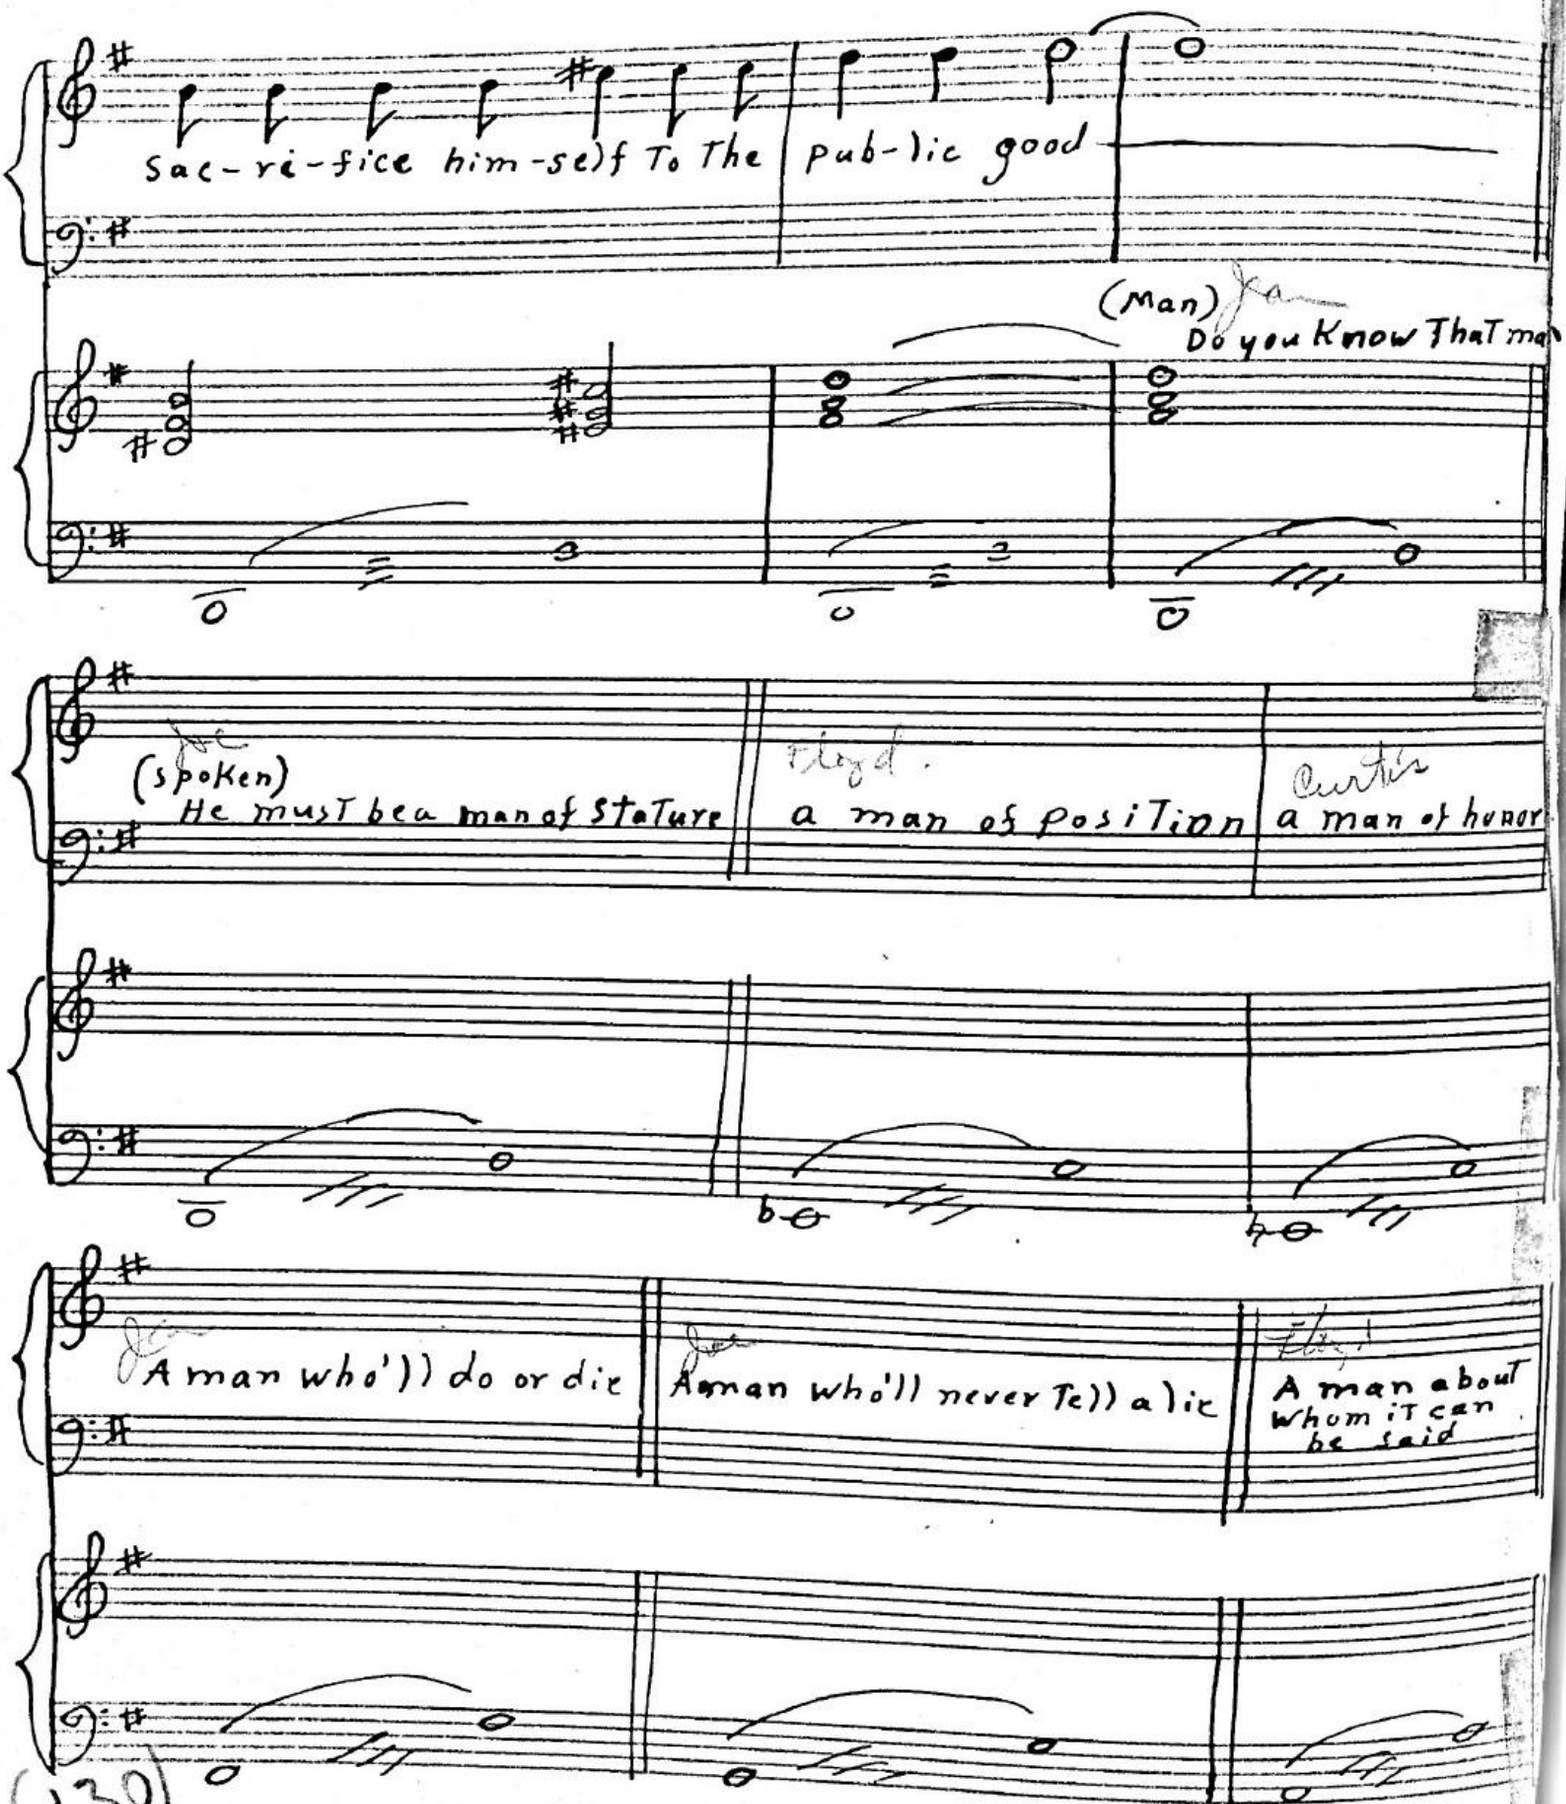

Alpha Music
501 Madison Ave
New York 22, N

meno mosso-Recit Trust Who'll fight for Boones-bo-ro or bust a Orchestra Tacet
sfz Solo, ad lib.
man like That can't be in Po)-i-Tics or look for per-son-al gain as some would A man like That must

"Boonesboro's on The map"

"Blue Grass"

TRANSO No. 1

"Blue Grass"

a Tempo Primo MAN: That man is dead CO): No, he isn't! He's right here. Dan'l Boone. our delegate To The legislature. we've got a de)-e-gate we've got a voice To speak we've got a man who'll fight for Boones-bo-ro
t/b Background
(131) Dialogue